Personal Mention

Mr. Adolphe Franz made a trip to Broussard this week.

Mr. Robert Guirard made a trip to Crowley this week.

Miss Jane Courjors of New Orleans is on a visit here, the guest of Mrs. W. H. Rhymes.

Miss Goldie Gardemal returned home this week after having spent two months in Patterson and Opelousas.

Mrs. Paul Mouret and daughter, Miss Levie, of Jeanerette, were here several days this week visiting relatives.

Mr. Abel Bulliard of New Orleans, came here this week to spend a few days with his mother, Mrs. Gabriel Bulliard.

Joe. Lovas, Jr., who was employed by the Cumberland Telephone Co., in Mississippi, came home this week to spend a few days with his parents.

Mr. R. B. Muse of Crystal, Miss., is in town and has made arrangement to open a jewelry and optician office here at the old stand of F. H. Rhymes.

LOCAL NEWS.

For sale—The Lovas two story store on Railroad avenue. See L. Bienvenu.

Mr. Charles Bienvenu desires to announce to his customers and the public that he is now selling meat at 8 and 10 cts per pound, for choice meat.

—If you are a lover of good, interesting races, be sure to attend at the St. Paul Race Track at Parka on Sunday October 4th. Read the posters and you will agree that they are fine races.

CLOTHING! For the latest up-to-date Fashion, we have a line of Sterling Goods that is as complete as can be, we can fit you in the best style, K. Schwartz & Co

The planters are already making preparations for the grinding season which will commence early in October, as the cane crop is a large one this year and grinding will probably commence early and last until some time in January.

Ring No 3—For your Fresh Milk Cream, Cream Cheese and Home Made Butter. You will be served promptly and with the best, P. L. Guilbeau.

The statement of the town for August shows that the town has a bad proposition with the market house, the keeping of the market house cost $20 per month and the revenues for the month of August were $13.75.

For Races and any other kind of large "Posters" we have the best equipment to turn out the best work. We have a large assortment of cuts for effective advertisement. When in need come to us.

The Knights of Columbus have decided to give a smoker at the College hall tomorrow night at 8 P. M. The members will attend the mass in a body; after the mass they will all go to the hall where they will have their reception. A full membership is expected to be present.

—Ship your cotton to Olivier Voorhies & Lowry, 922 Gravier street, New Orleans if you want the highest market price for your cotton.

If the police and town authorities would give some of their attention to the large number of little negroes who make themselves a nuisance several times during the day on Main street, they would be doing something good. Their rous, their noise, brick throwing etc., is getting to such a point that it must be stopped, if not by the police, by the people who are bothered by them nearly every day of the week.

HATS! for fashion and style, elegance and beauty, be sure to see the fine stock of Hats we are now showing in every style and colors. We have the line to select from and our prices are reasonable. K. Schwartz & Co.
