

SHERWIN-WILLIAMS
PAINTS
 AND VARNISHES
 COVER THE EARTH
 SOLD HERE

THE SIGN OF GOOD PAINT

Any one who uses or ought to use paints and varnishes, should remember that we have the agency for

SHERWIN-WILLIAMS
PAINTS AND VARNISHES

in this locality. For fifty years this line has been the world's leader—that's why we chose it; and we are leaders in good things here—that's why they chose us. It's a pretty good combination to do business with.

Hoene Hardware

COTTONWOOD AND VICINITY

Personal Mention and Local Happenings of the Week in This Vicinity.

"Human Hearts." 23-1
 "Hail the Woman" the picture every woman will want to see.
 Princess Flour, $1.85 per sack; 400 Flour $2.05 per sack. At the stores or V. C. Co. Whse.
 Wilbur Bryant was in town a couple of days the first of the week from his farm north of Grangeville.
 Clem Waldman was in town Monday from Greencreek and renewed faith with the Chronicle for another year.
 H. C. Netzel, manager of the Leggett Mercantile store at Orofino, was in the city late last week.
 Frank Arnen, constable of Greencreek precinct, was in town Monday on official business.
 John Hoene intends starting sawing lumber at his mill near Keuterville, Monday if he can secure men enough to complete his crew.
 Miss Laura Hatrup came up from Lewiston late last week, where she is attending the state normal school, and was present when her sister graduated from the local high school.
 Adolph Hinkelman, one of Winona's most prosperous farmers, was in town Monday and reported crops looking fine in his section and prospects good for a real old time harvest this year.
 W. W. Flint, accompanied by his wife and son will leave Monday morning for a two week's visit at the home of Mr. Flint's parents at Woodburn, Oregon. While in Oregon Mr. Flint will also take in the Oregon banker's convention at Albany.

"Human Hearts." 23-1
 Have you a Human Heart? Find out next Thursday. 23-1
 Princess Flour, $1.85 per sack; 400 Flour $2.05 per sack. At the stores or V. C. Co. Whse.
 Saturday's storm left Cottonwood Butte with a white crown for several days.
 Chas. Betz is back on the job again after an enforced lay-off of several weeks.
 Ben Forsman was down from Keuterville, Saturday and joined the list of Chronicle readers.
 Fred Pfannebecker and daughter were trading in the city Monday from near Winona.
 Quite a few farmers from the surrounding country delivered fat hogs in town Monday.
 Barney Luchtefeld was in town Monday from his home near Keuterville.
 A Hayes auto wheel wrench was left at this office the first of the week. Owner can secure same by paying for this ad.
 The party that was seen picking up the straw hat near the Baptist church is requested to leave same at the Rooke hotel to save trouble. Mrs. Walter Brockman. 23-1*
 Mrs. M. M. Belknap came up from Lewiston late last week to attend the graduation of her son, Burdette. Mrs. Belknap has been in Lewiston for several weeks with her son, Donald, who recently underwent an operation at that place.
 Mr. Small, of Montana, last week sold 160 acres of land on Joseph to James Gibbons, the land being a tract adjoining the latter's homestead. This was Mr. Small's first visit to the Salmon river section and he was very much impressed with it as a stock country.
 M. M. Belknap and son Burdette were again called to Lewiston this morning to be near the bedside of their son and brother, Donald who is to undergo another operation this morning. The young man, who was reported to be doing so nicely last week we are sorry to inform our readers is not doing as well as was anticipated.

"Human Hearts." 23-1
 "Human Hearts"—your heart my heart. 23-1
 Ben Shaw, the stock buyer, was in town the first of the week.
 A. L. Wilson, state pure food and sanitary inspector, was in the city Tuesday from Boise.
 Another heavy rain Tuesday afternoon to add to those already gone before.
 Princess Flour, $1.85 per sack; 400 Flour $2.05 per sack. At the stores or V. C. Co. Whse.
 Mrs. Walter Brockman and little son came over from Moscow the first of the week to be here on Memorial day and decorate the grave of Mr. Brockman.
 N. A. Litherland and family moved to Ferdinand, Monday where N. A. has taken the place of K. M. Bibb in overseeing the Vollmer bank and warehouse.
 The Cottonwood orchestra went to Grangeville, Wednesday evening to furnish music for the Memorial Day dance but report a very small crowd in attendance.
 D. H. McGrath, former station agent at Fenn, passed through town Tuesday with his family enroute to a new location in Washington.
 Rev. Father, Boniface came over from Nezperce where he is taking the place of Father Zuur, and assisted at the Corpus Christi services in the local church yesterday.
 The Grangeville base ball club will give a dance at the Dreamland hall in Grangeville on Saturday, eve, June 9th, for the benefit of the ball club and a big time is promised all who come. Music will be furnished by the Cottonwood orchestra. 23-1
 "Human Hearts" dedicated to the Mothers of the World. 23-1
 Mrs. J. F. Jenny and Mrs. Frank Dreps received the sad news the first of the week announcing the death of their sister, Mrs. Mary Bachus, at Hilbert, Wis. The lady, was a twin sister of Mrs. Jenny, had been ill for a number of years and her death was not unexpected. She leaves a husband and seven children, most of whom are grown.

"Human Hearts" a story the whole world loves. 23-1
 Carl Reuter, the Fenn butcher was in town Monday on business.
 Princess Flour, $1.85 per sack; 400 Flour $2.05 per sack. At the stores or V. C. Co. Whse.
 Henry Michels and family are visiting with relatives and friends in Uniontown, Wash.
 John Baer shipped one car of hogs from this place to Spokane Tuesday morning. The price paid was 7 cents.
 Mrs. John Johann and children are visiting at the Blackburn farm on Grave Creek this week and John is leading ye happy bachelor's life during their absence.
 Mrs. G. H. Hagar arrived in the city Tuesday evening from Park City, Utah, and will spend a month here visiting at the H. T. Agnew home, the lady being a sister of Mr. Agnew.
 H. T. Agnew and John Morarity have moved their families from their homes in Cottonwood to their summer homes near Westlake where they will remain until the opening of school this fall.
 Mr. and Mrs. August Seubert motored to Clarkston, Saturday where they visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Nuxoll while Mr. Seubert was attending the K. C. convention at Wallace. They returned home Thursday.
 Roy Unzicker brought out from his ranch on Salmon river a sample of spring Marquis wheat which he planted March 3 and is now on display at the Cottonwood State Bank. The wheat is just two inches short of being four feet in height.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Farris and family are making plans for a two weeks outing and vacation which they will take in the near future. They plan on visiting relatives at Walla Walla and friends in Oregon. They will make the trip in their car.
 Avery Gentry returned Friday evening of last week from Lewiston where he has been recuperating from the effects of an operation at the St. Joseph hospital. Mr. Gentry says since the removal of his appendix he has greatly improved in health.
 Carl M. Grayson, formerly county agent of Idaho county is now engaged by the Craig Mountain Lumber company at Winchester to organize a bull association in that section. After he completes this work he will accept the position of county agent for Ada county.
 Mr. Maginn, of the Free Press force, at Grangeville, who assisted in getting out the last issue of the Chronicle, was unable to return this week and as a linotype operator could not be secured this side of Spokane it became necessary to call Mr. Medved home from Montana a week earlier than he had intended coming. He reached home Wednesday evening.
 N. A. Litherland, who June 1 assumes the cashiership of the Bank of Ferdinand, moved his family and household goods here from Cottonwood, Monday, and they are now domiciled in the K. M. Bibb house. We welcome the family to our village and hope their stay amongst us will be most pleasant.—Ferdinand Enterprise.
 Guy Chiesman, well known to Cottonwood people as a ball player and all around good fellow, has taken over the big dance pavilion at Winchester for the summer and will open the same to the public with a big dance on Wednesday night, June 6th. Mann Bros. orchestra, of Lewiston, will furnish music for the occasion and a big time is anticipated.
 Mrs. R. Hilpert and family expect to leave Monday for Centralia, Wash. to reside in the future. The family has resided here for the past year and during their residence in Cottonwood they have made many friends who will regret to see them depart from our midst. Mr. Hilpert has been on the coast for some time. They will ship their household goods by freight.
 Owing to an oversight on the part of the editor of the Chronicle during the rush last week the names of Miss Margaret Shinnick and Miss Louise Hatrup were omitted from the list of graduates from the Cottonwood high school as published in the Chronicle. Both of these young ladies were members of the graduating class. We gladly make this correction which has been called to our attention by many of our readers.

DELICIOUS SODA
 AT OUR Fountain

GOOD THINGS TO EAT AND DRINK. MADE FROM THE CHOICEST FRUITS, SYRUPS AND CREAM.

WE HAVE FITTED UP OUR BALCONY WHICH WILL ACCOMODATE 16 TO 20 PEOPLE COMFORTABLY AND WILL BE IDEAL FOR SMALL PARTIES.

We Solicit Your Patronage
The Rexall Store
 Prescription Druggist

DON'T WORRY

LET RICHARDS AND SON MAKE YOU A NEW SUIT OR CLEAN AND PRESS YOUR OLD ONES

They Know How

BUSINESS IS GOOD. COME IN AND MAKE IT BETTER.

The Home Tailors

Keeping Pace

BUSINESS PROGRESS REQUIRES GOOD BANKING SERVICE—IT CANNOT GET ALONG WITHOUT IT. WE ARE PREPARED TO OFFER COMPLETE BANKING SERVICE TO ALL CUSTOMERS. WE INVITE YOU TO CONSULT US ABOUT YOUR BUSINESS AND FINANCIAL PROBLEMS.

WE WRITE FIRE AND HAIL INSURANCE IN SEVERAL OF AMERICA'S STRONGEST COMPANIES. A LITTLE HAIL INSURANCE MAY COME IN HANDY

The First National Bank

COTTONWOOD, IDAHO

Cottonwood Dray

EDGAR WORTMAN, Proprietor

DRAYING AND TRANSFER WORK OF ALL KINDS
 All Work Carefully Handled and Promptly Done
 COTTONWOOD, IDAHO

HAIL INSURANCE

The season when hail storms are most apt to strike is about here. In a few minutes your crop may be completely ruined.

We can insure your crops against hail in the OLD HARTFORD FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY, which has been doing business for more than one hundred years. We shall be glad to have you call and talk over this matter of hail insurance.

Cottonwood State Bank

E. M. EHRHARDT, President
 M. M. BELKNAP, Vice President
 H. C. MATTHIEN, Cashier