ABBEVILLE, La. Jan. 30, 1894.
This certifies that I bought of Shakespeare & Swoop an Eisler Pump for the purpose of draining my cane field, and find it to give greater satisfaction than any pump I have seen, in every respect being lighter running and giving considerably more water.
I have on my rice farm a Morris Pump (Heald & Sisco) which I thought a fair pump; but it is simply not in it with the Eisler. The Eisler is a Jim-dandy.

HOW IS THIS?

Something unique even in these days of mammoth premium offers, is the latest effort of Stafford's Magazine, a New York monthly of home and general reading.

The proposition is to send the Magazine one year for one dollar, the regular subscription price, and in addition to send each subscriber fifty-two complete novels during the twelve months; one each week. Think of it. You receive a new and complete novel, by mail, post paid, every week for fifty two weeks, and in addition you get the magazine once a month for twelve months, all for one dollar. It is an offer which the publishers can only afford to make in the confident expectation of getting a hundred thousand new subscribers. Among the authors in the coming series are, Wilkie Collins, Walter Besant, Mrs. Oliphant, Mary Cecil Hay, Florence Marryat, Anthony Trollope, A. Conan Doyle, Miss Braddon, Captain Marryat, Miss Thackeray and Jules Verne.

If you wish to take advantage of this unusual opportunity, send one dollar for Stafford's Magazine, one year. Your first copy of the magazine, and your first number of the fifty-two novels (one each week) which you are to receive during the year will be sent you by return mail. Remit by P. O. Order, registered letter or express.
