

THE FOOD ARMY WANT FOOD PLEDGES

What Food Conservation Means To Annapolis.

THIS IS "FOOD WEEK."

Solicitors of the Woman's Council of Defense Are Meeting With Success in Campaign Here.

Interest of the citizens of Annapolis and Anne Arundel County has been aroused in the work of the National War Work Council of the Young Men's Christian Association, in connection with the work of the soldiers who are in military training at Camp Meade.

Meetings have been held in the city recently and another is planned for Friday. A preliminary organization has been effected here, and it is planned to extend the work to the county seats of the several counties in Southern Maryland.

The real object of the meetings is to stir up enthusiasm among the people of the community to raise $35,000,000 in a campaign that is to be conducted during November. The funds will be used to carry on the Y. M. C. A. work among the soldiers and sailors who answered the call to the colors and are now doing duty in this country, and the thousands of others who are serving across the seas.

Mr. T. E. Stacy is the director of the work in this district, and he presided over the meetings that have been held in Annapolis during the past week. A preliminary organization has been effected by the election of City Postmaster Thomas J. Linthicum as treasurer of the District Committee. Permanent officers are to be chosen at a meeting to be held at the Maryland Hotel Friday night.

Among the local people who have interested themselves in the campaign are Judge Robert Moss, Postmaster Linthicum, Commodore J. E. Craven of the Navy (retired), Dr. Thomas Fell, President of St. John's College; William B. Gardner, Dr. George T. Feldmeyer, George T. Melvin, William G. Brewer, Samuel Jones, Rev. H. Wilson Burgan, Rev. Edward D. Johnson, E. T. Griffin, Joseph M. Armstrong.

At one of the recent meetings Mr. H. O. Williams, of New York, who is State Director of the movement for Maryland, spoke from the viewpoint of the country-wide magnitude and general scope of the work of the Council. The Rev. F. C. Freeman, Director of the Eastern Shore District, told his audience of what had been accomplished, and following him, the Rev. E. D. Maurer, War Stock Secretary at Camp Meade, also spoke. The latter is pastor of the largest Congregational Church in New Haven, Conn., and his congregation recently released him from his work among them in order that he might lend his assistance in the War Council Campaign. He spoke feelingly of the work of the Y. M. C. A. at Camp Meade.

Certain it is that if the women of Anne Arundel County and Annapolis do not join those of other sections of the country in trying not to be wasteful of these staples, the government eventually will be compelled to take charge of the sale and limit the amount the consumer may buy in any one week. To prevent such a situation arising, is the whole motive of the present campaign.

Permanent District Committee To Be Organized Here.

T. E. STACEY IS DIRECTOR

Campaign To Raise Funds For Work Among Soldiers And Sailors During War Period.

DR. WINTERSON BURIED ON FAMILY ESTATE IN COUNTY

Funeral Of Prominent Physician Held From His Late Residence Yesterday Afternoon.

Funeral services over the remains of the late Dr. Charles R. Winterson, for many years a prominent citizen and medical practitioner of the county, who died at his residence near Shipley's Station, in the upper part of the county on Sunday, took place from his late residence at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon and interment was made in the burial ground on the family estate. The services, which were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Castleman, former pastor of Grace Church, at Elkridge, Howard County, now of Grace Church, Virginia, were largely attended by relatives and friends of the deceased.

Dr. Winterson was the President and had long been a member of the Anne Arundel Medical Society. A special meeting of that organization was held here yesterday and resolutions expressing regret over the death of Dr. Winterson, and extending condolences to the bereaved members of the family were adopted. A copy of the resolutions will be forwarded to the family. Surviving Dr. Winter was a widow and five children, as follows: George C. Winterson, of the county; Mrs. Charles DeWitt Smith, of Boundbrook, N. J.; Mrs. Rupert Stubbs, of Delta, Pa.; Mrs. Hamilton Smith, of Arnold's Station, this county, and C. Richey Winterson, Jr., of Annapolis.

EXTRA TAXES TOMORROW NOV. 1

Uncle Sam Makes No 'Mystery' Of How He Will Refund Loans.

PEOPLE TO PAY WAR BILL.

Every American, Young and Old, Will Bear Part of Nation's Financial Burden.

Your Uncle Sam is making no mystery of how and wherefore he is going to get funds to run this war, and pay back all he has borrowed through the two Liberty Loans, and the several more that are yet to come.

People who have been wondering where Uncle Sam is going to get all this money to pay the interest, not to mention the principal, will know all about it tomorrow, when they begin to help raise it.

The butcher, the baker, the candlestick-maker will all be taxed, and then some.

Everybody is to be taxed. Everybody is to help pay for this war. Everybody—the merchant who thinks and spends in millions and the youngster who hands in at the movie show the dime a week his dad gives him on pay day—is going to be called on to "fork up" for the war bill beginning bright and early tomorrow morning.

At work or at play, performing necessary duties or participating in pleasures, some sort of a tax is bound to "edge in" as the most pointed sort of a reminder that the folks back home can't enjoy undisturbed the benefits which the boys in the trenches are fighting and dying to preserve for them. Pleasures, particularly, are going to run up against the tax collector.

Uncle Sam, of course, trusting in the patriotism of his nieces and nephews, believes everyone is going to pay the taxes cheerfully, because they are necessary to win the war. But he has made provision for the money slackers, and his agents have been instructed to deal severely with all who try to evade the provisions of the tax laws.

Tax On Incomes.

In the first place every single person who has an income of more than $1,000 a year has to make provision for the payment of a tax upon that income. This is going to hit a great deal larger number of people now, with war time wages prevailing, than it would have hit had the law been passed a couple of years ago.

Then, the folks who go to the theatres, to the moving picture shows, to concerts, to all sorts of public entertainments and amusements, have to take an extra dime or an extra quarter along with them. The tax law provides after tomorrow for a tax of 1 cent for every 10 cents charged for the seat. Therefore, a 10-cent moving picture ticket is going to cost 11 cents and a $2 orchestra seat is going to cost 20 cents additional. Admission to cabarets is included in this tax.

Travelers are going to be hit hard. For every ticket purchased for a railway journey costing more than 25 cents there is to be added a tax of 8 per cent. The chap who travels to the Laurel race track next year has to keep an extra 8 cents on hand when he comes out his money to play on the ponies or he will have to tread the merry ties back home. The man who pays $5.55 for his ticket to New York today will find that he will have to dig up $6.11 for the return trip. Mileage books, purchased before tomorrow, will not evade the tax, as conductors are instructed to collect the extra 8 per cent on all such transportation.

Tobacco users have been paying the extra pennies for a month, so the tax feature which hits the smokers will not come as anything new.

More For Bats And Balls.

Sporting goods of all kinds are taxed 3 per cent. Future stars, playing on the back lots next spring will have to sell more raffle tickets than usual if they hope to purchase all the bats and balls and gloves life need. The sporting goods house, like every other kind of a business house, is going to add the 3 per cent on to the bill which the ultimate consumer receives.

Graded taxes, reaching into big percentages in the cases of large amounts, will be imposed on all estates which are settled up after tomorrow; so the expectant beneficiaries would do well to stop and figure out how much of the fortunes coming to them will have to go to the government, before they start buying, in anticipation.

The following are some of the other persons who will feel the tax: All corporations, joint stock companies and associations.

All distillers, rectifiers, wholesalers and retailers, holders of distilled spirits intended for sale or to be used for manufacturing purposes.

All dealers in fermented liquors or malt liquors, wines, cordials, liquors, domestic and imported.

All dealers in soft drinks, table waters and carbonic acid gas.

All carriers of freight, express or passengers, and all operators of pipe lines.

All dealers in life, marine, inland, fire and casualty insurance.

FIRE THOUGHT TO BE WORK OF INCENDIARY

Waterfront Blaze In Baltimore Does Damage In Millions.

B. & O. SUFFERS BIG LOSS

Munitions And Grain Destroyed At Elevator Piers—British Ship Badly Damaged.

With a rapidity that is hardly conceivable, fire believed to have been of incendiary origin shortly after 11 o'clock last night on Locust Point swept through the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Pier No. 9, formerly known as the North German Lloyd pier, then leaped 200 yards across a small slip to Pier 8, partially destroyed this, and then set fire to the British steamship Kerry Range, which arrived yesterday morning to load munitions for the Allies.

In its great sweep, the flames devoured vast quantities of munitions intended for the men in France. Some of this, it is believed, was intended for the United States expeditionary forces there.

Damage to the piers alone is estimated at $1,400,000, while the munitions stored on them, is said to be worth at the very least an equal sum.

The damage to the Kerry Range, owned by the Johnston Line, which was lying beside Pier 8, of the Furness-Withy Co., Ltd. of London, and which is the only American terminal, will run into several hundred thousand dollars. She is so badly damaged that it will take months to repair her.

A two-story building, occupied by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad's firemen, was also destroyed. J. M. Davis, vice-president of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, who was early on the scene, went over the ground and later issued a statement declaring that the fire could not have been caused except by design. He added that it was started at the harbor end of the pier, and the fire bug probably made his escape by a small boat. The Baltimore and Ohio police force guarding the piers, he declared, had been tried and proved their loyalty. Government Secret Service men, who were early on the scene, concurred in this opinion and are conducting a "rigid investigation."

Resorted To Dynamite.

So intense was the fire and so threatening was it to other property that the Baltimore Fire Department was compelled to resort to dynamite to raze the walls of Pier 9 in hopes of checking the blaze. This helped to some extent, but the fire had gained such a headway that the fire fighters were compelled to turn their attention to saving adjoining property and preventing the blaze from spreading.

LAUREL RACE TRACK

Gives $5,000 To Red Cross Of Anne Arundel County.

Col. Matt Winn, manager of the Laurel race track, stated yesterday that the $5,000 Liberty Bond the Maryland State Fair Association purchased on Saturday was presented yesterday to the Red Cross Society of Anne Arundel County. The Association also bought a $50,000 Bond.

Up to 3 o'clock this afternoon the Treasurer of the Anne Arundel County Branch of the Red Cross, Mr. Charles F. Lee, had not received the check, nor had it come into the hands of the County Chairman of the Red Cross, Mr. Ridgely P. Melvin, up to noon today.

"Corporal" Owens Out Again

Mr. James W. Owens, lawyer, and well known citizen of Annapolis, who has been incapacitated by illness for the last two weeks, was able to be about today. He visited his office and the Court House in order to attend to several urgent legal matters.

Owens suffered a slight stroke of paralysis which, complicated with other derangements, necessitated his removal to the Emergency Hospital. He was a patient there for several days and part of the time he was in a delirious condition. Later he was removed to his home on King George street, and had been confined to his room until today. Mr. Owens was warmly greeted by his friends, who wished him an early restoration to health.

Chewing Gum Included.

All manufacturers and wholesale dealers in motor vehicles of every kind, musical instruments, motion picture films, jewelry, boats, perfumes, cosmetics, medicinal preparations, chewing gum and cameras.

All persons executing legal documents of any type.

All traders on produce or stock exchanges and boards of trade.

All importers of merchandise.

All manufacturers or importers of playing cards.

Tomorrow it is expected that all persons, firms and corporations subject to the new taxes will have made their returns to the Internal Revenue Collector. These returns are now swamping the force at the local Custom House, much time being taken up by the thousands of inquiries which are pouring in from all sections of this Internal Revenue collection district.

CHRISTMAS PACKETS FOR THE SOLDIERS

Suggestions How To Send Gifts To Our Men.

AT HOME AND ABROAD

American Red Cross Woman's Bureau Issues Bulletin On The Subject.

By Christmas we shall have a large number of men in France, and 600,000 in the cantonments at home, beside the thousands in our regular army posts and in our navy, and everyone will be eager to help in giving them Christmas cheer.

No matter how generous a supply of gifts some of the men may receive from families and friends, it is believed that all Red Cross members will want to unite in sending to each man a Christmas packet filled with good things and good will.

In order that the men may be equally remembered and yet that there may be a pleasing variety in the packets, the following suggestions are made for preparing and assembling the Christmas parcels:

Nothing should go in them which will not keep fresh from the time of packing until Christmas.

Dried fruits and other food products should be packed in small tin or wooden boxes, one-quarter to one-half pound size.

Hard candy, including chocolate, would probably be safe in tin foil or heavy cardboard, but no soft chocolates nor anything that could possibly be crushed should be used, as the remaining contents of the package might be spoiled thereby.

Several dainties packed in oblong tin boxes holding each a quarter of a pound, will provide a better variety for a packet than a larger quantity of a single confection.

No liquids nor articles packed in glass should be placed in the package.

For wrapping the gifts use a khaki-colored handkerchief, twenty-seven inches square, and form the base of the packet by placing on the center of the handkerchief a pad of writing paper about seven by ten inches.

Select a variety of articles either from the suggested list (or according to individual wishes) to an amount not exceeding $1.50, and arrange them on the pad of paper so that the entire package shall be the width of the pad and approximately five or six inches high.

Wrap and tie with one-inch red ribbon and place a Christmas card under the bow of ribbon. A card bearing the greetings would be desirable.

Wrap the parcel again in heavy, light-brown Manila paper, tie securely with red, green, or gilt cord, and use Christmas labels or American flags as desired.

Articles Suggested.

Khaki-colored handkerchief, 27 inches square, for container; writing pad, about 7 by 10 inches; envelopes, pencil, postals, book (in paper cover), scrapbook (home-made, containing a good short story, some jokes, etc.), knife, such as Boy Scouts use, steel mirror, khaki-colored handkerchiefs, neckties, mouth organ, electric torch, compass, playing cards, mechanical puzzles, Red Cross checkerboard (this is a combination set of checkerboard, checkers, chessmen, and dominoes made of heavy cardboard, especially for the Red Cross, and can be purchased for 5 cents apiece), tobacco, pipe and pipe cleaners, cigarette papers, water-tight matchbox, chewing gum, fruit cake, preserved ginger, salted nuts, prunes, figs, dates, raisins, hard candy, chocolate in tin foil, licorice.

This is published early that those interested may be gathering funds for the packets and assembling the small articles to go in them.

The Annapolis and Anne Arundel County Chapter of the Red Cross is preparing to carry out the foregoing plans and directions, just received from the Manager of the Potomac Division in regard to the Christmas packets for the men at home and abroad.

Mrs. Frank A. Munroe, Director of the Working Committee of the Red Cross, has started the work, and Mrs. Cook will, after tomorrow, have charge of minor details.

It is expected at Division Headquarters that the Chapter will raise the necessary funds through contributions by individuals.

The work must be accomplished in the ten days allotted. Money for the Christmas packets will be raised through contributions by individuals for this special purpose.

ADD PKGS.

FEED WIRES FOR THE NEW RADIO STATION

County Commissioners Give Permission To Use Highways

CURRENT FROM W., B. & A.

Voltage Of 6,600 Is Needed Energy For The Operation Of Big Plant On Greenberry Point.

The last link in paving the way for the construction of the high power radio station for the United States Government on a site at Greenberry Point, across Severn river from the city, was forged yesterday by the action of the County Commissioners in granting the request of the government authorities to permit the Washington, Baltimore and Annapolis Electric Railways Company to go ahead with the work of stringing the feed-power lines from its sub-station in this city to and over the State and county highways and through private lands to the site of the proposed plant. The request for this permission came from the Bureau of Yards and Docks of the Navy Department, through a letter from Assistant Civil Engineer H. G. Taylor, of the Navy, who will have charge of the work.

The government officials had perfected arrangements with the Electric line to supply the electric energy necessary for the new station. The work to be done will consist of a pole line that will carry a voltage of 6,600 from the sub-station of the Railway Company in this city to the plant of the radio station.

This new wireless station, it is understood, will be of as high power as any in the world, equaling, if not exceeding, that of the big government station at Arlington, near Washington. Preliminary work in connection with its construction is already under way.

The granting of permission for this work was the principal item of business that came before the County Commissioners at their regular weekly meeting on Tuesday.

Among other business was the adoption of an order directing County Engineer Hayman and Counselor Melvin to take up with officials of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, the matter of correcting the trouble in connection with the drainage under the railroad company's tracks at Stone House Cove, in the upper section of the county.

The Board received a letter of thanks from the committee that had charge of the recent Home Demonstration held at Lothian, in the Eighth District, for the appropriation of $50 which the county made to award to the prize winners in the canning contest. The letter was signed by Rev. Mr. Martin, Miss Mildred Brady, the County Demonstrator; Mrs. Johnson and Miss Keller. A feature of the recent meeting and demonstration was an address by the Rev. Sydney K. Evans, Chaplain of the Naval Academy.

than had been anticipated, the Potomac Division is expected to furnish eighty-seven thousand Christmas packets instead of fifty thousand. Headquarters desires immediate information as to how soon we can furnish that number. In order to answer I must know promptly the amount each Chapter can supply. Please telegraph me immediately the largest possible number I may expect from your Chapter and when they will be shipped to the division warehouse.

"HENRY WHITE."

The Annapolis and Anne Arundel County Chapter of the American National Red Cross hereby appeals urgently to all citizens of this city and county to raise funds for the purchase of Christmas gifts for American soldiers and sailors, and to help the working committee to pack these gifts.

Please confer with the Director of the Working Committee, Mrs. Frank A. Munroe, Franklin street and Southgate avenue, or with the Chairman of the Committee on Christmas Packets, Mrs. A. B. Cook, 43 Franklin street. Donations, by cash or check should be sent to the Treasurer of the Chapter, Mr. Charles F. Lee, Church Circle.

SECOND MURDER CASE REMOVED FROM CO.

That of Frank Kowalewski To Be Tried in Carroll.

DEFENSE ASKED FOR CHANGE

And Judges Moss and Forsythe Promptly Ruled on Petition and Affidavit.

Another murder case has been removed from the precincts of Anne Arundel county for trial.

Following the transfer of the case against John Snowden to the Circuit Court for Baltimore county yesterday, that of Frank Kowalewski, also known as Smith, indicted for the killing of Abraham Edelstein, a wealthy Baltimore county cattle dealer at Clarke's Station in the Fourth district on the Night of September 8 last, was ordered removed today to the Circuit Court for Carroll county at Westminster, under a motion for a change of venue which was filed by the attorneys for the defense. For two such cases to be removed from this county in as many days is regarded as rather unusual in the proceedings of the local Circuit Court.

It was known in advance that a change of venue would be asked in behalf of Kowalewski, and the petition asking for the removal stated the usual grounds, that for the ends of justice to be met, the defense felt that a fair and impartial trial could not be had in this county. Ridgely P. Melvin, of Annapolis, and William H. Lawrence, of Baltimore, are the attorneys for Kowalewski. State Attorney Green and the defense's counsel had entered into an agreement that it be taken to Carroll county. When the case was called immediately after the convening of Court this morning, Mr. Melvin presented a petition and affidavit for the change of venue, and the Court promptly granted the request. It is expected the case will be brought to trial at an early date.

Kowalewski was arrested a couple of weeks following the night that Edelstein was beaten to death on the Kowalewski farm near Clarke's Station. He was taken into custody near York, Pa., by Baltimore city detectives. He was working with a road gang.
