That Honey rode a great big horse last Sunday.

That two of the boys will invest in orange blossoms soon.

That travel was suspended up to Brown last week, the roads were overflowed.

That we now hear of a widower who now travels down Main street.

That the Johnnies of this town had their hair cut short. And a clean cut

That the Lady of the Lake is getting to be an attractive place if we must judge by the direction the boys move.

The pretty little brunette says Bone is not at all solid, his foundation are on the contrary weak.

That the Typo would like to have an explanation with the tall blonde but his courage fails him.

That a pretty couple took a ride to Fausse Pointe last Sunday. Which means the ringing of the bells will soon be heard.

That the young Doc., the Drug. and the Typo were practicing the other evening, shooting with a physician slide

That the old Bach. was in bad luck at the game, but was in full luck after the game, and now says: the widow is indeed charming!

St. Martinsville Sept. 6th 1888.

Mr. Editor. Be kind enough to publish that in my proxy to Dr. Guilbeau, I had specially requested him to vote against the selection of delegates to the Congressional Convention by the Committee, as I do not believe it is in accordance with Democratic usages. Respectfully,

R. MARTIN. Memb. 1st. wd. Dem. Ex. Com. Queries?

1 Has the Parish Executive Committee of the eratic party, in session by proxy, without al notice to members absent or otherwis the right to select delegates to Congression

2 Does not that right belong to the people, by convention or primaries?

8 Is it Democratic that the Parish Executive

5 Is it Democratic that the varian Executive.

Committee should resolve itself into a nominating convention and select themselves as delegates to represent the Good people of this parish?

Please answer the above and oblige a subceriber.
