44. And He said unto them, These are the words which I spake unto you while I was yet with you," He is no longer with them as when in His mortal body. He is the same Jesus as He has proved by walking, talking, eating with them, allowing them to handle Him; but while all this is grandly true, yet He has censed to be long to the earth in its present state (I mean only as to abiding upon it), for the immortal and Incorruptible does not yet dwell on earth.

"That all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms concerning Me." Here is the only key to all Scripture, Jesus Himself. Moses wrote of Him, and to Him gave all the prophets witness, while David also in the psalms spake concerning Him (John v. 46; Acts x. 43; ii, 31).

45. "Then opened He their understanding, that they might understand the Scriptures." As He is the key to all Scripture, so He also by His Spirit is the only Teacher. Who teacheth like Him? The inspiration of the Almighty giveth understanding (Job xxxvi, 22; xxxii, 8). The natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness sick. So that if he goes to sleep or is taken unto him; neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. But he that is spiritual discerneth all things.

46. "And said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behooved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day." Jesus in all His teaching appenled to the Scriptures, saying, "It is written," or "What is written, how readest thou?" And now he repeats what He had said to the two on the way to Emmaus, that, according to the Scriptures, the Christ must die had to be delivered in disguise, and candy makers executally was particular about and rise again the third day. The promise makers especially were particular about was that the Christ, or Messiah, should put this. Now the very best candles are made

48. "And ye are witnesses of thest hings." Or, as it is written in Acts i, 8 chose Israel from among all the nations of the earth to be His witness to all nations that He is the one only living and true God, but while a faithful remnant stood for Him, the majority of the people fulled.

The resolution, "The Ideal Head of Christ," was also burned.

52. "And they worshiped Him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy."
When they were so sad at His death, because He had not redeemed Lerael as they expected He would have done, how is it that they are now full of great joy when He has gene again and the Kingdom had not yet come? Some tell us that now they understood, as they did not before, that He had come, not to restore the Kingdom to Israel, but to set up a spiritual kingdom in the hearts of men. This is a mere fabrication of man, and it is not only without foundation in Scripture, but is contrary to all Scripture. The true reason of their joy is found in the message of the angels who stood by them after He ascended, and said, "This same Jesus which is taken up from you into Heaven shall so come in like manner as ye have seen Him go into Heaven" (Acts i, 11).

"When Ayer's Sarsaparilla was recommended to me for catarch, I was inclined to doubt its efficacy. Having tried so many remedies, with little benefit, I had no falth that anything would cure me. I became emaciated from loss of appetite and impaired digestion. I had nearly lost the sense of smell, and my system was badly derarged. I was about discouraged, when a friend urged me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and referred me to persons whom it had cured of catarch. After taking half a dozen bottles of this medicine, I am convinced that the only sure way of treating this obstinate disease is through the blood."
