WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1912.

Many a shallow mind is equipped with a deep voice.

You never strike a man favorably if you hit him when he's down.

Anyway the man who cherishes no hopes has no disappointments.

It's easy to be a gentleman, but not enough men try it.

Being young isn't at all difficult if you will let your imagination loose.

Of course the question from now or will be who will get the good jobs? It takes a fat country to experience a famine of box cars and laborers. By the time one crop is harvested it is time to begin worrying about the next one. If so many of us weren't too lazy to climb there wouldn't be so much room at the top. There's one fellow who gets used to having his hopes blasted. He's the quarryman.

Maybe the Bulgarians won't be able to attend church in Constantinople Sunday after all.

Ever hear a good housekeeper say what she thinks about the way a janitor does his work

For the first time in sixteen years the Democrats presented an unbroken front. You see the result.

Governor Wilson takes success modestly and that's a pretty good indica-

The fellow who can't enjoy a laugh either with or at the efforts of the comedian should stay away from the Colonel Roosevelt can have the consolation of knowing that he wrecked the party that made him-if that's any consolation. Procrastination is the thief of a good many things besides time, one of which is likely to be the patience of the other fellow.

Of course there would have to be a disagreement among the powers regarding the near eastern question. They are too suspicious of one another.

Man of seventy-five and another, sitxy-two, outwalked their pacemaker, aged twenty-four, on a twenty-five mile journey. At that age years travel fast, anyhow.

"Why, that coat doesn't fit a bit; it's all waves up and down your back.

"That is what I told the tailor, but he said you had to expect that because it was a serge suit."

The Little Angel, a new aeroplane, was christened yesterday at the army aviation field at College Park, Md., with all the pomp and circumstance attending the baptism of a battleship. -Despatch from Washington.

The name is very suggestive of the mishaps that are likely to happen such a small and fragile aeroplane as the Little Angel is said to be .- New York
