

A Good Fruit Salad

Make it from apples, bananas, oranges, and pineapples cut into small cubes. Cover it with a rich cream dressing made from

Virgin Olive Oil

This particular fruit salad makes a delightful and relished entree, but the finishing touch is supplied by the olive oil you use. Don't use any other but Virgin Olive Oil if you want to get the best results.

KELLY DRUG COMPANY,
The Rexall Store

J. A. GILMER, M.D. W. A. BAKER, M.D.
Gilmer & Baker,
Physicians and Surgeons.
Offices in Potts Building,
Big Stone Gap, Virginia.
All calls answered promptly.

BRISTOL CITY BUSINESS COLLEGE
Bookkeeping
Higher Accounting
Shorthand
Typewriting
Telegraphy
BRISTOL, TENN.-VA.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Judge E. M. Fulton, of Wise, was among the professional men in town last week.

Mrs. L. T. Winston and children are visiting relatives and friends in Roanoke.

J. R. Hunter, of Emory, was in town one day last week.

Albert Lyons, a prominent merchant of Rogersville, was among the business men in the Gap last week.

Mrs. J. A. Gilmer and children went down to Dot, Lee county, last Thursday on a visit to Mrs. Gilmer's parents.

E. F. Kahle, of Emory, was a guest at the Monte Vista one day last week.

R. L. Hoffman, of Lynchburg, was in town one day last week.

Tom S. McKelvey, a popular young insurance man, of Norton, was here last week on business.

The United States Circuit and District court, Judge Henry C. McDowell, presiding, closed Friday after a strenuous two week's session.

Attorney B. H. Sewell, of Jonesville, was in town last week looking after the interests of a client who had an important case before the Federal Circuit Court.

D. A. Manson, of the Lovelady Lumber Company at Jasper, was here Thursday on business for his firm.

Mrs. J. M. Willis left Sunday for Cincinnati to buy fall and winter goods for the J. M. Willis and Company stores.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Minor and daughters, Misses Oma, Fannie May and Vera Minor, of Birmingham, Ala., are spending a few days in the Gap, guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Blanton.

C. D. Tate, of Coeburn, was in town one day last week.

J. Irby Hurt, a prominent lawyer of Abingdon, was in town one day last week on professional business.

W. L. Garrison, of Tazewell, was among the guests at the Monte Vista last Thursday.

C. M. Sherrell, of Louisville, Ky., representing Ahrens & Ott, was here last week making estimates to supply W. G. Coutts material on several big jobs of plumbing.

Mrs. H. S. K. Morison has returned from a visit with Mrs. J. R. Richmond, at Gate City and other friends at Johnson City and Bristol.

W. N. Foster, a prominent lumber man of Middlesboro, spent a few days in town last week.

George A. Smith and daughter, Miss Lucile, have returned to their home in Rogersville, after a stay of some time in the Gap.

J. A. Muncey, a prominent traveling salesman of Bristol, spent Sunday in the Gap visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Muncey.

E. L. Cousins, a prominent farmer and fruit grower living near Oreton, was a business visitor to the Gap Saturday. Mr. Cousins says that his fruit crop is the largest and best this year he has ever had.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Olinger, of Preacher, spent Sunday in the Gap visiting relatives.

Miss Vera Willis returned last week from a three weeks stay with a camping party of Bristol and Knoxville friends near Maryville, Tenn.

W. E. Wolfe, J. Oscar Willis and Pat Hammonds returned Saturday night from their excursion trip to Norfolk and other cities on the Virginia coast.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wolfe, returned Saturday from a visit to relatives and friends in Petersburg, Richmond and other Virginia cities.

VIRGIN OLIVE OIL.—The real juice of the best olive trees in the world makes your salads more delicious.—Kelly Drug Company.

Mrs. James Gilly has returned to her home at East Stone Gap after visiting friends at Blackwood and her daughter, Mrs. A. J. Williams at this place.

Paul Jessoe is slowly recovering from an illness caused by ulcer of the stomach.

Columbus Phipps, of Clintwood, was a local visitor last week, having been called here in a civil case that was being tried in the United States court.

The local Postal Savings Depository, which opened July 1st has about 50 accounts and over $600 in deposits.

James E. Mears, formerly of this place, but, now business manager of Sullins College, at Bristol, was a visitor in town last week.

Misses Mary and Blanche Kilbourne spent Friday night in Norton where they attended a dance given by the German Club of that place.

Mrs. J. T. Garrison, who has been suffering from rheumatism at her home on East 4th street is reported to be in a serious condition.

Miss Parilee Bickley and niece, Juliet Knight, spent Sunday at Jonesville attending camp meeting.

A large crowd of people was attracted to the moving picture show Saturday night, many being turned away for lack of accommodation.

Miss Eugenia Baumgardner has returned from her visit to relatives and friends at Rural Retreat.

Several from this place attended camp meeting at Jonesville Saturday and Sunday.

We regret to learn that Prof. H. H. Young has been stricken with fever since he left the Gap at the close of the Summer Normal. He is now in Williamsburg, where he has been elected to teach the coming year.

Mrs. F. G. Payne and two little sons, of Roanoke, arrived in the Gap Saturday evening on a visit to relatives and friends.

Mr. Yarborough, of the general office of the Interstate Railroad Company at this place, left Saturday on a visit to relatives and friends in Richmond and Norfolk.

Mrs. J. B. Wood and little son Raymond, of Washington, D. C., are visiting Mrs. Wood's mother, Mrs. Pippin on Wyandotte Avenue.

The foundation for the fourth residence of several new ones, with modern conveniences, that are being built by contractors Joshua and John F. Mullins for J. E. Bann on Clinton and Wood Avenues is ready for the framing.

M. C. Clark, registering from Honaker, was at the Monte Vista Hotel Thursday.

The Woman's Civic League has been helping the owners of vacant lots during the past week by having the weeds cut from the lots and furthering their efforts to keep the town in a clean and sanitary condition.

A series of revival services of the Methodists was started Sunday at Coeburn in the auditorium of the new Southern Methodist Church.

Fuller Brothers' Bondtown store is now located in quarters in their new building which replaced one burned down in the fire which razed the business section of Bondtown in the spring. This enterprising firm now has five retail and one wholesale store.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hoge, of Washington City, were the guests of Gate City relatives several days last week. From here they went to Big Stone Gap.—Gate City Herald.

Indications are that owing to the frequent rains of the past several weeks the tomato crop in this and adjoining counties will be almost a failure on account of the extreme moisture causing the green tomatoes to rot on the vine and the vine itself to die out.

FOR SALE.—Will sell extremely cheap for cash one eight room house at Cadet, Va., also my residence on Virginia Avenue, Norton, Va. Address R. B. Beatty, Crawford, Neb. 32-35.

Miss Margaret Pettit, of Big Stone Gap, was the guest of Gate City relatives last week.—Gate City Herald.

Marion Smith, of Appalachia, Virginia, was a guest of his aunt, Mrs. W. K. Armstrong, here last week.—Rogersville Herald.

MONEY.—If you need money or want to buy or build a home on the easy payment plan write the Georgia Loan and Investment Company, Tifton, Ga.

Mrs. Mabel Turner Taylor, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Kyle Morison, for two weeks left Saturday morning for her home.

In our account of the Flower and Baby show last week we omitted the name of one of the prize-winners, W. J. Christian, who won first prize for an entry of very beautiful Balsams.

Miss E. Lida Carter, of Norfolk, is the guest of Mrs. W. T. Goodloe in the Gap this week.

Dr. and Mrs. John J. Lloyd went over to Keckee Tuesday and spent the night.

Miss Fern Minor, of Birmingham, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. C. F. Blanton, in the Gap.

Miss Lillie Guthrie is visiting her aunt at Octava, Va.

Peter Wolfe is visiting relatives and friends in Petersburg.

Mrs. W. B. Kilbourn, accompanied by Mrs. Aline Rutherford, went to Dryden Saturday night to attend a reunion of the Jesse family.

Miss Nell Platt, Joseph Platt and R. B. Hollomon, of Knoxville, are guests of Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Rader this week.

Miss Hannah Alsvor returned last week from a visit to relatives in Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. D. Morrison have moved to Appalachia, where Mrs. Morrison has accepted a position in the school at that place. Miss Madge Dingess will take Miss Morrison's place on this paper.

The corner stone of the new colored Presbyterian church on Gilly Avenue was laid Sunday afternoon by the colored Odd Fellows' lodge at this place.

Mrs. J. B. Casper and Mrs. A. F. Litz, of Norton, came down on the Interstate Tuesday afternoon and spent the rest of the day with Mrs. Casper's son, R. R. Casper, at the Monte Vista.

Miss Kathleen Knight returned Tuesday night from a visit to relatives at Dungannon, Scott County.

Martin Luther, one of the Gap's popular barbers, left Monday for Charlotte, N. C., where he will receive treatment at the Samaritan Hospital. Martin has been in bad health for some time, and he fears that he has gall stones, and if such proves to be the case he will be operated on while away.

Prof. J. E. Carter, the capable principal of the Dryden High School, and his assistant, Prof. Bailey, were visitors to our editorial sanctum last week. Prof. Carter was in town to negotiate with the Singer Sewing Machine Company's representative for the purchase of the latest model of one of their machines.

H. R. Adams has resigned his position with the South and West Coal and Coke Company at this place and gone to Dorchester, where he has accepted a position with the Wise Coal and Coke Company.

The United Daughters of the Confederacy will hold their regular monthly meeting with Mrs. S. A. Bailey on next Saturday afternoon at three o'clock. Members will please be present and bring their papers.

Miss Dorothy Owens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Owens, left Sunday night for Cincinnati, where she was met by her aunt, Senora DeAlbalajo, of South Bend, Ind., and from there they went to Wyoona Lake, Mich., for a ten days stay. Miss Owens' aunt is the wife of a prominent Spanish contractor.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Baker and children went up to Wise Sunday morning on a visit to relatives and friends. Mrs. Baker and the children will visit there and with relatives in the country for several days.

Miss Anna McCormick, of Etowah, Tenn., arrived in the Gap Monday night to accompany her mother, Mrs. George K. McCormick, and brother, George, who have been visiting in the Gap for the past two weeks, back to Etowah. Miss Florence McCormick, who has been spending a month in Tenn., returned to the Gap with her cousin.

James R. Taylor, who has been confined to his room for some time with typhoid, continues to improve and will soon be able to be out again.

We are glad to state that H. L. Cummings, a clerk in the sales department of the Stonega Coke & Coal Company at this place, who was taken the hospital at Stonega a couple of weeks ago with fever, has recovered sufficiently to return to the Gap. The attack of the fever was very light.

Mrs. Katie Lindsay returned Tuesday night from a two weeks' visit to relatives and friends in Roanoke.

R. T. IRVINE, Pres. W. T. GOODLOE, Vice Pres. & Secy. R. P. BARRON, Treas.

Interstate Finance & Trust Co.

Big Stone Gap, Va.
Capital $50,000.00. Surplus $60,000.00.

This bank, under new management, will continue the business upon conservative lines.

SAFETY: Our Motto. SECURITY: Our Pass-word.
Interest Paid on Time Deposits.

DIRECTORS.

R. T. IRVINE, W. T. GOODLOE,
H. G. MORISON, C. S. CARTER,
A. K. MORISON, J. S. HAMBLIN,
W. W. TAYLOR, J. W. KELLY,
W. M. SLEMP.

Safety Deposit Boxes for Rent.

Special Sale of

Oxfords, Summer Skirts

and Shirt Waists

at

W. W. TAYLOR & SONS.

Kitchen Tinware

Made from the best material by skilled hands is the kind you get from us. We buy where we know the price and quality is right and as a result of this you get from us a superior grade of all kinds of kitchen tinware and furnishings than elsewhere.

Hamblen Bros.

We still have in stock a good line of

Laces and Embroideries

which we will sell at a low cost.

Ginghams and Percals for children's school dresses. Don't miss seeing them before buying.

J. M. Willis & Company.

CORTRIGHT METAL SHINGLES

Used in ever increasing quantities, because the roofs put on 26 years ago are as good as new to-day, and have never needed repairs. Don't put on that roof until you see them.

For sale by Local Contractors or Roofers or Cortright Metal Roofing Company, 50 N. 23d St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Big Stone Gap Bakery Co.

UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT.

We solicit the patronage of the people of the town. Anyone desiring hot rolls should send in their orders by 2 p. m., and same will be delivered between five and six o'clock. Cakes should be ordered the day before desired.