House Cleaning Time

calls for house cleaning tools. We have 'em; brooms, buckets, brushes—all the B's to keep you busy and make your home "look as good as new." If you can think of anything we haven't mentioned here, we have that, too. Oh, we are the housewife's friend, when it comes to cleaning up.

T. J. LABBE.

Mr. E. E. Soulier left last Sunday for New Orleans, stopping at Morgan City to visit relatives. Mr. Soulier went to New Orleans to attend the closing exercises of the Tulane University, his son Eugene Soulier, graduating in the dental department, who has the distinction of having been selected as the Valadictorian, which speaks highly for this young gentleman, who completes his studies in his chosen profession. We learn that Mr. Soulier will soon open a dental office in St. Martinville.

A Creeping Death.

Blood poison creeps up towards the heart, causing death. J. E. Stearns Belle Plaine, Minn., writes that a friend dreadfully injured his hand, which swelled like blood poisoning. Bucklen's Arnica Salve drew out the poison, healed the wound, and saved his life. Best in the world for burns and sores. 25c at T. J. Labbe drug store.

MARRIED.

N. L. Ibeyrian.

Miss Leocade LeBlanc and Capt. Anthony N. Muller were united in marriage on Thursday evening at the home of the bride's parents.

The wedding was a very quiet affair, there being only members of the two families present.

The bride is the charming and accomplished daughter of Mr. J. G. LeBlanc, the Clerk of Court of this parish.

Capt. Muller is a member of the Iberia bar with a bright future before him. He acquired his title in the Spanish-American war. He has served as District Attorney of the 19th Judicial District. He has traveled extensively and is a polished gentleman.

We wish the happy couple a long and joyous voyage, under propitious skies, on life's seas, with a safe haven of rest for their old age.

DESSENCE—THIBODAUX.

Thibodaux Comet.

A very quiet, though pretty wedding, were solemnized Tuesday, at 12 o'clock, when Miss Emma Thibodaux and Mr. Bernard S. Desseance were married. Quite a crowd assembled at Church to witness the ceremony. The bride was faultlessly attired in pure white. She carried a lovely white bouquet, her veil being caught back by a spray of orange blossoms. She was attended by her sister, Miss Julia Thibodaux and Miss Ida Hebert.

The groom's attendants were: Messrs. Chas. Picou, Jr., and Clay F. Thibodaux, of Amelia.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her brother, Mr. C. J. Thibodaux, of Gilson.

The happy couple left on the afternoon train for New Orleans, where a part of their honeymoon will be spent. Mr. and Mrs. Desseance have a host of friends and relatives who wish them a life of serene happiness.

Mrs. Desseance is a sister of Mrs. John Salles of this parish.

Cleared for Action.

When the body is cleared for action, by Dr. King's New Life Pills, you can tell it by the bloom of health on the cheeks; the brightness of the eyes; the firmness of the flesh and muscles; the buoyancy of the mind. Try them. at T. J. Labbe drug store 25 cents.
