No. 101, Fast Mail, 6:15 A. M.

J. W. Rice and Duncan Martin, of Dover, are in the city.

John F. Couts has returned from a week's stay at Eastbrook Springs.

Chas. R. Hallums has returned from a business trip to Cincinnati.

The Board of Mayor and Aldermen will meet this evening at 4:30 instead of at night.

Misses Emma and Georgia Ingram have returned from their visit to Kentucky friends.

The Nashville Commercial Club has arranged for the meeting of the road congress, Tuesday, August 25.

Judge Munford adjourned court at Erin yesterday and came home to vote. He will return to Erin tomorrow.

R. S. Hester, of Hopkinsville, has sued the L. & N. R. Co., for $20,000 for damages received some time ago at Springfield, Tenn.

Fire in Trigg County.
A large barn and stable, the property of Col. Hamilton of Roaring Springs, Ky., was mysteriously burned yesterday, together with all its contents, consisting of stock, feed, farming implements, etc. The loss is estimated at $2,500 with no insurance. The fire was thought to have been of incendiary origin.

The LEAF-CHRONICLE has received a card from Mrs. Sue F. Mooney, at Dresden, stating that in the accident to her at that place a few days ago, she was not seriously hurt, though she sustained painful bruises. Mrs. Mooney's friends here will be glad to hear that she was not seriously hurt, and the LEAF-CHRONICLE joins them in congratulating her on the escape.

Kemmler Executed.

On the first page of to-day's LEAF-CHRONICLE will be found a full synopsis of the electrocution of Wm. Kemmler, at Auburn, N. Y., yesterday, together with a picture of the murderer and the execution chair. The details of this first execution by electricity in the United States will be found interesting.

Corbendale Items.

To the Tobacco Leaf-Chronicle.
Charlie, the nine-year old son of W. J. Ross, was severely torn by a sow on last Thursday evening. A pig was fastened in the fence, when the sow pitched upon the child that was standing near and bit him badly.

The public schools opened Monday. Miss Helen Leigh is the teacher at Corbendale and Miss Georgia Bradford teaches the Tarsus school.

Corbendale, August 5.

City Court.

There were three offenders before Recorder Bailey this morning. The evidence was that Sip Jones, Geo. Hooser and Pig Green jumped on a country negro on Strawberry alley last evening and beat him up considerably. Jones and Hooser were fined $5.00 each, while Green, who seemed to be the leader in the fight, was fined $5.00 and taxed with the cost in each case. This makes a total so far of $15 in fines and costs for the month of August, an average of about $25.00 per day.

Important Purchase.

Piedmont, Charlie and Harry Gerhart have purchased of B. W. Macrae the storehouse now occupied by M. L. Cross. This is adjoining the present storehouse of N. V. Gerhart & Sons and the object of the purchase is to take out the division wall and throw the two storehouses into one, to accommodate their large business. This will give them one of the best salesrooms in the city, with a double front on Franklin and Commerce streets. The LEAF-CHRONICLE is glad to see them spreading out. Mr. Cross will continue to occupy the storehouse for the present.

ELECTION ECHOES.

Political Speaking at the Court House Last Night.

The Polls Opened Promptly at 9 O'clock and Voters Began—General Notes of the Election.

The court-house last night was full of voters principally colored, called together to hear speeches of the campaign orators. Many speeches were made; some in favor of one candidate and some for another. General Boyd was the first speaker, and it seemed that he was riding the Sheriff's horse. He declared himself in favor of Wm. Rollow for sheriff. He was followed by Rev. Smith who spoke in favor of C. W. Staton. These speeches were followed closely by others, and were kept up until about midnight.

This morning the rain seemed to throw a damper over the crowd, but the candidates were busy getting their tickets ready. These tickets are a study. There will be something over 4,000 votes cast in the election to-day. For this vote 125,000 tickets have been printed at this office, and it is safe to say that 75,000 have been turned out of the other offices in the city, making 200,000 tickets for 5,000 votes. This seems an incredible number, but when it is understood that there are from 48 to 96 combinations for each candidate in the field and that the combinations have to be distributed at 24 voting precincts, the number is not unreasonable.

The polls were opened promptly this morning at 9 o'clock and the votes began coming in at once.

The court-house seemed to catch most of the crowd from the fact that it offered shelter from the rain. At this voting place the judges are as follows: Hardin Wickham, Jas. Hamlett and W. D. Meriwether. The clerks are Clay Staeker and B. Fuqua.

The market-house has the following judges: Daniel Overton, T. H. Jackson and J. H. Pettus. The clerks are W. H. Turner and Wayne Turner.

The indications are that in this district a full vote will be cast, but in the country, owing to the rain, the vote will fall below an average.

It has been remarked on all sides that the election is as quiet one as was ever held in the city. Not a disturbance of any kind has been noted at either voting place. The closest fight for votes is being made in the Sheriff's election, and the result at the time of going to press is doubtful. When a recess was taken at 1 o'clock, for dinner, 137 votes had been cast at the market-house and 470 at the court-house, making a total of 207 votes.

It is not believed that a full vote will be polled to-day. There has been no excitement in the election, no party question up. The liveliest interest, however, seems to be in the sheriff's election between Rollow and Staton and between Fount Daniel and Dr. Shelby for Circuit court clerk.

Western Kentucky Tobacco.

Chas. Y. Wilson, commissioner of Agriculture for the State of Kentucky in his monthly crop report, has the following to say of tobacco in Western Kentucky: "Western Kentucky is suffering most from the drought, except a few Ohio river counties, including Daves and Henderson, but the rain was not sufficient to restore the desired vigor. Occasional showers here and there have fallen, but the tobacco is very seriously damaged in all drought sections, and many report 25 to 40 per cent. as comparative condition. Worms are said to be prevailing in large numbers. The amount of tobacco raised and the quality will depend on the season from now on, but it will require a good season and a very late open fall to insure 75 per cent. of the '89 crop. With unfavorable conditions, our correspondents all indicate a much less yield than 75 per cent. The present average condition in the State is 60 per cent. of last year."

The same condition will apply to Tennessee, and it is even worse in Missouri, Illinois and other sections growing dark low grades. The indications are that the crop will be but very little better than the 1874 yield.

The Iron Furnace.

People are constantly inquiring about the Gracy Woodard furnace—when will the work commence.

The final location for the furnace with was made yesterday. W. J. Ely and the parties concerned all agreeing upon the line and right of way, and the grading and track laying will commence as soon as hands and teams can be had. The company has not yet been able to engage the brick needed for the furnace building, and may have to burn a kiln on the place. It will require 1,000,000 in the stack and other parts of the building. It will make business quite lively around here when this work gets under headway.

A large crowd attended the dance given at the residence of Nicholas Roach last evening, complimentary to Miss Ella D. Sullivan, of County Kerry, Ireland. A most enjoyable evening was spent.

Officer Robinson arrested three negroes on Strawberry alley last evening for fighting.

A Bad Place.

The Greenwood Railway Co. has the street torn up at the junction near the bridge for the purpose of making connection with the Madison street line. It has been in this condition some five or six days, and is not only a hindrance and inconvenience to public travel, but is in many respects dangerous. The connection should be made at once or the excavation filled up. Such a thing at such a place to cause a blockade where teams and vehicles are constantly meeting and passing and horses being frightened by passing trains, should not be allowable. No attention is paid to the city ordinance requiring a light to be hung every night at every obstruction of the streets, which is another violation of the law that should not be permitted. Whose duty is it, the street committee's, the police, or the city marshal's, to look after such matters?

Clarksville Planing Mills.

The card of Fred L. Smith & Sons will be found in the LEAF-CHRONICLE soliciting contracts and trade for building material. The house is reliable in every sense and prompt and reasonable in prices, having given such general satisfaction as to enable them to build up a very large business.

The Planing Mill is located on Franklin street opposite the big pond. Their large establishment, and sheds are crowded full of doors, blinds, sash, etc., of many styles to please any taste, while their yards are crowded with rough lumber of every kind. Mr. Fred Smith is a good builder and business man of long experience and has two sons, Tandy and Ed, who are both efficient in the business and are hustlers. They invite those wanting work or material to give them a chance.

Let us Have a Grand, Old-Fashioned, Democratic Rally.

We suggest to the Democrats generally that we have a grand, old-fashioned Democratic barbecue and rally near the city and invite the nominees, Mr. Buchanan and Hon. Ed. Baxter, to address the meeting and start the Democratic camp fires. We suggest that the new executive committee take this matter in hand after the county convention is over and appoint a committee in every district in the county to solicit carcasses for the barbecue and other necessities for the feast. There is nothing like getting together and having a general jubilee and shake up.

An Important Matter.

Druggists everywhere report that the sales of the Restorative Nervine—a nerve food and medicine—are astonishing, exceeding anything that they ever had, while it gives universal satisfaction in headache, nervousness, sleeplessness, sexual debility, backache, poor memory, fits, dizziness, etc. L. Burton & Co., Troy, N. Y.; Ambury & Murphy, of Battle Creek, Mich.; C. B. Woodward & Co., of Fort Wayne, Ind., and hundreds of others state that they never handled any medicine which sold so rapidly, or gave such satisfaction. Trial bottles of this great medicine and book on Nervous Diseases, free at Owen & Moore's, who guarantee and recommend it.

Robertson County News.

The Springfield Herald reports Judge John E. Garner very ill with typhoid fever.

Mrs. Rowe Harris, of Erin, is attending her father, Gen. Garner, Springfield, in his illness.

Miss Mary Anderson, says the Herald, is home from her visit to Clarksville.

A Safe Investment.

Is one which is guaranteed to bring you satisfactory results, or in case of failure a return of purchase price. It is guaranteed to bring relief, in every case, when used for any affection of throat, lungs or chest, such as Consumption, inflammation of lungs, bronchitis, asthma, whooping cough, croup, etc., etc. It is pleasant and agreeable to taste, perfectly safe, and can always be depended upon. Trial bottles free at Owen & Moore's drug store.

The EVENING TOBACCO LEAF-CHRONICLE goes to press before the polls are closed and therefore can give no election reports, but we will be able to give the general result in the Semi-Weekly to-morrow morning.

The papers of Southern and Western Kentucky are all full of Democratic chickens this week. It was a clean sweep for Democracy.

CUMBERLAND IRON WORKS.

Gobbled by an English Syndicate of London.

The Cumberland Iron Works near Dover have been sold. There is no mistake about it. The property has been gobbled by English gold.

The Cumberland Company, limited, of London, England, has purchased the Cumberland Iron Co.'s interest in Stewart county. The price paid for the property was 130,000 pounds English money, equivalent to nearly $650,000. The deed has been recorded at Dover, and the transfer of property made.

The Cumberland Iron Works property was owned by a stock company, principally composed of Nashville gentlemen, though several parties in Stewart county held stock in the company, prominent among whom is Dr. Steger, well known in this city. This transfer is significant, as it is supposed that the English company will develop Stewart county's hidden resources.

The Road Question.

It is high time that Montgomery county was taking some action appointing special delegates who will attend the Road Congress at Nashville Aug. 26. As the matter stands, Montgomery county will have no representation in that very important meeting. Is it impossible to arouse our people on this question? No county in the State is more interested or needs a good road system more than Montgomery, and yet no interest is being taken in the matter. What is everybody's business, seems to be nobody's business and therefore no action has been taken. We would suggest that the county convention when through with its regular business Monday, take some action in this matter, either elect delegates or call a special meeting for that purpose.

J. C. Matfill displayed his patriotism and his politics by hanging out his Hancock and English flag to-day. Joe is loyal to the old democratic nominees, and for ten years has on every important occasion displayed his Hancock and English flag.

The leaves on the sides of the trees next to the electric lights in several points in the city are turning red and appear fire-scorched and dead. Is this the influence of the lights, keeping the trees awake and absorbing their life?

That distention of the stomach which many people feel after eating, may be due to improper mastication of the food; but, in most cases, it indicates a weakness of the digestive organs, the best remedy for which is one of Ayer's Pills, to be taken after dinner.

The Lowe-Swift Killing.

A special sent from Tiptonville to the Memphis Appeal in regard to the killing of Dr. E. Swift at that place by M. A. (Van) Lowe throws a different phase over the affair. The Appeal's special states that Dr. Swift had been to a brandance and came to Tiptonville late in the evening drunk and raised a row with Lowe over an account of $19.00. The account was for medical treatment, and Lowe claimed that it was an overcharge, but proposed to pay the bill to keep down a fuss. Swift became furious and struck Lowe three times and followed him up and abused him. Lowe walked into his office and got a pistol. Swift went to the office and further abused Lowe, when the latter fired on him twice, shooting him both times in the head and killing him almost instantly. Lowe gave himself up to the sheriff and gave a bond of $5,000 for his appearance at court.

Failures in Life.

People fail in many ways. In business, in morality, in religion, in happiness and in health. A weak heart is often an unexpected cause of failure in life. If the blood does not circulate properly the lungs, there is shortness of breath, asthma, etc.; in the brain, dizziness, headache, etc.; in the stomach, wind, pain, indigestion, etc. Pain in the left side, shoulder and stomach, is caused by heart strain. For all these maladies Dr. Miles' New Cure for the heart and lungs is the best remedy. Sold, guaranteed and recommended by Owen & Moore. Treatise free.
