Now is the time to subscribe for the CHRONICLE, $1.50 a year.

Oh, my; what a pickle ye CHRON-ICLE man has got into! He kicked because "Ruff" scored him through the Boyce Headlight, and now it turns out that "Ruff" is of the feminine gender. We have been misconstrued, misinterpreted, and garbled by the types, and we wish to explain that we intimated that the fair one was a diamond. Now we assert postively that she is a pearl, a daisy, a dumpling, a darling, and that we have thought so all along. Consider her contemptible-perish the idea! We are just dying to receive a billet-doux from the dear creature, and shall pine in sorrow until we receive forgiveness. Pile it on thick, heap ashes on our devoted head. We deserve it all.

The re-union of Confederate Veterans held at Robeline on Aug. lst was an unqualified success, fully 5000 guests participating. Addresses were made by Hon. B. F. Jonas, of New Orleans; Hon. Fisher Smith, of Many; Judges Pierson of Natchitoches and Carter of Robeline. The day was made musical by the band of Natchitoches, and at a glorious feast spread by the hospitable entertainers, the time but too quickly passed in listening to old campaigners re-late escapes by flood and field. The re-union was rounded off by a ball, at which both old and young, to strains of sweet music danced until the "glowing morn." It was a gathering long to be remembered, and that at the roll call of our hero veterans upon each recurring anniversary may find no absent ones is truly the wish of all.

Has no one enough temerity during this heated spell to re-vamp the chestnut about the old soldie who, after serving for years in the army out in "Arid Arizona," died. Some months after his death at a gathering of mediums his comrade asked that the spirit of the dead man be communicated with, when, after several messages, the spirit was asked his present quarters. H—Il was the answer. How do you like them? Well, I had served so long on the hot plains in Arisons that unless I can arrange for extra blankets in this lower region I fear that I shall soon freeze. The live soldier from then until now is a believer in spirits.

it is not customary for one parish to work the roads of another. Your police jury have had their attention called to this road repeatedly, and, as this is all we can do up this way, we hope Town Talk will continue to prod them until this important road is completed.

The Leuisiana State Fair.

Editor Coffex Chronicle:

We beg leave to call your attention to the new departure we have taken in offering liberal premiums for parish exhibite at our annual State fair. We intend to make this one of the interesting features of our fair, and hope that you, and other spirited gentlemen of your parish will take steps to secure a full exhibit from your parish.

parish will take steps to secure a full exhibit from your parish.

We would be pleased to hear from you on this subject at any time. Our premium list will be ready for distribution about July 15, a copy of which will be sent you. We offer this year $5,000 in premiums, and promise the best fair ever held in the South.

The managers of the Louisiana

The managers of the Louisiana State fair and Shreveport exposi-tion have decided to offer special premiums for parish exhibits from the State of Louisiana, and offer the following liberal premiums:

To the parish making the largest and best display of products grown or produced by residents of the parish, $500.

To the parish making the second best display, $250.

To the parish making the third best display, $150.

To the parish making the fourth best display as above, $100.

Samples of wood must be cut in sections ranging from two feet in large trees to one foot in small ones, with bark on one side and one end to be dressed, showing the polish and the grain of the wood.

Articles entered for parish displays shall not be entered for special premiums, or at any time detached from the parish exhibit but the persons contributing to the parish display may enter and compete for other premiums by furnishing additional samples of their articles.

A building will be set apart for

A building will be set apart for ach parish exhibit, which will be a charge of a superintendent se-ected by the police jury or exhib-tors of the parish, and will be con-idered as the headquarters of the parish.

It is hoped that every parish in the State will compete for the liberal premiums offered, and will furnish full displays, as they will serve as the best medium to show to the large number of visitors from the North and West, who will be present, the productiveness of Louisiana soil.

These artibits will affect to visitors

These exhibits will afford to visitors and home-seekers from distant States an opportunity of a personal inspection of the products of the parishes represented.

Very Respectfully,

M. L. SCOVELL, Secretary.
