This Peculiar Story Which Comes From Kent, O.

A Case Where Truth is Stranger Than Flotion.

Marriage of a Couple Who Were Married and Separated Half a Century Ago-In the Meantime Each Had Married Again and Lost Their Partner by Death-There is No Love Like the First Love.

KENT, Nov. 17 .- One of the greatest romances that Kent ever had was brought to light here Tuesday.

Forty-five years ago Samuel Smith and wife, who at that time lived in Shreve township, got into a little family difficulty and parted. Mr. Smith, being of a proud disposition, would not humble himself to return. He has wandered all over the United States and South America, spending most of his time west of the Mississippi river. He is a cooper by army, and some time in 1886 appled for a pension, and about two weeks ago re-ceived all his back pension, amounting to over $3,000, with which he bought bome in Hamilton, Mich., where he ha where he has been living for the greater part of the last two years with his sister, Mrs. Welhard, and his niece, Mrs. Sears.
