THE TORCH AT VELESTING

The Turks Have Complet ly Burned the Greik Town.

GEN. SMOLENSKI'S ARMY CUT IN TWO.

The Left Wing Retires to the Sheltering Hills in the Direction of Almiros, While the Remnants of the Right Wing Fled to Volo.

The Turks have completely ruined Velestino. The searchlights of the warships on the bay, flashing up the mountain sides, were of great assistance to the retreating Greeks, showing the road through the intense darkness. Over a dozen cannons were abandoned and captured by the Turks. Two hundred soldiers were brought to Volo. The opinion is that many Greek wounded were left on the field. It is impossible to state the number killed.

Advices from the frontier Saturday afternoon are to the effect that after Gen. Smolensdi's shattered army was cut in two the left wing retired to Almiros. What was left of the right wing came toward Volo, broken and demoralized.

The retreat across the mountain was almost as bad as the Velestino panic, which resulted in the change of base from Tyrnavos to Volo.

The scene of the more recent panic was wild and almost indescribable. On Thursday and Friday the populace filled the streets of Volo with their house-hold goos. The peasants from the surrounding villages fled to the town and added chaos to confusion. Brigandage became common. Five steamers were completely filled with refugees. Scores of caiques carried fugitives to the islands.

Prince Constantine's forces occupy all the defiles through which the Turkish troops must pass when they advance, notably those of Agorani and Tiam-

The inhabitants of Domokos are going to the interior.

The admiral in command of the Greek squadren at Volo telegraphed Saturday saying the French and British at Volo, accompanied by the comtilities and retire beyond range. The Greek admiral accepted these terms, All the foreigners at Volo have embarked for other ports and the town is now empty. A. . . .

The Turkish Losses.

A dispatch to the London Observer from Rome Sunday says that Germany supports the demands made by Turkey upon Greece. A dispatch to the Ob server from Athens dated Saturday says that the officials and consuls of Salonica reported that the turkish loss in killed, wounded and sick during the recent campaign will reach 38,000.

Wholesale Politing in Alabama. There is a profound mystery at Jeff, a small country town near Huntsville, Alabama. To months ago Joshua O. Kelly, a prominent farmer and nursery man, several members of his family and a number of tenants were poisoned. This was thought to have been the result of Mrs. Kelley carelessly placing poison in a cupboard, Kolley died in intense agony. A party of eleven, sitting up with his body, were poisoned the night after Kelley died. Friday it began to appear there was a plot to poison the family. After breakfast every one who had eaten became violently ill. Eight negroes and six whites were seriously affected, and two may die. Among the ill is a drummer from Cleveland, Tenn., who spent the night at Kelley's Disregard a Judge's Order.

The mayor and city council of Auburn, Neb., are in jail and are likely to remain there. Judge Stull had them cited to appear for contempt and sent them to jail for disregarding the provides that homestead settlers on all orders. The city attorney sought relief from the supreme court, which was denied. Judge Stull Sunday offered to release the officers on bail, but they declined to give it. The trouble originated in an effort to open
