2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their periodicals, the publisher may continue to send them until all arrears are paid.

3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals from the office to which they are directed, they are held responsible until they have settled their bills, and ordered them discontinued.

4. If subscribers move to another place without informing the publishers and the papers are sent to the former direction, they are held responsible.

5. The courts have decided that "refusing to take the periodicals from the office, or removing and leaving them unclaimed for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud."

6. Any person who receives a newspaper and makes use of it, whether he has ordered it or not, is held in law to be a subscriber.

7. If subscribers pay in advance, they are bound to give notice to the publisher at the end of their time, if they do not wish to continue taking it; otherwise the publisher is authorized to continue sending it on, and the subscribers will be responsible until an express notice, with payment of all arrears, is sent to the publisher.

Advertisers should take notice that all advertisements should be left at the GUARDIAN office by noon on Tuesday, else they must be over until the next issue of the paper. An observance of this request will be of mutual advantage to the GUARDIAN and the advertiser. Persons who desire extra copies of the GUARDIAN should leave their orders with us on Saturday before noon. This rule is imperative.

LONG SPRINGS.

The opening of this new summer resort, before referred to in the GUARDIAN, has been a matter of inquiry among some of our citizens; and hearing that Mr. E. I. Johnson had recently visited the Springs, we took the liberty of calling on him in behalf of the inquiry.

As before stated, these Springs are situated 4 1/2 miles Northwest of Minden, in Webster parish, and within one mile of Bayou Dorchere. They are situated in a small valley, and there are seven in a space of 25 to 40 feet. They are free flowing, furnishing abundance of water, and are located in the healthiest portion of the State, being high and dry, and free from malarial and contagious diseases. "Boss" says he tasted the waters of the Springs and found no two alike—he could not distinguish by taste the ingredients of each particular Spring, but in some of them he could recognize some properties.

There has been no chemical analysis of the waters as yet, but the proprietors are in communication with Chemists, and will no doubt soon put the same before the public. As for the healing and curative powers of these waters, read the certificates recently published in the Minden Democrat, from some of Webster's most prominent citizens.

THE HOTEL.

The proprietors have built a new hotel capable of comfortably entertaining from 100 to 125 guests, and also made arrangements for in and out-door amusements, such as dancing, billiards, croquet, archery, and lawn tennis. The hotel is but a few yards from the Springs. The proprietors propose running a line of hacks from Minden to the Springs daily. There is also a large Livery Stable, and Saloon in connection with the Springs, and a Telephone from them to Minden. Before the war the Springs were resorted to by people from Natchitoches and Claiborne parishes. Under the management of the present energetic proprietors these Springs will become famous, not only as one of the most desirable summer resorts, but for its curative and health giving properties. The Springs will be opened for the reception of guests on the 15th, and we understand a grand Ball will be given that night.

A large quantity of embroidery, edging, ribbons, lace ties, rickings, and gents' furnishings goods, low down, at Zodiag's.

Shelton continues to sell the finest Whiskies and the most fragrant cigars, besides Snuff and Chewing and Smoking Tobacco.

Many years ago, it is related, Emerson and Theodore Parker were walking in Concord, when a well-known leader of the Second Adventists rushed up to them in great excitement. "The world ceases at midnight!" he cried out. "Well," replied Parker coolly, "I am not concerned; I live in Boston." "As for me," added Emerson, equally undisturbed, "I can get along without it."

A full line of toilet articles at McHenry & Brown's drug store.

Jules Guernais is the great confectionery man of Shreveport, and sells every thing in that line at very low prices. Special inducements are offered, those buying to sell again. His candies are the very best and purest in the market, and persons will find it to their interest to buy only from Jules Guernais.

If you wish to buy your drugs cheap go to McHenry & Brown's drug store.

Read the card of Messrs. Utz & Smith. This house will supply you with any article in their line. The proprietors are gentlemen of fine business capacities and established reputations. The firm is one of the first in the State. Prices always at the bottom of the market.

If you wish a fashionable bonnet, hat, or other article of ladies dress, order from Miss M. A. Files, the fashionable Milliner of Shreveport. Read her card in another column.

Remember, it is no trouble to show those beautiful Spring and Summer goods at Zodiag's.

C. P. Thernard is the man to buy your crackers, snaps &c., from. The Star Bakery of which he is the proprietor is deservedly popular. Mr. Thernard is a reliable business man. Read his card and give him your orders.

We call the attention of our readers to the card of J. C. Baker, with E. & B. Jacobs. Mr. Baker needs no introduction to the people of Claiborne, being widely known as an experienced and reliable business man. The house he is with is the largest in the city of Shreveport, and is always filled from floor to roof with choice goods. Mr. Baker will be pleased to see his Claiborne friends and sell them goods at prices to suit the times.

Watches at Kortum's from five dollars up.

The Senate Judiciary Committee has reported favorably on an amendment to the Constitution abolishing all lotteries in Louisiana. This will give those members who have refused to vote for the General Lottery Bill, on the ground that lotteries were immoral, a chance to show their hands. Wonder if any of them will fly the track!

Heavy and shelf groceries at Zodiag's.

The sixty days allotted for the second regular session of the General Assembly of our State are rapidly drawing to a close. The end will be reached in all probability before the measures now before the body can be disposed of. It is too soon yet to give any intelligent opinion as to what the result of the session's work will be. It may be said, however, that our lawmakers have manifested a disposition to work. A large number of bills, good, bad and indifferent, have been introduced—more than can be considered at the present session. The most important bills should be given the preference.

A Kahn of Shreveport sells the best and cheapest cooking stoves. These stoves please and delight the ladies. See his ad. and for the best bargains in his line of business call on A. Kahn, 23 Texas Street, Shreveport, La.

In his message, Gov. McEnery advises that a commission composed of one or more able lawyers be appointed to revise our laws. The suggestion is good and should be carried out. Our laws have not been revised since 1870, and even that revision was hastily and imperfectly made. We have had a new constitution, and the legislature has been busy since 1870, and our codes need revising. The cost would not be much.

Grand opening of Spring and Summer goods at Zodiag's.

The latest accounts from Senator Hull, now at Eureka Springs, are to the effect that he is rapidly improving. He is now partaking of solid food, and is able to be up and walk about the grounds, and receives visitors in his room. His family and physicians are hopeful of a speedy recovery.

When you visit Shreveport on business you, of course, wish to obtain the best bargains. To do this look for those houses that have advertised in your home paper. When a business man advertises liberally it is an evidence that he is a fair and liberal dealer. He has his goods for sale and wants the public to know it.

Stationery at Kortum's, low down.

N. Gregg, the successor of Gregg & Ford, is sustaining the enviable reputation which the old firm enjoyed for honesty and fair dealing. This house is one of the most popular in Shreveport, and deals largely in groceries and general plantation supplies. Prices always as low as the market will permit.

President Arthur and Senator Cockling went out Long Island together on a fishing excursion on Sunday last after attending church. They were politely escorted by Mr. Austin Corbin, the President of the Long Island Railroad. Three handsome men of more various styles of masculine beauty can hardly be seen together in any other country than this. Hail Columbia, happy land!—N. Y. Sun.

Even these hard times we occasionally meet a man who wears a smile on his face. The cause of his joy is that he has been to Mulhain & Stone's and bought a supply of shoes for himself and family, for almost nothing.

W. W. Brown is keeping a first-class hotel. His table is supplied with the best the market and country afford. Charges to suit the times.

The place to get a good meal's victuals is Brown's hotel. Patronize Brown. He is a worthy man.

BEEF MARKET.

THIS is to inform the public that I am still in the market business, and wish to buy Cattle and Sheep. Parties wishing to see me can find me in Homer every Saturday. Any note or letter left in the post-office, or with any merchant or clerk, will reach me.
