The Fifteenth amendment legislation which didn't come off at Mound City, last Saturday, on account of the rain, has been fixed for the first Friday in June next.

Beaver brand pure Mohairs, unequalled for lustre, dye and finish, at Cunningham's. He also has the celebrated "Swiss alpacas"—a new importation, if.

The person who borrowed a copy of Gray's Anatomy from Dr. Wardner's office is respectfully requested to return it without unnecessary delay.

It is not so generally known as it ought to be that Tabor Brothers make to order almost any pattern of jewelry wanted. mar902t.

The St. Nicholas Billiard Hall is one of the largest and best furnished in the country. It is the resort of both citizens and strangers who indulge in billiard playing. jan07.

Such of our citizens as are blessed with an abundance of the world's goods, should not forget that an appeal for help is made by the Richmond sufferers. Col. Graham, the postmaster, will forward contributions.

Cunningham offers no bites upon staple goods to attract trade, but will sell them at prices that cannot be legitimately understood. Fair dealing and low prices are what he depends upon for success. tf.

During the past few days great swarms of swallows might have been seen skimming the surface of lake Shannessy, snapping up such insects as were about on the surface of the water.

The Cairo Silver Cornet band will attend the Normal University corner-stone ceremonies, at Carbondale on the 17th instant. A large delegation will be present from Cairo.

Mr. Barney McManus buried another child, yesterday, being the second within a few weeks. Both children were infants, and twins. A large number of friends accompanied the remains to the grave.

What has become of the mosquitoes? Only a few days ago almost everybody had a stinging sense of the presence of a supply greatly in excess of the demand. Now they are as scarce as teardrops in Paducah, or as common as flies in Memphis.

The Rev. Mr. Freeman, late president of the Lincoln college, in this state, was in the city Saturday, in conference with our school directors. He is well advanced in years, but still retains quite an elastic step and considerable physical vigor.

Isaac G. Marks has established a reputation as the noisiest prisoner ever confined in the city calaboose. If the jailer, who lost a night's sleep on account of his incessant shrieking, didn't put him on short allowance in the way of grub, his forbearance is marvelous.

Just received at P. Neff's, No. 79, Ohio Street, a splendid lot of spring Cassimeres, Coatings and Vestings, which will be made up in the most fashionable styles, and at prices to suit the times, a perfect fit guaranteed or no sale.

The ceremony of foot-washing was observed in elder Shores' church yesterday. The ungodly outsiders were permitted to retire. Colored! New-mown hay! Night-blooming cereus! Patchouli! Musk, and "things."

Dogs can enjoy the liberties of the city until June 1st. After that time they will be mercilessly slaughtered unless they bear evidence about them that their owners have paid the price of their freedom. Read what the City Marshal has to say on the subject of dogs, published elsewhere in the present issue.

J. Geo. Steinhouse, formerly of the St. Charles Hotel, has opened a barber shop on the corner of Eighth Street and Commercial avenue, (Perry House) and with skillful assistants is prepared to execute all business incident to the profession in the most scientific manner, and to the full satisfaction of his customers. ap125dlm.

There is great activity in the receiving and forwarding business at this point. Since our last issue there have been received 450 head of hogs and 300 tons of miscellaneous freights by river alone. During the same period there have been shipped by river and rail fully 800 tons. All of which forms a big day's business.

A long-souled, slab-sided white pig frequents the door yards of the residents of Eighteenth street, and feeds almost exclusively on chickens. Although quite a small porker, he seizes upon full grown hens and roosters and demolishes them with ease and the most perfect satisfaction.

He has taxed one family in that neighborhood for eighteen chickens.

A little six-year old boy fell head long into the slip-water in the rear of the BULLETIN office to-day, but was rescued from drowning by his father, who happened to observe him struggling in the water.

When pulled out he regarded the whole affair as a stupendous joke, about the first words he uttered being: "I've been baptized, ain't I?"

A government paymaster or disbursing agent is in the city paying over the bounty money due the colored volunteers of the late war. The amount of bounty paid ranges from 50 cents to $50 to each claimant. One individual who reached Cairo at an expense of four dollars, received one dollar. Canvassing his receipts and expenditures he solemnly declared that the next fuss the white folks kick up must be fought out without his assistance.

Messrs. Miller and Miller have just received an unusually large, well assorted and strictly fashionable supply of piece goods, to which they ask especial attention. The lot embraces the finest cloths and cassimers ever brought to Cairo, and such a variety of styles that all tastes may be accommodated. Suits or garments from these goods are made to order in the best manner and latest style, and at figures that will defy competition. For proof of this they only ask to be put on trial. At all events call around and see the new goods. jan25tf.

The children of the Catholic and German schools were invited to participate in the Silver Cornet band picnic—our information to the contrary notwithstanding. Mr. Bros, one of the committee of arrangements, supplied the teacher of the German school with tickets, and twenty or thirty of the pupils of that school were present. He also called upon the teacher of the Catholic school and tendered tickets, but the teacher being unable to say whether his pupils would be permitted to participate, declined the tender. Mr. B. then requested him to determine the pleasure of the parties interested in the matter, and he would at any time supply all the tickets required, which at all times were held ready for delivery, were not called for, it was reasonably concluded that the school had determined to forego the pleasure of a participation, inasmuch as their own picnic was fixed for the day following.

THE RAILROAD ELECTION.

If it is at all desirable to sanction the subscription by the city of $100,000 to the capital stock of the Junction railroad company, by a full vote, the friends of the proposition should go to work. The BULLETIN will perform its part faithfully and in due season, but other agencies should be set at work. If the matter is placed before the people in the proper light the vote will be large and almost unanimous in favor of the proposition. For instance, the people wish to know in whose or what interest the road, when completed, will be operated; the probabilities of its early construction and the effect of its operation locally and generally. Upon these heads the people would gladly hear Col. Murdoch, president of the Mobile and Ohio railroad, and the presence of that gentleman should be secured.

The proposition has a few enemies, and these are tireless in the dissemination of frightful pictures of taxation—of the fallacy that the Illinois Central and Mobile & Ohio roads must, as a matter of self-preservation, build the Junction railroad, and that, consequently, a subscription of $100,000 by the city will be "money thrown away." We do not apprehend that any considerable number of voters will give ear to these stories, but their fallacy should be exposed; the truth should be made known, and the most effective method for doing this is through public meetings.

We throw out these suggestions now, hoping that in due time the friends of the road will act upon them. Before the day of election we should hold at least two mass meetings—not that they are necessary to secure a majority vote in favor of the proposition, but that a full vote may be called out, and the subscription ordered by a majority that will leave no doubt in the mind of any one as to the sentiment of our people.

GAINTY OF SPRING FABRICS.

Each succeeding month brings forth something new in spring and summer dress goods, the beauty of which would seem to admit of no improvement, yet in every arrival we see something new to admire, something prettier than ever. Fabrics for 1870 are about the same as those worn last year, but are neater and prettier. Piques, marseilles, percales, chintz, figures and stripes, Japanese poplins, etc., are eagerly sought for and make neat and economical suits for spring wear. R. A. Cunningham has a full supply of these goods and is selling them 20 per cent cheaper than last year.

Why is it that his store is so popular among those wishing dress goods? It is because he keeps the assortment and disposes of them at prices which cannot prove otherwise than satisfactory. His store is crowded every day and his goods eagerly sought for. For new and desirable goods go to Cunningham's. tf.

RECREATION DAY.

A meeting of the citizens generally will be held in the vacant store room adjoining the office of Col. Reardon, in Winter's block, on Friday evening, May 13th, 1870, for the purpose of making arrangements for decorating the Soldier's graves in Mound City Cemetery.

All persons who desire to pay tributary honors to our fallen heroes are requested to be present at this meeting. 4t.

BARGAINS! BARGAINS!—A good suit of clothing for ten dollars, at P. Neff's, 79 Ohio Street.

POLICE COURT.

[F. Bros, Esq., P. M. Presiding.]

There was an unusual activity in police circles this forenoon, and it is rather a remarkable fact that most of the parties convicted had the wherewith to meet the demands of the outraged law.

John Greene, a gentleman of color, concluded that a "basting" would do his wife Amanda some good, and proceeded to administer it. Amanda's spirit remaining unbroken, John threatened to cut her throat with a razor, and Amanda having no throat to spare jumped out of the window, and sought the protection of the law. Sheehan asked John to come along, and the "squire" asked him for $16.25 which was handed over without a grumble.

James Riley got drunk and Gossman got Riley. The result was, that Riley brought up in the calaboose this morning, where he will remain eleven days.

John Lorenz complained that his son August laid violent hands upon him—even dealt him a blow. It is well that there were palliating circumstances in the case, for instance, that the old man closed his grinders upon August's finger—otherwise the young man would have suffered the extreme penalty of the law. The fine and costs amounted to $16.65. Paid.

Cain and Powers took a walk with one W. C. G. Starkey and brought up in the police court. Starkey told a story about getting tight, and concluded the joke by handing the "squire" $5.75—two dollars of which, belongs to the city.

Charles Lee, either ignorantly or willfully, sold goods in the corporation without a license. When charged with the offense, he pled guilty, and was let off on the payment of $10 and costs—the whole amounting to about $17, or twice as much as his license would have cost.

Isaac Marks saturated himself with whiskey, and got out of humor about it or something else, and evicted around in a manner awfully violative of the peace and dignity of the municipality. Cain told him that "squire" Bros would like to see him, but didn't intimate that the "squire" charges such chaps $10 a sight, for and in behalf of the city, and $7.25 as spending money for the police force. Marks paid the $17.25, but swore he'd "see the court again" for it, and he did.

And now, according to promise again comes Isaac Marks—this time to answer the grave charge of disturbing the peace. But instead of answering, Isaac continued to disturb the peace. He yelled, yahoed; shrieked and bellowed. To be plain, Isaac was noisy and drunk; and not the least awed by the august presence of the police court he cursed and swore and raved and tore, like the mad man that he was. The "squire" unwilling to restrain the vocal efforts of Mr. Marks sent him over to serenade jailer McHale.

DOYLE'S BODY FOUND.

We referred, last Thursday, to the drowning of a man by the name of Doyle, from the Cairo and Paducah packet, Petrolia, Capt. John W. Trover. The unfortunate man fell overboard Tuesday night, at a point known as the Grand Chain, about twenty miles above Cairo. Suffering somewhat from the effects of liquor, one of the hands of the boat prepared a place for him to lie down. When, a few minutes afterwards, the hand passed around to see how his charge was faring, he could find no trace of him. He had walked or fallen overboard, and without a single cry for help, that was heard, sank to his no more.

Early yesterday morning the body was found in the river opposite the round house, and brought to the shore. Coroner Corcoran was immediately notified, and convened a jury, naming Mr. C. Kelly as foreman. The verdict was that deceased came to his death by drowning by means unknown to the jury. The body was then taken in charge by Mr. Arthur Boyle, deceased's brother, and given decent burial.

KENTUCKY'S LATENT AND BEST.

Whatever emanates from this old commonwealth were wont to look upon as the real "Simon pure" and genuine article of the class represented. In fact, we may say with emphasis, that Kentucky is not a healthy soil for the growth of humbugs. The best thing now offered to our citizens from this State is the "Great Henderson Co., Prize Scheme," and we believe they will show their wisdom by investing freely in tickets. Read the Advertisement found in another column of our paper closely, and investigate the whole thoroughly, and learn how completely the facts bear out the statement. The Editor of this paper will take pleasure in ordering tickets for such of his friends as may wish it. mldawlv.

THE ATHENEUM WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

The Young Men's Dramatic association will give an entertainment in the Athenaeum on Wednesday evening. The character of the entertainment is indicated in their advertisement, which will be found in another column.

The young men deserve a full house. They have prepared a programme that will scarcely fail to please, and are a strictly home organization. They incurred considerable expense in giving benefits to the Orphan Asylum, and now that they propose to reimburse themselves, our citizens should remember them. Read their announcement, and lay aside fifty cents with which, on Wednesday evening, to buy a ticket.

CARPETS! CARPETS! CARPETS!

R. H. Cunningham has carpeted a department to his establishment in which he exhibits all the new designs in Brussels, Ingrains, oil cloths, rugs, etc., which he offers at prices which will insure their sale. tf.

JEALOUSY, BLOOD AND BRUISES.

Persons who passed the corner of Walnut and Sixteenth street, about 12 o'clock on yesterday, might have heard a married colored man inform another colored individual that he was not at all pleased with the attentions he bestowed upon his wife. The same persons might have heard the second individual declare that he didn't care a snap, or words to that effect, and was ready to take the consequences. A half hour later the same brace of darkies were seen wending their way toward the Mississippi levee, and still later they were seen coming home, both of them, bruised and bloody. They had fought it out, and were satisfied.

THE GREAT SPRING REMEDY.

In the spring of the year, nature demands an assistant in driving out the morbid substance collected in the blood, which is sure to generate bilious complaints and derange the entire human system. The only remedy adequately effectual in cases of this character is MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS, which thoroughly purifies the blood, corrects all the irregularities of the system, re-invigorates the general constitution, and produces perfect health and good spirits where now is general debility, nervousness, etc. For all diseases arising from impurities of the blood, MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS is pronounced by the highest medical authorities the most certain, speedy, and agreeable remedy extant. Thousands have tested its efficacy, and declare it is the greatest assistant of nature in her conflict with disease, that the light of science has ever brought to our knowledge. Sold by all druggists and dealers. Dr. S. B. Hartman & Co., Proprietors, Lancaster, Pa. mldc04wlv.
