LIVER REGULATOR.

The Cheapest, Purest and Best Family Medicine in the World!

For DYSPEPSIA, CONSTIPATION, Jaundice, Bilious attacks, SICK HEADACHE, Colic, Depression of Spirits, SOUR STOMACH, Heartburn, etc.
This unrivaled remedy is warranted not to contain a single particle of Mercury, or any mineral substance, but is

PURELY VEGETABLE, containing those Southern Roots and Herbs which an all-wise Providence has placed in countries where Liver Diseases most prevail. It will cure all Diseases caused by Derangement of the Liver and Bowels.

The SYMPTOMS of Liver Complaint are a bitter or bad taste in the mouth; Pain in the Back, Sides or Joints, often mistaken for Rheumatism; Sour Stomach; Loss of Appetite; Bowels alternately costive and lax; Headache; Loss of Memory, with a painful sensation of having failed to do something which ought to have been done; Debility; Low Spirits; a thick, yellow appearance of the Skin and Eyes; a dry Cough, often mistaken for Consumption.

Sometimes many of these symptoms attend the disease, at others very few; but the Liver, the largest organ in the body, is generally the seat of the disease, and if not regulated in time, great suffering, watchfulness and DEATH will ensue.

The following highly-esteemed persons attest to the virtues of Simmons' Liver Regulator: Gen. W. S.
Holt, Pres. Ga. S. W. R. Co.; Rev. J. R. Fidler, Perry, Ga.; Col. E. K. Sparks, Albany, Ga.; C. Mastre-son, Esq., Sheriff Bibb Co., Ga.; J. A. Butts, Bainbridge, Ga.; Rev. J. W. Burke, Macon, Ga.; Virgil Powers, Supr. Ga. S. W. R. Co.; Hon. Alexander H. Stephens.
We have tested its virtues personally, and know that for Dyspepsia, Biliousness and Throbbing Headache, it is the best medicine the world ever saw. We have tried forty other remedies before Simmons' Liver Regulator, and none of them gave us more than temporary relief; the Regulator not only relieved, but cured us.

[For The True Democrat]
The Danger of Ambition Without Talent.

Generally snails are sluggish in their natures, but there was once a snail who entertained the hope of filling a greater place in life. With this end in view, and ignorant that its capacities were not calculated to make it other than a snail, it went abroad to find its great vocation.

Not far had it trailed along in its slimy path ere it found the east off shell of a great lobster. Here the snail paused, delighted. With art-less pleasure it surveyed a dwelling place so fine, so large. Here was a residence indeed worthy it; and which a snail had never occupied before. Contemptuously discarding its own snug house, it betook itself to the larger encasement. For a brief space its satisfaction knew no bounds. But soon how cold it grew! The winds of evening and the dews crept into its domicile.

How it missed its warm bed! What strange chilliness was passing over it! The snail drew nearer the walls of its dreary encasement. It clung to them for warmth and protection.

Alas! The shell neither possessed nor gave vivifying power.

The would-be aristocrat walking eternally in his Eden-like garden, espied the shell near one of his elegant parterres. With an exclaima-tion of anger toward his "villain-gardener," he would have thrown it away, but chancing to see the lifeless snail lying therein, with disgust he cast the shell down and went his way. It's way! to play the part of a wise man and a gentleman, when riches alone constituted his manners, and the art of making money his wisdom.

Fond dreamer! Do you hope to adorn a chateau en Espagne, when you are designated by talent to occupy an humble sphere? He that rules the world with wisdom fits each one to occupy his proper place.

And when ambition, without talent actuates a man his way is dangerous, and his end is pitiable.

INEZ.

Mrs. Rhodie Nott of this place, was taken in the night with cramping pains and the next day diarrhoea set in. She took half a bottle of black berry cordial but got no relief. She then sent to me to see if I had anything that would help her.

I sent her a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and the first dose relieved her. Another of our neighbors had been sick for about a week and had tried different remedies for diarrhoea but kept getting worse. I sent him the same remedy. Only four doses of it were required to cure him. He says he owes his recovery to this wonderful remedy.—Mrs. Mary Sibley, Sidney Mich.

The commencement exercises at the Union Hall School opened with the examination of different studies.

Miss Bessie Reily and Master Ovid Row were examined in Spelling and Reading. Misses Ruby Jemison, Mary White and Mary Holgood in Geography, Arithmetic and Reading, Walter White in Arithmetic, Henry Holgood in Geography and Arithmetic, Misses Agnes Holgood and Ada Coats in Grammar and Arithmetic, Miss Ida Davis in Algebra and Physiology. The children were very successful. Their recitations were made with a great deal of expression and feeling. Some of the dialogues were very amusing.

There were three compositions:
"Redeeming of Time," Miss Ida Davis, "Then and Now," by Miss Agnes Holgood, "The World" by Miss Ada Coats. At the close of the exercises there was a sumptuous feast spread for the numerous visitors and friends which was enjoyed by all. In the evening a party was given at the residence of Mrs. A.
Row for the children, and they spent a very pleasant time. Mrs.
L. Row, the teacher, deserves a great deal of credit for the care and instruction that she has given the children during the past session.

The daughters of H. W. Jones of Row Landing have returned from the Sophie Newcomb College.

Miss Annie Holgood returned home from the pine woods very much improved in health, and will spend the summer with her mother.

Hills.

Last summer one of our grand children was sick with a severe bowel trouble.
Our doctor's remedies had failed, then we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which gave very speedy relief. We regard it as the best medicine ever put on the market for bowel complaints. Mrs. E. G. Gregory, Fredericktown, Mo. This certainly is the best medicine ever put on the market for dysentery, summer complaint, colic and cholera infantum in children. It never fails to give prompt relief when used in reasonable time and the plain printed directions are followed. Many mothers have expressed their sincere gratitude for the cures it has effected. For sale by L. P.

Base Ball.

Slaughter, La., June 25, 1896.

Slaughter and Star Hill met for the first time this season. Star Hill had the first inning and the game bid fair to be an interesting one but after the second inning the game was a farce and went to pieces. Both Chapman and Bookter were batted with ease. Three base hits were common, and those who attempted to play the infield positions made but a sorry mess of the job.

Capra Jeane officiated in the game and he is to be warmly complimented in his manner over Wednesday's performance; although there was a little insubordination during the afternoon, however he let players know that he was there in person as well as in name and in one of his decisions calling Bookter out for cutting third it was appreciated and applauded by spectators.

This circumstance in itself is an evidence of the fact that base ball cranks want an umpire to do his duty and they will support him in decisions every time. He may have failed on the foul-strike question but in this regard it was an even break.

To-day's game barely needs a description. There is decided room for improvement in both teams.

One of the features of the game was a catch by Mr. Best who played in right he tipped his toes and went for it at full speed and took it in on his left. The spectators fully appreciated the inspiring catch.

Attendance, fully 300. Score, Star Hill, 33 runs; Slaughter, 32.
Batteries—Bookter, Rogers, Davis, Record, Harvey and Daniel. Time of game—3 hours and 20 minutes.
Umpire—E. H. Jeane. Scorer—
