

THE PICTURE PRESS

Trade Mark Registered

THE HERALD

Thursday June 9, 1921

THE U. S. S. ARIZONA, one of the newest additions to our navy, passing under the Brooklyn Bridge

(C) N. Moser.

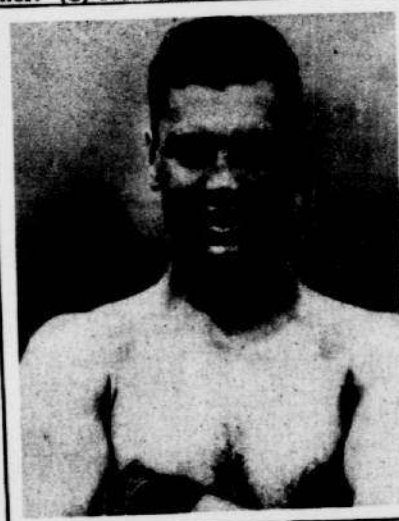

Miss Cecil Leitch, British woman golf champion, who will defend her title in the tournament beginning May 30, at Turnberry, Scotland.

Bob Jones, of Atlanta, who sailed April 30 for England to play for the British amateur championship, May 23 at Hoylake; and, later, in the British open.

THE DIRIGIBLE R-38, now being constructed for the U. S. at Bedford, England. It will fly to America some time this summer. (C) Underwood.

JACK DEMPSEY, WORLD'S HEAVYWEIGHT CHAMPION, who is soon to defend his title against Georges Carpentier, French Champion. (C) Central News.

SAMUEL GOMPERS, PRESIDENT OF THE AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR and his bride, formerly Mrs. Gertrude Gleaves, leaving on their wedding trip. Mr. Gompers is seventy-one years of age. (C) Underwood.

PRINCE ALBERT OF MONACO arrives to receive the Agassiz Medal. Keystone.

NO MORE MIX-UPS OF NEW BORN BABIES. In the Bronx Maternity Hospital each little baby is properly marked and put in its individual crib, which is attached to the wall in a novel manner. Keystone Views Co.

THE ISLAND OF YAP. Japan denies the claim of the U. S. to this little island. (C) Underwood.