A Bedroom Suite for a Christmas Gift!

yes, if it's so good a value as this one at $287

OF COURSE it seems unusual to suggest a complete bedroom suite as a Christmas gift, but a father might well give one to his daughter, a husband to his wife, or a son to his mother, and so gratify a long cherished wish for just such a bedroom as is pictured here. Surely no gift could seem more generous and yet be so moderate in price.

Our suite is Queen Anne in motif and is carefully constructed of genuine American walnut, beautifully finished in the rich color of an antique.

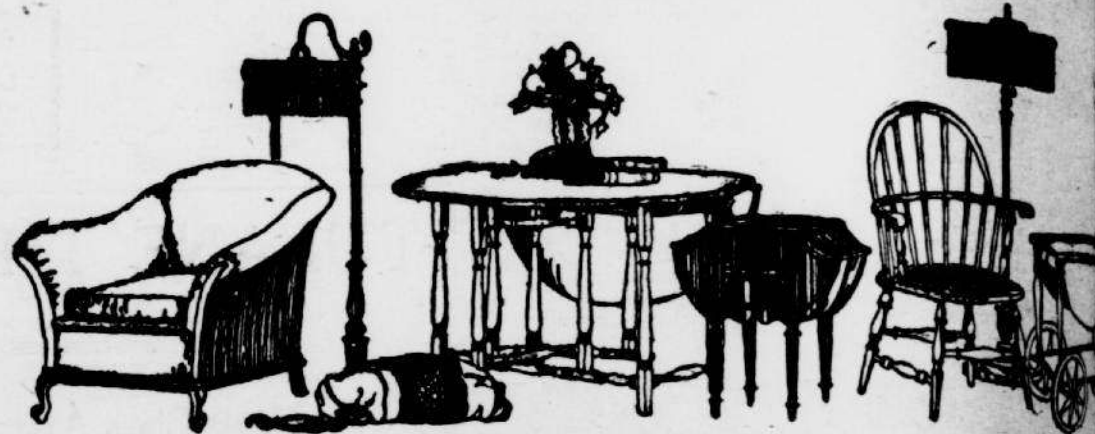

The pieces are all of good size. The dresser and the vanity dresser have dust-proof bottoms, drawers of dovetailed construction, reinforced and strengthened corners, and drawer pulls of the new and distinctive protected type.

The chiffonade is in the preferred style and has two heavy plate mirrors. It, too, is of sound construction and is well finished.

The bow-end bed is full size and, although plain, is very attractive. The night table, the chair, the rocking chair and the bench are of pleasing proportions and are just as well made and finished as are the larger pieces.

A genuine Sealy mattress, a genuine SIMMONS spring, a pair of Perfection pillows, a bolster roll and a mattress protector complete this good suite which is offered at a very low price—quality considered.

See this good suite Monday. Examine it carefully. You will find it all we claim. If you want it for a gift, place your order now for delivery any day before Christmas.
