The Police Jury.

The complexion of the police jury is in doubt. The regular democrats elected six out of the ten, but as Mr. W. M. Prescott, of the 5th ward, was also endorsed by the combine, it is not certain how he will stand. This is the way it

Regular Democrats - Adelma Guidry, second ward; Robert Bur- If a fellow can't wallop his own jackleigh, fourth ward; Jules Quebedeau, third ward; E. T. Lafleur, seventh ward; E. H. McGee, eight ward. Total 5.

Combine-J. O. Chachere and Diomel Durio, first ward; Ozeme Fontenot, fifth ward; Sam Haas, sixth ward. Total 4.

Nominated in democratic primary and endorsed by combine-W. M. Prescott, fifth ward.

We hope our parish legislators will agree upon some common ground of working, and lay aside as much as possible all partisan feeling. The out-going police jury has been wonderfully successful, having nearly paid the parish's back indebtedness and placed the parish on a sound financial footing, and it is to be hoped the new fathers will pursue the same policy.

Big Take's Engenuity.

Big Jal, is Aaron Jacobs. He ed a joke on the community the day after election. While the people were breathing short awaiting the returns of the election, B. J. off by "Elected by a Big Majority!" sterling institution, the St. Landry got out a flaming dodger, starting It was instantly grabbed and State Bank. perused by hundreds of anxious eyes, and when it was discovered J. was blessed. Great are the daily on the streets selling them.

Married.

Mr. Jules Melancon and Miss Marie Hebert were married at the Catholic church in Opelousas last Tuesday evening. The young couple are well and favorably known son's Drug Store. in Opelousas, where they have resided all their lives, and it is universally agreed that they are happily mated. Mr. Melancon is a member of the firm of C. Hebert & Co., and a young man of sterling qualities. Mrs. Melancon is a qualities. Mrs. Melancon is a constant of Mr. C. Hebert, and has the constant of Mr. C. Hebert, and ha in Opelousas, where they have rea host of friends who wish her well. Our best wishes go to them.

Sadly Mistaken.

The opposition was heard to boast that the Clarion would now be compelled to turn up its toes to the daisies. That's a sad mistake. The Clarion is here to stay, and will continue to fight the battles of democracy and white supremacy as persistently as ever. The mere defeat of the parochial and judicial ticket it supported will not cause its demise. No, boys, the Clarion is still in the ring.

It's Over.

The war is over. Let animosity die out. Let's dance around the May-pole and work hand in hand for the good of the parish and of the town. Business has been temporarily paralyzed by factional dissensions, and the people must now get together and rehabilitate our glorious country.

It's Your Mistake.
