J. Brand, proprietor Thibodaux Shoe and Hat Store, Sole agent. 12 1-y

At the solicitation of his many friends Mr. Jules Basset, a prominent merchant of the first ward, has decided to announce himself as a candidate for police juror for his ward subject to the action of the Democratic primary election of February 19, 1900. We direct attention to his card appearing in another column.

We local reporter reproduces on the slip the following item from the last issue of the Terrebonne Times:

Judge L. P. Caillouet of Thibodaux has been in town several days during the past week. The Reporter of the Times saw the Judge on last Tuesday morning near the fire working like a Trojan trying to get an old hand fire engine to work, but alas! the best of machines sometimes fail, but that's no matter—the Judge is a fireman and knows how to take things and not be disgusted.

Mrs. Phoebe Tompkins, an old time resident of this town, died at her residence in New Orleans last Saturday aged 70 years.

Her remains were brought over on Sunday's train, and interred from St. John's Episcopal Church in St.
John's cemetery, in the presence of a large number of friends and acquaintances.

Mrs. Louis Rousell, a resident of La. fourche parish, recently died in the parish. He was the only brother of Mrs. Louis J. Folsom formerly of this parish and now of Iberville and the father of Mr. Clarence Rousell, a young man well known throughout our parish.

Mrs. Louis Toups, a resident of this town, died last Saturday at the matrimonial domicile, aged 22 years.

Her funeral took place Sunday after noon at St. Joseph's Church in the presence of a large number of friends and acquaintances. The deceased had not been married many years and leaves a fond young husband to mourn her loss.

Kentucky Mules and Horses.

the public in general, that after Dec.
25, 1899, I will have at Mr. W. C.
Bragg's stable, a fine lot of Kentucky mules and horses, which I will dispose of at reasonable prices, call and see successful ever put out by this of the most reliable Piano Dealer, Philip Werle, Ltd. of New Orleans, La., is bind each and every one.

was ever made in buying a Mathushek."

THE "VARIETY."

Messrs. C. J. Barker, T. A. Badeaux, James Beary and H. N. Coulon, members of the Democratic Judiciary Executive Committee from this parish, attended the meeting of that Committee in Houma last Monday.

They report the session to have been harmonious, and they are profuse in their praise of the hospitable and charming reception extended them by their Terrebonne co-members.

We direct the attention of our readers to the announcement of Major W. P. Martin, of this parish, as a candidate for District Attorney of this judicial district. Major Martin submits himself to the primaries which have been ordered by the Democratic Judiciary Executive Committee, so the Democrats of Lafourche and Terrebonne will have an opportunity to pass directly on his claims.

The Major is a sound lawyer, full of energy and push, a staunch Democrat, a man of high character and a gentleman. He is in every way worthy of the confidence of the people, and if nominated and elected, the interests of the people will be in safe hands in the district attorney's office. The Major is deservedly popular and will make a good race. The SENTINEL commends him to the consideration of the Democratic masses of the two parishes.

They Favor Drainage.

The property tax payers of the 2d Drainage District of this parish favor drainage and are willing to tax themselves to secure it.

At Large—C. J. Barker, James Beary, A. W. Conney, F. X. Bourg, and Dr. Leon H. Jaszkowski.

Parish of Lafourche—J. L. Aucoin (by proxy) Thomas A. Badeaux and H. N. Coulon.

Parish of Terrebonne—R. R. Barrow, Dr. Chas. M. Menville and John R. Grinage.

On motion duly seconded the minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted.

The Chair announced that the majority of these tax payers are small land owners and poor, and that they have been taxing themselves for years for the same purpose; their renewed determination to continue the good work at their own cost and expense speaks well for their spirit of enterprise and progress, and makes their example worthy of emulation.

that effectively prevents the spread of the infection.

This is a good suggestion which our planters might note and follow.
The board of health here has done much to stamp out the dread disease, but it cannot do all by itself. Planters must tend their soil. They should isolate any case appearing on the premises at once, and not wait for the health officers to act.

It would even be advisable to restrict intercourse of strange hands from other places with their own and thus diminish the chances of the disease.

Senator McEnery delivered a forceful and well considered speech last Tuesday from his seat in the Senate in defense of the suffrage clause of the constitution of Louisiana of 1898.

The Senator declared that after a careful study of the constitution, he had changed his mind on the question of article 197, and thinks that it is constitutional. It is a great pity that the distinguished Senator delivered himself prematurely and at long range in 1898 on this important question, in answer to some query of the Times-Democrat then bitterly fighting the adoption of that section. We thought then that our two Senators had gone off half cocked, and had undertaken to lecture the constitutional convention on a measure which they had not yet had time and opportunity to study as it deserved.

Senator McEnery has, however, justly made amende honorable, and we are glad to see our labors have not been in vain.

Last Sunday during high water at St. Joseph's Church an alarm of fire was sounded in town, and the few residents in town quickly responded, and with the help of other citizens soon put out the fire which had broken out in one of Munch's houses on President street—the same, we believe, which had caught on fire a year or so ago.

The Republicans of Lafourche have called a mass meeting for tomorrow at Raceland to nominate a local ticket. Rumors seem to point to the nomination of Mr. L. J. Tro-clair as their candidate for Sheriff.
Other names are suggested, but Mr.
Tro-clair seems to have the inside track.

We have heard the names of divers persons mentioned in connection with other offices but there seems to be nothing definite.
