Speaking of the Divorce Evil

Trying to succeed in business without advertising is like the case of the man who, trying to cut expenses, divorced his wife and alone attempted to keep house and raise his children. It cost him more money for doctor bills and funers! expenses in a year than he gave his wife in a lifetime.

When advertising is divorced, business success becomes failure.

This paper is building your neighbor's business. He has reasons. He tried advertising and it helped him. It is not an experiment - this paper brings results. Good, hard, convincing results - dollars.

NEWS OF LOUISIANA

Alleged Bad Man Meets Match When Deputy Sheriff Kills Him.

CALLED LEATHER BREECHES'

Had Made the Assertion That He Would Never Be Taken Alive. Went Armed.

Western Newspaper Union News Service. Lake Charles .- Chas. Smith, allas Leather Breeches," a well-known character, was shot and instantly killed by Deputy Sheriff D. J. Charlan, pear Merryville, while resisting arrest, The deputy used a double-barrel shotgun, emptying both barrels into Smith's body. The killing of "Leather Breeches" Smith, as he was commonly known, created quite a sensation in the northern part of the parish, and also in Lake Charles. Smith was ander indictment on two charges, murder and highway robbery, in connec tion with the Grabow labor troubles of last July, and has been dodging the officers ever since. He had made his beast, it is said, that he would not be taken alive, and he kept the pledge.

Immediately after the trouble at Grabow in which four men lost their lives, and in which he was a prominent actor, Smith took to the woods and issued his defiance. Many of the inhabitants of the northwestern part of the parish, it is said, helped to secrete him, most of them acting through fear, as Smith was regarded as a dangerous man. He always went about armed with two revolvers and a Winchester rifle, and the people were apparently afraid to refuse him a fa-

Since the Grabow affair the officers have been constantly on the lookout for Smith. Sheriff Reid has made several excursions into the pine woods in search for him, and deputies have been after him, frequently striking histrail, but never being able to come up with him.

Deputy Charlan got a line on where Smith was in hiding for the time being, in a small hut about six miles from Merryville: Mr. Charlan left Ludington in the night and arrived at Smith's hiding place before day light. Charlan lay concealed near the hut until daylight, when Smith came out armed as usual with his two revolvers and Winchester, Char lan was about forty feet from Smith when he covered him with his shotgun and ordered him to surrender. Smith wheeled and brought his rifle to his shoulder, but as did so Charian fired both barrels, literally riddling Smith.

Governor Inspects Canal.

New Orleans.-As a result of the visit of Gov. Luther E. Hall to the New Basin Canal and shell road it is probable that a concrete wall will be constructed along the canal and road Superintendent Burke have palms and trees planted by the side of the roadway and take steps toward beautifying it. Superintendent Burke pointed out to the governor the various landings and improvements made distinguishing for Governor Hall's information those which are paying rental and those which are not.

Operator Held for Murder.

Baton Rouge.-Detective Coyle, of the New Orleans force, took back to New Orleans Richard Wallace, linotype operator, who was wanted there on the charge of murder. He is elleged to have killed J. P. Morris. Wallace gave himself up to Chief of Police Huyack when he saw in the morning papers that he was wanted for murder in New Orleans, which place he left to accept a position in Baton Rouge. Wallace says that he was in an argument with Morris and pushing him over and he fell, cutting his head. He had on idea at the time he left New Orleans that the injury was a serious one.

Beeves Are Selling High.

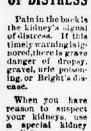

Eden.—Beef buyers have invaded this section and are paying the highest price in the history or local cattle men for the beeves. The farmers, too. are at present receiving $1.50 per bushel for sweet potatoes, the demand being larger than the supply. After six weeks of drought, a good rain fell here recently refreshing the crops and grass on the range.

Another Big Well Bought in. Shreveport.—It is reported by a local oil man, returning from the Caddo fields, that the Busch-Everett Company, of this city, bought in a 20,000harrel oil well just east of Caddo City, where they have extensive holdings.

Sanitary Law Violators Fined.

Lafayette.-Judge Elliott in the city court, tried Jean Prejean, Alsace Landry and Eugene Ducharme for violating the sanitary regulations in the salughter of two beeves overcome by heat, and, after all the evidence was heard, fined each $10 and costs of court. The case against several prominent citizens for violating a city ordinance as to keping side alks clean were all nol-prossed and new affidavits made against the owners or terants.

A Dead One.

"The doctor says that I will live about a year." "That will be a great change for you." "What will?"

"Living."

Almost Entirely.

"Dick" Quay, at the Congress hotel in Chicago, was talking about a notorious politician.

"And he's worth eleven millions," Mr. Quay ended.

"And is an entirely self-made man, toe, I believe," said a correspondent.
"Entirely so," Mr. Quay answered, "except for nine thick coats of whitewash that have been applied to him by various investigating committees."

Nothing More to Live For.

Without question, the Scots curler of whom Lord Lyveden tells in Fry's Magazine, placed the proper value on his sport.

During a recent curling-match in Switzerland, the skip of one of the teams, who happened to be a Scotsman, was so delighted with the accurate shot of one of his team, that he was heard to address him in the following manner: "Lie down and dee, mon; lie down and dee. Ye'll never lay a finer stane nor that if ye live to be a hundred."

Wanted a Bite.

Oh, yes; it was raining-had been all day. But they didn't mind that so much; you see, they were fishermen. all the way from the head to West All the same, they were trudging End. Governor Hall suggested that home, with weary steps and very weary-looking faces

Their baskets were empty, and, to be candid, they were in a very bad temper.

As they entered the little village a large dog ran at one of the party. The dog had a ferocious look and was barking furiously. But the fisherman did not take much alarm at the animal. He just kicked it away care. lessly.

"Aren't you afraid he'll go for you?" inquired another of the party, somewhat anxiously.

The one who had kicked at the dog looked at his companion in a sorrowful manner.

"I only wish he would!" he replied. "I'd chance almost anything to be able to go home and say I'd had a bite!"

HARD TO SEE. Even When the Facts About Coffee are Plain.

It is curious how people will refuse to believe what one can clearly see. Tell the average man or woman that the slow but cumulative poisonous effect of caffeine—the alkaloid in tea and coffee-tends to weaken the heart, upset the nervous system and cause indigestion, and they may laugh at you if they don't know the facts.

Prove it by science or by practical demonstration in the recovery of coffee drinkers from the above conditions, and a large per cent of the human family will shrug their shoulders, take some drugs and—keep on drinking coffee or tea.

"Coffee never agreed with me nor with several members of our household," writes a lady. "It enervates, depresses and creates a feeling of languor and heaviness. It was only by leaving off coffee and using Postum that we discovered the cause and way out of these ills.

"The only reason, I am sure, why Postum is not used altogether to the exclusion of ordinary coffee is, many persons do not know and do not seem willing to learn the facts and how to prepare this nutritious beverage. There's only one way-according to directions-boll it fully 15 minutes. Then it is delicious." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.
