If a young girl reads that which is weak and false and foolish, she will be weak, false and foolish; but if it is true, tender and inspiring, then some thing of its truth and tenderness will glow into her soul and become a part of her very self. The boy who reads of manliness, of bravery and noble daring feels the spirit of emulation glow within him, and the seed is planted which will bring forth fruit of pure endeavor and exalted life.

MODERATION.

The spirit of moderation can be applied to all things. Our sense of right, wrong, habits, faults, can have a season of moderation dressing.

We are prone to rise to higher levels through false pride. Prone to outbid others when our limitations are well known to our mind.

Be moderate in living, play, approval, condemnation.

Moderation is the twin-sister of modesty. None have too much of the former, many not enough of the latter. — State Journal of La.

CHARITY SWINDLERS CANVASS THE STATE

Fake Salvationists Collecting Money.

The popularity of the Salvation Army throughout the country as a result of the efficient service rendered by this organization in France during the war, and now in this country among soldiers and sailors, is being put to monetary advantage by an organized force of swindlers who are operating in every section of the country.

Reports have come in to Lieut. Col. George Wood, in charge of the Southwestern Division of the Salvation Army that several persons claiming to be representatives of the Salvation Army are collecting funds in this territory. Up to the present, several arrests have been made.

Some of these people wear Salvation Army caps or similar to the regulation cap, with a lettered ribbon bearing such wording as "The American Salvation Army" or "The Union Gospel Salvation Army."

Col. Wood has issued a warning to all sheriffs in this division, all mayors and chiefs of police, all newspapers and business men's organizations in the same territory, that the tamborine collecting methods of the Salvation Army have been discarded. The funds needed to carry on the work of the organization will be raised instead in a State-wide Home Service Drive to be put on soon.

Col. Wood asks that all persons claiming to be representatives of the Salvation Army be asked to show their credentials. Such credentials in this territory should bear the signature of Lieut. Col. Geo. Wood, Dallas Texas, Chief Divisional officer of the Southwestern Chief Division of the Salvation Army. If proper credentials cannot be produced, the persons should be detained until communication is obtained with Col. Wood. If the solicitors prove to be impostors, the Salvation Army will assist in prosecuting them.

This warning is not intended to apply to Salvationists in their own corps cities who are personally known as Local Corps Officers. These men and women will continue their collections until their local corps is placed upon a sound financial basis as a result of securing funds in the city and county for their annual budget.
