

Hello! Are You Ready For Christmas Over There?

WE are ready to serve you with finer and larger stocks beyond any that we have ever had. This store, is rich beyond precedent in rare and beautiful and useful and odd and interesting things for Christmas giving.

The Christmas Spirit is in the air, and the ships have come in with carefully chosen merchandise from every part of the world for Holmes' Store lace, silks, art needlework, gloves, hosiery, handkerchiefs, perfumes, china and bronzes from France, sun bleached pure flax and household Linens from Scotland and Ireland, holiday books, canes, cravats, cutlery from England, marbles from Italy, brasses and desk fittings from Vienna, toys from old Nuremberg and the Leipzig Fair, dolls from Germany, furs, rugs from the Orient, vases, quilted robes, house-gowns for men and women, embroidered linens from the Madeira Isles, novelty jewelry from Paris AND SO ON ALL OF THIS IMPORTED MERCHANDISE JOINING THE ZEALOUSLY CHOSEN MERCHANDISE FROM OUR OWN UNITED STATES, a thousand and one things making

A world of Happy Christmas suggestions, which make it possible for you to give even more distinctive gifts than you had ever dreamed of---without hurt to your purse.

Every one of us have had at some time or other the vision of an ideal Christmas. Yet when Christmas had come and gone the dream was only partially fulfilled--often falling short of the ideal because the selection of gift things was put off until the last moment. Suppose you begin to do your planning and buying now.

Aside from the commercial part of it, it would be a fine satisfaction for this store to be able to assist you in making this an ideal Christmas for everybody and we know that we are in position to do so better than ever before. We would so like to have you give us the opportunity.

Perhaps in your home, you may have been longing for a certain piece of furniture, the carpets and rugs are growing dingy, the linen and china need replenishing, or a chest of silver has played a big part in your Christmas dream, and so on all the way through the house

Whatever it is you are thinking of for Christmas, we will try to help you well.
