

Money, Panic in St. Louis

We are glad to be able to announce that the panic in St. Louis is at an end. Confidence has been restored, and hopes are entertained that Page & Bacon and Loker, Renick & Co., will soon be able to resume. The following various notices will be read with interest:

TO THE PUBLIC.

It is with the greatest satisfaction that we are able to announce that all drafts of Page, Bacon & Co., California, on us, and all other correspondents in the Atlantic States, will be promptly paid by the BANK OF AMERICA, New York. Holders of such drafts will please forward for payment. PAGE & BACON. St. Louis, Jan. 18, 1855.

NOTICE.

All outstanding drafts drawn on Page & Bacon by J. Dunn, of Springfield, Ill., will be duly honored on presentation at the office of Henning & Woodruff. St. Louis, Jan. 15th, 1855.

A CARD.

The undersigned, while they deeply regret the difficulties alluded to in their notice yesterday, hasten to assure their depositors and customers that their assets are sufficient to pay all their liabilities, and at an early day will resume payment in part, if not in whole. Those having notes or drafts left here for collection will please call and get them. LOKER, RENICK & CO. St. Louis, Jan. 13, 1855.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The undersigned, knowing, and relying on the ample ability of the following Banking Houses, in the city of St. Louis, and with a view of quieting the public mind with regard to the safety of deposits made with them hereby pledge themselves and offer as a guarantee their property, to make good all deposits with either of said Banking Houses, to wit: Messrs. "Lucas & Simonds, Boggs, Milner & Co., Tesson & Danjen, L. A. Belmont & Co., John C. Anderson & Co., Darby & Barksdale, and the Bostonians' Savings Institution." D. A. January, J. O'Fallon, Ed. Walsh L. A. Laboume, J. B. Brant, L. M. Kennett, Greely & Gale, Sam'l B. Wiggins, Switzer, Platt & Co., R. M. Funk & Co., Amodeo Berthold, Green Erskine, John How, Jas. Harrison, Andrew Christy, Charles P. Chouteau, Wayman Crow, R. J. Lockwood, Wm. L. Ewing, Chas. T. Farnham, Isaac Walker, John C. Rust, of firm A. Meyer & Co. St. Louis, Jan. 15, 1855.

LUCAS & SIMONDS.

The ordeal which this house has just passed through has only increased public confidence in their strength and solvency. On Saturday last, so great was the rush to their counters, that they paid out to depositors the large amount of $260,000. On Monday, however, so completely was confidence restored, that the amount of money deposited with them exceeded the sum withdrawn by more than $56,000. Notwithstanding the immense personal wealth of the senior partner, the firm of Lucas & Simonds have been most prudent and discreet in the management of their widely extended business; and when the crisis of Saturday came on them, they showed themselves amply prepared for the emergency, though it was sudden.—Republican.

CITY BANKERS.

As the card of yesterday, issued by many of our responsible citizens, guaranteeing the Banking houses of the city, omitted several firms (E. W. Clark & Brothers and Haskell & Co., for instance), we deem it proper to state that the omission was not intended to imply any want of confidence in the ability of those firms to meet their liabilities. The course taken by the subscribers, as we learn, was adopted on the spur of the moment, and the omission was accidental. Had any evils resulted in consequence of the neglect, the proper remedy would immediately have been applied. E. W. Clark & Brothers and Haskell & Co. hold enviable positions in this community as Bankers, and their standing and credit are above suspicion.—Republican.

MEETING TO SUSTAIN PAGE AND BACON.

We have never known a more spontaneous and hearty outburst of sympathy towards any men than has been manifested universally in this community towards Page & Bacon in their present reverse. They were struggling in the service of St. Louis, and they had for months and almost years been carrying a gigantic burden, and all for the honor and prosperity of this city. They have made unparalleled exertions, but the misfortune of the country have, for the time, crushed their efforts. But shall they fail? Never.—Intelligencer.

Let the citizens of St. Louis meet and give if not their "material aid" that moral aid which a rich, powerful numerous and just community can give to a brave and honorable House.—Intelligencer.

LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.

New York, January 15. The steamship Northern-Light arrived at her dock about eight o'clock this forenoon, bringing 227 passengers and $553,000 treasure in freight.

Matters in Central America remain as at last dates. Chamorro is still successful.

The committee appointed at the Railroad meeting at San Francisco, had decided that by stage route across the plains is the most practicable means of securing the speedy completion of the Railroad, and the Legislature will probably be called upon to make an appropriation for the purpose.

The question as to the State Capital was about to be decided, and Sacramento will doubtless be the place.

Miss Sarah Pellitt had declared her intention of taking about 5,000 respectable New England girls to California.

A libel suit, brought by George Thayer against the Christian Advocate, had resulted in favor of the plaintiff—damages $3000.

Yankee Sullivan had been arrested on a bench warrant.

The criminal record of the week shows a falling off in crime. Henry Harrison, a policeman, in San Francisco, was stabbed by a woman named Elizabeth Sullivan, with whom he had been cohabiting, but whom he deserted for the purpose of getting married. Joseph Gebbe was stabbed by David Baker, for making dishonorable proposals to his wife, when they were fellow passengers on Cortez. Neither party were killed.

The much needed rain still held off. Miners were anxiously awaiting it, and cattle and vegetation, in some places, were suffering for want of it. Immense quantities of dirt had been thrown up, in anticipation of a fall of rain, and good judges looked for a larger yield of gold, in the event of heavy rains, than was ever before realized.

The largest portion of the business part of the town was destroyed by fire on the eve of the 21st. The fire was the work of an incendiary.

Resignation of Mr. Soule.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15. Mr. Soule has resigned his position as minister to Spain and H. J. C. Breckinridge has been appointed his successor. He will be confirmed to-morrow.

WARNING TO DRINKERS.—Of 67 convicts in Iowa Penitentiary during the last five years, more than two-thirds were intemperate, or moderate drinkers; 33 intemperate, 10 moderate drinkers.

BOAT UP!—The steamer Jenny Lind passed up yesterday to Rock Island.—This is quite an event in the history of winter navigation on the Upper Mississippi.—Burlington Telegraph 20th.

Obituary.

DIED.—On Tuesday, the 16th inst., Brutus, only son of Hon. Cyrus and Maria Franklin, of Wapello county, Iowa. The deceased was a boy of bright promise, and the friends of the bereaved parents deeply sympathize with them in this afflictive dispensation of Providence, may they find consolation in the assurance that He who rules the destiny of man, doeth all things well.

Great Demand.

There seems to be a universal demand in our city for J. L. Curtis' Compound Syrup of Sassafras. This article has been tried, and used with the most powerful effect, in the very worst cases of measles, coughs, hoarseness, whooping cough, consumption, and all diseases of the lungs of long standing, and is now the most popular and beneficial medicine used for all those diseases for which it is so highly recommended.

J. L. Curtis' Original Mameluke, is now acknowledged by all persons of experience as the best stimulant ever used, for the cure of all those diseases for which it is so highly recommended and in which it has been so successfully used. It stands unparalleled by any medicine ever offered to the public. A fresh supply of these medicines has just been received by the agents. Those persons who are not supplied had better call on some agent and supply their families.

Take none unless signed by J. L. CURTIS. (See advertisement in another column.)
