

A NEUTRAL ZONE ALONG BORDER

IS PROPOSED IN NOTE SENT TO MEXICAN GOVERNMENT.

"Mexicans Will Drop Factional Troubles If Foreigners Make Attack," Says Rebel Leader.

Washington.—Not only will there be no invasion of Mexico by American troops nor showering of shrapnel into the Mexican or the revolutionary army at Juarez without specific authority by congress, but the president has proposed to President Madero of Mexico that a neutral zone be fixed on the Mexican border wherein no fighting is to occur. This proposal went through in a special note to the Mexican government just about the same time orders were issued to the Fourth Infantry at Fort Crook, Omaha, to be prepared to send two battalions to San Antonio.

Following conferences with senators and representatives identified with the foreign affairs committee under the two branches of congress and with democratic leaders, it was gradually let out at the state department Monday that the president will not send troops into Mexico, and that there will not be any deliberate firing of artillery into Mexico from this side of the border, unless congress first authorizes such acts of war. Senator Culberson, who laid before the president a telegram from T. M. Paschall of San Antonio, declaring that if troops are sent into Mexico the lives of all Americans there will be put in jeopardy.

The United States considers, however, that an unusual situation is involved. Forces have been landed in other countries to protect American life and property when local authorities appeared incapable of doing so, in spite of protests from revolutionary factions, but not in defiance of the protests of the titular government. The question in this case, which it is believed may arise at any moment at El Paso and elsewhere along the border, is whether the dispatch of troops into Mexico merely to stop firing into American territory would constitute an act of war from the viewpoint of President Madero. American troops would, it is said, simply prevent firing and restore order, retreating when that had been accomplished.

Statement From Rebels.

Bauche, Chi.—The following announcement was sent to Juarez:

"Encampment near Ciudad Juarez, February 26, 1912.—For the present I hereby announce in the name of all the chiefs and the troops under my command that all guarantees extended to all foreigners and natives will be observed as long as there is no resistance of any kind offered in Ciudad Juarez. If there is resistance offered we will enter the city through blood and fire if need be.

"I have placed the time of six hours from 2 o'clock Monday so that all foreigners can know our purpose. All foreigners shall be notified of this announcement. In case of an attack by foreigners (Americans) we will all unite without distinction of political parties.

"General Emilio Campa,
"Colonel Roque Gomez,
"Major Tomas Loza."

Juarez in Suspense.

El Paso, Tex.—Monday night the rebels had occupied Orozco Hill, three miles west of Juarez, opposite the El Paso smelter. Hundreds of camp fires were visible and horses were led down to the river and watered. It is apparent that the attack will be conducted so that there will be no firing into El Paso if there is an attack.

A report arrived from Canutillo, Tex., says that 300 Mexicans in that town were threatening trouble and it was asked that troops be sent.

A small detachment of Company K, Texas state militia, engaged in guarding the El Paso electric light plant, was fired upon by persons concealed behind box cars and said to be Mexicans. Maxim silencers were used on the guns and more than twenty shots were fired.

CHILD'S HEAD

A MASS OF HUMOR

"I think the Cuticura remedies are the best remedies for eczema I have ever heard of. My mother had a child who had a rash on its head when it was real young. Doctor called it baby rash. He gave us medicine, but it did no good. In a few days the head was a solid mass, a running sore. It was awful; the child cried continually. We had to hold him and watch him to keep him from scratching the sore. His suffering was dreadful. At last we remembered Cuticura Remedies. We got a dollar bottle of Cuticura Resolvent, a box of Cuticura Ointment, and a bar of Cuticura Soap. We gave the Resolvent as directed, washed the head with the Cuticura Soap, and applied the Cuticura Ointment. We had not used half before the child's head was clear and free from eczema, and it has never come back again. His head was healthy and he had a beautiful head of hair. I think the Cuticura Ointment very good for the hair. It makes the hair grow and prevents falling hair." (Signed) Mrs. Francis Lund, Plain City, Utah, Sept. 19, 1910.

Although Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold everywhere, a sample of each, with 32-page book, will be mailed free on application to "Cuticura," Dept. L, Boston.

Back In Good Old Bowl Days.

A man of apparent means brought two boys into a barber shop for a haircut. While waiting for the completion of the job he said:

"I never sat in a barber's chair when I was a kid. My brother used to go over to the engine house and borrow the horse clippers. Then my mother would put a bowl on my head and cut around it. Until I was 12 years old I always looked like a window washer's brush."

The Young Housewife.

A quartet of market men had gathered in the Faneuil Hall market and were discussing the probable famine in butter, when a pretty young woman, whom they adjudged to be a new housewife, interrupted the conversation by a statement that she had come "to buy some butter."

"I wish to get three pounds," she said.

"Roll butter, ma'am?" the individual in charge of the butter and cheese stall asked politely.

"No," answered the shopper promptly, "we wish to eat it on toast; we seldom have rolls."—Boston Journal.
