THE MARYLAND GAZETTE-ESTABLISHED 1727.

DR. WELLS TO AID OF RAY Support Him

George Wells, veteran the Democratic party in county, is working are the election of James Jr., to Congress from listrict, despite the fact voutly espoused the cause H. Stanley in the recent indicated by the call terday to Democratic vos throughout the county. Or. Wells states that Mr. Ray was airly nominated in the primaries; hat he is an honest straightforward , and as the majority shall e of the cardinal princif the Democratic party, he is led to the earnest support of ery sincere Democrat, particularly participated in the pri-

Dr. Wells says it would be most ortifying if the election in the disshould be so close and the vote Anne Arunde) should decide it and ect the Republican candidate. He, erefore, calls on every Democrat turn out on election day and vote

Anne Arundel normally is a Repubcounty, and while the simple hallot will be easy for the negroes to vote, yet the Democratic leaders are counting on carrying the county by a small majority. The Republi-cans, on the other hand, are sanguine their predictions that Mr. Thomas Parran will win the county by from

PACA MONUMENT COMPLETED

Granite Memorial To Be Raised Over Grave Of Governor

A monument to be erected by the Maryland Society, Sons of the Amer-ican Revolution, to the memory of Governor William Paca, one of the four Maryland signers of the Decla-raton of Independence, has been comoleted at the establishment of Willm A. Gault & Son Baltimore.

Tomorrow the monument will be hipped to Old Wye, Queen Anne's ounty, where it will be erected over the grave of Governor Paca. Old Wye is the ancestral burying ground of the Paca family. It is some distance from the present Wye House and from Wye Island, in the Wye river, where Paca made his home when he was Governor of Maryland. The monument is of rough-hewn

Maryland granite and weighs 5,000 nounds. It is in the form of a block, and at its base under the inscrip-Cut into the stone re the words

William Paca, 1740-1799, Govmor of Maryland, 1782-1783. Just over the scroll is the inscrip-

Erected by the Maryland Society, the American Revolution." society's insignia, consisting of Cross, with the head of George Washington in the centre, the cross being surmounted by an eagle.

Take Notice!!

There will be an important meeting of Annapolis Lodge No. 622 B. P. O. Elks, on FREDERICK BATZER and FAMILY, Wednesday, October 19th, at the Red Men's Hall. All are requested to attend

By Order, Exalted Ruler.

REPUBLICAN Mass-Meeting

FRIDAY NIGHT. OCTOBER 21st,

At Hotel Maryland peals is deeply appreciated.

Speakers are the Hon. Thomas Partan, Republican Candidate for Congress from this district and Hon. Philip Lee Goldsborough, "The Working Man's Friend I.

Naval Academy Band will furnish

PARMERS NAT'L BANK, OF ANNAPOLIS, MD.

All Modern Banking Facilities:

Public Depositary of State, County and Interest paid on Savings Deposits one Vaults of most approved construction and upwards.

Safety Deposit Boxes for rent from $3.

Collections and Remittances made all

Over the World.

Letters of Credit issued on Foreign

Banks and Bankers.

Accounts desired with individuals, firms and corporations cms and corporations. ces over One Million Dollars.

strong, safe, tested, tried and true. of the Eark places at the disposal of its Castomers the experience and facilities sained through 10.4 years of continuous and successful growth and public service.

J. WIRT RANDALL, President.

J. WIRT RANDALL, President.

L. DORKEY GASSAWAY, Cashier,

J. CLAYTON PREWER, Asst Cashier.

WELLMAN IS ALL RIGHT

Calls On Anne Arundel Democrats To But His Dirigible Balloon Is Lost-Picked Up Almost Midway Between Hatteras And Bermuda

The Walter Wellman airship expedition was rescued from its crippled craft yesterday morning by the Royal Mail Steam Packet steamer Trent about 250 miles westward from Bermuda and 350 miles east of Cape Hatteras.

The crew, including the cat, was brought safely aboard the Trent after much difficulty, but the giant airship was abandoned. It rose high in the air and was blown away by the wind.

The America left Atlantic City Sunday morning about 8 o'clock in a The same evening it came near colliding with a schooner off Barne-

The last wireless message from the America was received at the Siasconset Station at 12:45 p. m. Sunday, at which time it was off Nantucket Island, intending to sail northwest along the steamer lanes to Europe. That night, when off Nova Scotia, a storm blew the big dirigible far to the southward. The "equilbrator" worked badly, the airship was menaced by light-ning and gasoline had to be thrown into the sea. Other mishaps occurred until Wellman decided to look for assistance.

The finding of the Trent was providential as few vessels pass in that part of the ocean. The America was 71 hours in the air, a world's record, and traveled about 850 miles. Mr. Wellman is not discouraged and plans another trip.-Baltimore Sun. IN THE CIRCUIT COURT

Most Of This Morning's Sessions Taken Up With Jewell vs. Duyall Suit-Other Cases Pending

The whole of the morning session of the Circuit Court today was taken up with the hearing of the case of George Jewell, contractor, against Joseph Duvall, which was taken up yesterday and was still before the Court when that body met this morn-

The case, which is being tried before the Court, rather than a jury, involves a bill from Mr. Jewell against Mr. Duvall for work alleged to have been done on the home of the

The work of the grand jury continues and among the matters which will undoubtedly come from that body shortly is the indictment of James Crump, a negro who is charged with murder. Crump killed another negro in the upper part of the county some weeks ago, and his case, with that of "Chick" Brown, an Annapolis negro, charged wife, will make two with killing his Accompanying these words are serious criminal cases for the present term.

offered condolence in their recent bereavement at the death of their beloved son and brother, JOHN GROVER BATZER, and especially to express grateful appreciation to all those who sent floral tributes.

175 Duke of Gloucester street.

WARNING! To Water Consumers!

It becomes necessary to again ask the public to be care- maiden hair fern. ful in the consumption of WATER. The recent rains quisite creation which became her blonde beauty wonderfully well. It only afforded temporary relief and our streams are exceedingly low. The hearty compliance with my former apol5tf HARRY J. HOPKINS. President of the Annapolis Water Co.

FOR SALE.

DESIRABLE HOUSE in Suburbs .-DESIRABLE HOUSE in Suburbs.—
New seven-room Frame Bungalow. Wel of good water under cover. Lot 100 feet by 144 feet, fenced for lawn, garden and chicken yard. Necessary outbuildings. Situated on Finkbine Road near Cedar Park. Inspection invited.—
Inquire of Samuel D. U. Wells, on premises, or Frank H. Stockett, Annapolis, Md. ol8w

A FOR RENT

If you desire to rent a large first class Furnished Dwelling near Naval Academy. Apply at once for information to JULIAN BREWER & SON.

9 School St.

FOR RENT. The Two-Story BRICK HOUSE, No. 213 Hanover St. Hot water heat; modern plumbing; newly and complete-ly furnished throughout. May be rented unfurnished if desired. Immediate possession. E. W. IGLEHART, No. 5 School Street.

AN ARMY-NAVY WEDDING

Miss Eleanor Dashiell Is Married To Lieut. Julian S. Hatcher United States Army

THE SERVICE AT ST. ANNE'S

The Ushers Former Classmates Of The Groom Who Is Graduate Of The Naval Academy-A Mixture Of Uniform Of Both Branches Of The Service

At 4 o'clock this afternoon in St. Anne's Protestant Episcopal Church a wedding that was of more than usual interest both in Army and Navy circles was performed by the recto, the Rev. Joseph P. McComas, who united in marriage Miss Eleanor Dashiell and Lieut. Julian Sommer-ville Hatcher, United States Army.

The bride is a daughter of the late Naval Constructor Robert B. Dashiell and Mrs. Eleanor Ridout-Dashiell, of Murray Hill, this city, and the groom is the son of Mr. L. L. Hatcher, of Winchester, Va., and Mrs. Hatcher, a member of the faculty of Fort Loudon Seminary, at Winches-

St. Anne's Church was filled with relatives and friends of the young couple, and a representative gathering of service people, both from Washington and Annapolis. The al-tar was banked with white chrysanthemums behind which glimmered the vesper lights, lending that "deep religious glow" which was most effective. Palms, ferns and white chrysanthemums were used with effect in the chancel.

Before the ceremony the organist and choirmaster, Mr. Arthur Edward Jones, rendered the following musical program: Grand March from program: Grand March from "Aida," Verdi; Berceause, from "Jocelyn," Goddard; Pilgrims Chorus from Tannhauser, Wagner.

As the bridal party entered the strains of the Bridal March, from Lohengrin-Wagner pealed forth, and during the service special selections were played, including "The Evening Star," from Tannhauser, and as a recessional the wedding march from "Midsummer Night's Dream," Mendelssohn.

The bride entered the church with her uncle, Prof. Paul J. Dashiell, U. S. N., who gave her in marriage. They were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Passed Midshipman A. S. Dysart, '09, Naval Academy, now attached to the U. S.

S. Tennessee. The ushers are classmates of the groom at the Naval Academy were Passed Midshipman B. V. McCandlish and L. E. Lindsy, of the U. S. S. Delaware; Passed Midshipman J. J. Broshek and T. E. Van Meter, of the S. S. Connecticut, and shipmen R. H. English and B. S. Bullard of the Naval Academy.

The bride's only attendant was her Card Of Thanks

The undersigned desire herewith to the undersigned desire herewith the undersigned desire here with the undersigned desired desir express thanks to all friends who rank and the best man and ushers were all in Navy uniform of their respective ranks, the commingling of Army and Navy uniforms giving a distinctive military air to the wedding ceremony.

The bride was gowned in an exquisite robe of ivory satin draped with marquisette, and caught with bunches of white satin roses, whose petals were made of the soft material of the gown. The neck and sleeves were of handsome duchess lace edged with strings of pearls, the tulle veil, which reached to the end of a demitain, was held in place in her hair with a coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses, lillies of the valley and

The bride's maid's gown was an exwas of Army blue meteor, with chiffon draperies of the same tone, arranged in panels like the petals of a rose and caught gracefully near the edge of the skirt with tiny sprays of satin rose buds, panels of gold and blue gave a touch of richness to the handsome gown. Her hat was a large blue velvet Gainsborough faced with Army blue chiffon silk and covered entirely with a long willow plume in Army blue. To carry out the Coast Artil-lery colors (the groom being attached to that branch of the service,) the maid of honor carried an armfull of Richmond roses, whose scarlet hue blended perfectly with her rich cos-

The bride's mother looked handsome in an empire dress of black crepe de chine, with bodice of jet and yoke of gold lace with a touch of sapphire chiffon. After the ceremony at the church a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, Southgate avenue and Franklin street, Murray Hill, for relatives and the bridal party. The house decorations were white and yellow chrysanthemums, autumn leaves and paims. The bride cut the wed-ding cake with the groom's sword. An orchestra from the Naval Academy band furnished music. The bride was the recipient of a large number of handsome and elegant presents from all parts of the world. This afternoon Lieut. and Mrs. The TWO-STORY BRICK HOUSE, Hatcher left for Fortress Monroe, where the groom, who is attached to the Coast Artillery, is stationed. The groom is a graduate of the Naval Academy Class 09', but was recently transferred to the Army.

SAID TO BE A DESERTER

'Millionaire" Marine Formerly In Artillery-An Extraordinary Case

Epes Winthrop Sargeant, "millionaire" recruit of the Marine Corps at League Island, who is declared in dispatches from Portland, Ore., to be a deserter from Company B, Sixth Artillery, has disappeared. No longer does the glad raiment of the millionaire gladden the sight of the marines at the yard, and they wondering whether they ever get that barrel of beer promised by the plutocrat who for a short space tarried in their midst. Two short days ago Sargeant came from Chicago, where he had enlisted. Yet in those two days he made rine Corps history. He raised the local detachment of marines high in the estimation of their fellows the seacoast over, for the Philadelphia aggregation owned a millionaire. Now he is gone, and none of his mates will receive that dollar apiece he promised them. Three hundred of the "boys" were going to touch Sargeant for one dollar each today, but that dream has been dissipated with the disappearance of the pride of the Corps. When word came from Portland to the effect that the man was a deserter nothing could be done by the local authorities, the telegram not having been official. The matter was mentioned to Sargeant and he 'Most extraordinary thing, you airily brushed suspicion aside know, this wire," he said. "Nothing in it at all, old chap, believe me." Then he applied for leave of absence-and got it. He has not come back. Sargeant's leave of absence was up at 6 o'clock this morning, and to date nothing has been heard or seen of him. Sargeant Major Hulbard shook his head sadly when questioned on the subject. "Well, I guess he's deserted, all right, all right." he said.

Until the man has been gone ten days, however, he is merely "absent without leave," and no effort will be made to catch him.

On Sargeant's little cot in the barracks is a suit of pink silk pajamas. His neat traveling bag, with its silver manicure set inside, remains beside his bed. These things are beside his bed. These things are visible signs of the glory that once belonged to the Corps, but the men shake their heads and pass by, for they did not get that barrel of beer. To lose a man who could promise a barrel of beer every time the marines won a football game was a severe

To lose a man who had the nerve to promise to lend money to every-body in sight as often as they wanted it was still more sad, but the crowning misfortune of all was the cancellation of a theater party scheduled for tonight. Taxicabs were to have drawn up to the navy yard gate. and the marines, resplendent in full dress uniforms, were to have entered the machines, driven to the theater, and forever and for aye to have set tled the question of social supremacy over the sailors at the station. - Philadelphia Times

The Editor Of Amerika Esperantists Soon

ESPERANTO LECTURE

To Entertain Annapolis The local Esperantists are planning to have Mr. Arthur Baker of Chicago, editor of Amerika Esperantist to, give one of his entertaining lectures in Annapolis this fall. He has just written stating that he cannot come this month, as requested, but will make a date at this earliest convenience.

School Entertainment

A pleasing entertainment will be given on Friday evening, October 21 in the Assembly Hall of the Grammar School on Green street by the pupils under the direction of the teachers. A good program will be presented. Proceeds for the school piano. During the evening there

Among those present at the wedding

Commander and Mrs. Armistead Rust, U. S. N., of Washington; Commander Rust is executive officer of the U.S.S. Louisiana; Mrs. E. H. Ridout, of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. William Singleton, of Washington; Naval Constructor David H. Taylor and Mrs. Taylor, of Washington navy yard; Dr. J. M. Whittaia, U. S. Army, of Washington; Congressman C. B. Randell, of Texas, and Mrs. Randell; Mrs. Hatcher and Miss Hatcher, of Winchester, Va.; Mrs. Van Brunt, New York; Col. Robert M. Thompson. New York; Mrs. J. M. Dashiell, Philadelphia; Commander R. E. Coontz, U. S. N, Commandant of Midshipmen, and Mrs. Coontz, Prof. S. J. Brown, U. S. N., and Mrs. Brown, Prof. A. N. Brown, U. S. N., and Mrs. Brown, Prof. N. M. Terry, U. S. N., and Mrs. Terry, Miss Terry, Commander W. G. Bullard, U. S. N., and Mrs. Bullard, Dr. and Mrs. Carpenter, U. S. N., Mrs. Karns, Mr. and Mrs. C. Nelson Dugan, Mrs. Charles Ligon, of Ellicott City; Prof. Woolsey Johnson, U. S. N., Midshipmen Ridgley, Barr, Goodwin, Cecil, Johnson and English.

THE COMING CONVENTION

Laymen's Meeting At St. John's Saturday And Sunday Next

A MISSIONARY MOVEMENT

Secretary David H. Brown Pleased With Prompt And Hearty Response To Call To Men

"In no place in which I have worked previously, has there been so prompt and hearty a response to the call to men to take part in the Laymen's Missionary Campaign as I have met in Annapolis.

This was the statement made this morning by Mr. David H. Brown who is handling the work here. The statement was made in special reference to the Annapolis convention, which meets in the St. John's College gymnasium on Saturday and Sunday, October 29 and 30. Under the business-like direction of Mr. Brown, a number of the committees have already met and the work is being taken up with great enthusiasm.

Mr. Brown is now receiving applications for registration for the Annapolis convention at his office in the Advertiser-Republican Building. One of the features of the convention will be the dinner on Saturday night. It will be an undenominational affair. and should bring together the greatest number of the Christian men of Annapolis, who have ever assembled for joint work. The registration fee is 50 cents and the subscription to the dinner is also 50 cents. Registration has already begun. Sunday, the 30th of October, will be the great day for Annapolis in con-nection with the Laymen's Missionary Movement. There will be special speakers in the churches in the morning at the regular services, and great mass-meetings in the St. John's gymnasium at 3:30 and 8 p. m. The union of Christian people of this vicinity for one object, the obedience of God's command "to go into all the world and preach the Gos-pel to every creature' should be enough to thril every person who attends and to give a wonderful impetus to the work. The Pastor's Advisory Committee has met and decided that special ser-mons in connection with the movement will be preached in every pulpit in Annapolis and vicinity on Sunday, or that specially selected laymen will make addresses. At 8 o'clock in the evening Surgeon D. N. Carpenter, U. S. N., will speak at the Eastport Methodist Church, and at 8:30 Surgeon Carpenter will speak at the Eastport Baptist Church. Surgeon Carpenter is chairman of the local co-operating committee.

REPUBLICAN MASS MEETING

To Be Held At Hotel Maryland Friday Night

On Friday night, October 21, there at Hotel Maryland.

The speakers will be the Hon. Thomas Parran, Republican nominee for Congress from the Fifth district, and the Hon. Philip Lee Golds-borough, "The Workingman's Friend" Both speakers are well known platform orators. The mass meeting will be in front of the Hotel Maryland, Main street side, the orators using the porch as the platform. The Naval Academy band will be in attendance Mr. John K. Gladden, the Republican chairman of the County Central Commiteee, and Postmaster Daniel R. Randall are on the committee of arrangements. There are expected to be other speakers besides Messrs. Parran and Goldsborough.

At The Hospital

Mr. John Wells, son of Justice John B. Wells, and nephew of Dr. George Wells, is a patient at the The bride is a debutante of two seasons ago, and is popular in the younger set of Annapolis and the Naval Academy.

The bride is a debutante of two seasons ago, and is popular in the ler in the Farmers' National Bank, is doing as well as can be available.

Mr. Charles A. DuBois, a wellknown business and club man, is a patient at the Emergency Hospital, where he has been quite ill for some days, but is now able to set up in a wheeling chair.

Committee Meets Tonight

The special committee appointed by the Mayor and City Council to investigate the charges preferred against William Farrell, fireman of No. 2 Engine House, will meet tonight and hear charges. The committee consists of Ridgely P. Melvin, City Counselor, Aldermen Elmer Parkin-son and Richard G. Chaney.

The Races

Much interest is being taken in the races at Parole Driving Park tomor-row. The races will start at 1:30 sharp. Some of the best horses in these parts have been entered. For particulars see advertisement in an-

"Stag."

Hotel Maryland-Raw Box open

PERSONAL MENTION

Chronicle Of Those Who Come And Go From Day To Day - By Our Man About Town

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sommers, who have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. Hill, wife of Lieut. Owen Hill, U. S. N., have returned home after a delightful visit to Wollaston, Mass., where Lieutenart Hill is stationed. Mrs. Charles R. Miller, of Leslie's Weekly, was in Annapolis yesterday. Mrs. Miller has just returned from a trip to Europe, where she spent several months. Mr. Albert Chaney, of Baltimore, spent the week-end with his uncle, Mr. Richard G. Chaney, West street. Mr. Waters Chaney, son of Richard G. Chaney, who has been spending the past few days at home, eft this morning for Charlotte Hall School to resume his studies. Miss Ola Remson, of Greenberry Point, this county, has returned from the Hagerstown Fair, where her prize poultry were among the prize-win-

Miss Pearl Hopkins, of Jefferson street, left today for a visit of several days with friends in Baltimore. Commander Dennis W. Mullan is on an extended visit to New York

AT HOTEL MARYLAND

Permanent Guests At Popular Hostelry For Winter

Bros., proprietors, is now down to business in earnest for the winter. The new proprietors have made many improvements and innovations and the popular hostelry is even more popular than ever. Among those who are permanent guests for the winter at The Maryland are Mr. Arthur Edward Jones, organist, St. Anne's; Dr. Clement Biddle, U. S. N., retired; Mrs. F. R. Brainard, Prof. Frederick Morrison, U. S. N., wife and mother, D. J. Martin, manager Gottlieb; Lieut. Gilford Darst, Dr. C. E. Riggs, U. S. N.; Lieutenant Sterling and Lieutenant Dowling.

Of Anne Arundel County. (Communicated).

Now that the Congressional primary is over and the Hon. J. Enos Ray has been fairly nominated as the democratic standard bearer in this district, and as the majority shall rule is one of the cardinal principles of the democratic party, he is entitled to the earnest support of every sincere democrat and par ticularly those who participated in the primary contest. It is dishonorable for a man to take part in a primary meeting and then vote against the nominee, simply because his favorite in the contest was defeated and I cannot believe there are many such in dear old Anne Arundel. Mr. Ray is mentally qualift to represent us in congress and is honest, straight-forward democrat, and as such, believes in the traditions, hiswill be a Republican mass-meeting tory and principles of the democratic party and what more should any demo cratic voter demand of his party's cratic voter demand of his party's candidate? It would be most mortifying should the election be so close in the district that the vote of Anne Arundel County should decide it and elect the republican candidate. It is the duty, therefore, of every democrat to turn out on the day of election, Tuesday, November the 8th, 1910, and cast his vote for Mr. Ray:

cast his vote for Mr. Ray;
GEO. WELLS,
Chairman Democratic State Central Committee for Anne Arundel County.

CHAS WEISS,
o12w President
CHAS. E. MYERS, Sec'y and Treas. -Mrs. ALICE V. STOKES, DRESS-MAKER, 163 Conduit St. 017 3t

DOG CATCHER ENLISTS

City "Official" Throws Up His Job For The Navy - On Watch Dog Of War

With a vision of Deweys and Schleys, and seeing Wellman balloons drop oranges from their flight over-head to "bombard" a United States battleship, City Dog Catcher John H. Fisher has thrown up his job for the navy, and literally snapped his fingers in the face of all the common curs in Annapolis is now minus a city official, and that same one a dog catcher, the most difficult office to fil', probably because it is the most thankless. The job of catching dogs that run around the town loose, goes a-begging. Nobody seems to want it, and it is said that probably the proposed new ordinance of muzzling dogs will make matters worse, and had some-thing to do with Dog Catcher Fisher's resignation. "Be that as it may," (with apologies to the Masqueraders) yesterday afternoon J. H. Fisher, C. D. C., tendered his resignation to Mayor Strange, which the Mayor received regret. A successor has not yet been appointed, but probably with all the dogs in town muzzled, there will be no need of a dog catcher. Fisher says he resigned to enlist in the navy, probably the dogs of war need his services more than the dogs of Annapolis. He has made a good dog catcher, even at the risk of his life. Some few years ago he was badly bitten on the hand by a rabid dog, which he was attempting to cap-Hotel Maryland, the Messrs. Smith ture, and he had to take the Pasteur treatment, which cost the city $300. Fisher left this afternoon for Norfolk, Va., to begin his term of en-

STORM WARNING

Southeast Storm Moying This Way The Santee displayman at the Naval Academy received the following storm warning from Baltimore at 10 a. m. today, which was transmitted to the Capital: 'Hoist southeast storm warnings 10 p. m., southern storm now centered in Northern Florida, gradually moving northeastward along the coast. Dangerous gales indicated on the coast tonight from Hatteras southward.

"Winds from Hatteras northward to New Jersey will increase in force Wednesday and become high. MOORE."

Races! Races!

At the Anne Arundel Driving and Agriculture Association Track at CAMP PAROLE ON THURSDAY, October 20, 1910.

Races Start at 1.30 p.m. sharp

There will be Trotting and Pacing Races.

One Grand Free-for-all; Purse, $200 One 2-25 Class, Trotting and Pacing, - - Purse, $150 One County Race.

A grand opportunity to *see some of Maryland's fastest horses who have never been seen here before Entrance close Tuesday, October 18th, at 6 P. M.

...T H E ...

Annapolis Banking & Trust Co. Cor.Main Street and Church Circle.

SAFETY AND GOOD SERVICE.

That is what it means to have an account with the Annapolis Banking & Trust Company.

We have the equipment, facilities and system which enable us to look after every detail in the most practical manner.

Accounts, subject to check are cordially invited. Three and one half per cent. interest on Savings

...T H E ...

Annapolis Banking & Trust Co.

George T. Melvin, President,

Asa A. Joyce, Secretary J. Marshall Caughy, Treasurer

BANKING HOURS:

Saturdays, 9 A. M., to 6 P. M. 9 A. M., te 4 P. M.