NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 14, 1880. Dear Capitolian - To-day at one o'clock, Gov. Wiltz took the oath of the Hon, S. D. McEnery. The arrangements for the inauguration were made since the last twenty-four hours in a plainly Democratic manner, be coming to the era of peace into which tee was influenced also to a great extent by the recent serious illness of our gallant young Governor, who was much improved in appearance as he ascended the platform at Odd Fellows' Hall, in the presence of a large concourse of people, who had assemceremony. A bend of music discoursed a few airs, and Capt. Sambola's detachment fired a salute on the square.

The Gubernatorial party was everywhere greeted with marks of the greatest respect. There was an absence of noisy demonstrations, but men were uncovering their heads on every side, in evidence of their satisfaction as the carriage and escort were passing. All seemed happy that Gov. Wiltz's health was so far mamma, but he never finds fault the important duties of his office. The people have the utmost confidence in his judgment and patriotism, know ing that he will do all in his power for the glory and prosperity of the men of the place have been buying

The new government is thus installed. Col. R. N. Ogden was elected Speaker of the House of Reprelen Johnson, fatally stabbed Abram sentatives, a position for the conduct of which he is, by common accord, eminently fitted. An eloquent orator, a good parliamentarian, he will dispatch business without unnecessary delay. The General Assembly has much to accomplish in remodeling the present machinery of government, so that it may be made to harmonize with the new constitution. The material that composes the two branches is unquestionably good, and we have little doubt but that the results will come up to the popular expectations.

We find a disposition to carry out fully the clauses of the constitution, and particularly that relating to the the removal of the Capitol to Baton

The Senatorial contest is at present he absorbing topic at the rotunds among the groups that are to be found canvassing the situation even at night till a late hour. It is apparent that Gov. John McEnery has the lead by far over his competitors. His well known ability, his unfaltering patriotism, exhibited in the tented field, and during those long four years pled with the personal popularity that his warm and kind nature have won for him, undoubtedly render him the people's favorite.

The question next in the public mind is the selection of Judges of the Supreme Court. Predictions as to whom will receive the preference of the Governor are advanced on every hand. In our district, though several names are mentioned, none meets with as much favor as that of our distinguised townsman, General Andrew S. Herron, a gentleman whose connection with public matters since early life is but a succession of honorable actions, which reflect credit upon his name and the State.

CERTIFICATE.

ANDHURST (Australia) March 1st, 1878.

I have been investigating Messrs Sander & Sons' Eucalyptus Extract, and have to admit that there is, beside it, no medicament of such universal effect on the human system that I know of. It checks completely all inflammations of whatever kind—chest, lung and all throat affections, such as Brouchitis and Diphtheria. It cures Rheumatism, Toothache, Neuralgia, the most severe Colds, etc. I used it with unparalleled success in Swellings, Bruiscs, Sprains, Burns, Wounds of the most serious nature, in all disorders of the Bowels, Dharrhea, etc., and gladly acknowledge its merits for the benefit of the public, [Signed] JOHN CRUICKSHANK, M D. Dr. Mosler, Professor at the University of Griefswalde, Germany, reports astonishing cures of Diphterites, Asthma, (Berliner Klinisohe Wochenschrift, Nov. 21, 1879, at our office.)

The extract effected cures of Typhoid Fever, Indammation of Breasts and Swelling of Legs, after confinement, Dysentery. Whooping Cough, Inflamed Eyes, etc. Dr. CRUICKSHANK.

Epitome of declaration made before M.COHN, Esq., J. P., at Sandhurst. October, 1877.

The son of Mr. Raabo was hurt with an axeon the knee. After nine weeka' medical treatment it was declared necessary by Dr. Macgillivray to amputate the limb. At that juncture the Extract was applied, and the wound speedily cured without amputation.

The daughter of Mr. Jungheim, suffering from allsease of the bone, so pronounced by Drs. Atkinson and Boyd, who attended the girl without satisfactory result, was cured just as speedily.

> > HOMICIDE.

A difficulty occurred in the New Hope neighborhood on Thursday last which resulted in the killing of a negro—Edward Buckley, by Mr. John as he came in immediately and delivered himself to the authorities.

It seems that the boy wanted to eave the wagon that was loaded with cotton, and on the way to the gin. Mr. Daniels insisted upon his going with him, and that if he did not he would discharge him. Harsh words ensued, when Edward opened his knife and started at Daniels with a threat of killing him, when Daniels drew a pistol from his pocket and shot him in the head. Mr. Daniels is of a good family raised by pious parents and with good, moral associates, a young man of good habits, and we are satisfied that he was justiffable in doing what he did-as he says he acted only in self

Since writing the above, upon the preliminary examination of Mr. Daniels, the following testimony was elicited, from a witness upon the part of the State and an evewitness. They were bauling cotton to the gin, and Daniels wanted Edward to go with the wagon to assist in pushing up hills, and scotching the wagon, as the team was backing. Edward Buckley said he was a free man, lived in a free country, and generally done as he d-dplease. Words ensued, whereupon Buckley drew a knife that he had borrowed from Daniels the pay before while cating dinner, on the road to be replaced by that of Irish immi-the gin, advancing on Daniels, grants. He alleged that he could threatening to the his throat "from ear to ear." Mr. Daniels retreated some distance, Edward still advancing with open knife-seeing his determination to kill him Mr. Daniels drew
