WE see by our exchanges that tickets to the grand gift festival at Omaha are being rapidly taken. It seldom happens when one has an honest chance to win a fortune in a legal enterprise, like the one in aid of a public library at Omaha.

A HAPPY FAMILY.—We have often heard the remark that if you want good sweet bread in the family, you must have a good natured and even tempered cook to make it.

BREVITIES.

Judge Marchildon, of Thebes, was in the city yesterday.

The Cairo box and basket factory is in full tide of operation. Its capacity is 50,000 to 60,000 boxes daily.

Ladies' Serge (Polish) shoes French Kid, foxed, at City Shoe Store, corner of Commercial avenue and Eighth street.

The religious furor among the colored people continues. There will be quite a number of immersions next Sunday.

Gents' Oxford Ties, Prince Alberts and Opera Slippers, at the "City Shoe Store," corner of Commercial avenue and Eighth street.

The funeral train that passed along Washington avenue yesterday afternoon, was that of Mat Price's wife. Price is a colored man who keeps a family grocery on Cedar street.

See advertisement of Dr. Butts' Dispensary, headed Books for the Million—Marriage Guide—in another column. It should be read by all.

Two colored blades, named Wade Hampton and Steve Bradley, were each fined $5 and costs, yesterday, for fast driving along one of our principal thoroughfares. The fines were paid.

The organization of a regular prize fight, between two down-town roughs, was prevented by the police yesterday evening. The affair created a perfect whirl of excitement for a time.

Mr. Matthew Clark is an applicant for a position in the city police force. Mr. Clark's friends urge his claims on the ground that he is capable, industrious and scrupulously honest.

Musquitoes were again troublesome, yesterday, in some parts of the city. The reflection, however, that the pestiferous insects were "taking" Paducah was rather consoling.

A floating circus, on a small scale, is being organized in Mound City. It would be strange indeed if anything of that kind should be gotten up in Egypt without the assistance of Perry Powers.

Bring your Goodby's, Ballous' or any other magazines or periodicals you may have lying around loose, to the BULLETIN Bindery, and have them neatly and securely bound. The cost will be only a trifle.

There is an increasing inquiry for dwelling houses in Cairo. Some of our heavy manufacturing firms propose to erect a number of tenement houses, we understand, for the occupancy of their employes.

The Villa Ridge Horticultural Society has determined, we understand, that neither prayer, benzine, nor swearing will destroy the curculio. Orchardists will, therefore, be compelled to resort to some other means.

Yesterday was a pleasant day for outdoor business operations, but there were very few operations to be out. There was, in fact, an unusual quiet in business circles.

We were sorry to learn that all efforts to find the body of little Carl Thomas have proved ineffectual. Twenty-four little fellows fell into the river, with the hope of raising his body.

Belle Taylor, a colored female of a most vicious nature, was arrested, yesterday, for using abusive and threatening language. The fine was $10 and costs, to pay which she will submit on calaboose fare until the 2nd day of June next.

There was quite a suture among the demireps yesterday. Cain and Sheehan devoted a portion of the day to bringing them to their periodical account for their transgressions. Quite a number of them were fined. The raid is not yet ended.

Haley, charged with the murder of Harrington, in the streets of Metropolis, a short time ago, and Grasshopper Sam, whose fame and deeds are familiar to our readers, will be tried in the Pulaski circuit court during the present session.

It is expected that Gen. Logan will be the orator of the day, at Mound City, on Decoration Day, viz.: May 30th. An invitation is extended to everybody to be present and participate in this annual tribute to the memory of the country's dead heroes.

Alf Burnett had a good house last night and delighted everybody. His "lightning transformations" were most wonderful, and his entertainment generally of the most amusing and refreshing character. He will make his last appearance this evening.

Judge Wm. A. Lemma, a simon pure Democrat, was elected to the office of school trustee, in the Radical town of Carbondale a few days since. He was brought out just one hour and forty minutes before the closing of the polls, and beat his strongest Radical competitor seventeen votes.

Dr. Brigham effected a purchase of the Harsh farm at Villa Ridge, a few days ago. The price paid was $2,500. The farm is one of the most desirable in that locality, and will, this year, produce $1,000 worth of patches. Dr. Brigham purchased the place as a homestead for his father.

At an Episcopal fair, held in Mound City, last week, a gold ring was awarded by ballot to the handsomest young lady in attendance. The contest was between Miss Annie Fair, of Mound City, and Miss Thatcher, of Columbus. One thousand and thirty ten cent votes were polled, a small majority was cast for Miss Thatcher. The ring netted the church $103.

Eichoff & Bro's new furniture factory is enclosed and roofed, and nearly ready to receive the machinery. It is thought by the 1st of June the new establishment will be ready to go into operation.

The subject of a wagon road to the Cairo cemetery is being agitated. A "narrow path" will do, as only now and then a traveler will use it; but it should be provided nevertheless. The expense attending the conveyance of bodies thither by rail is beyond the reach of poor people.

The colored girl who, in a paroxysm of religious excitement, fell over a bench last Sunday, and broke three of her ribs, declares that she sustained the injury while "fighting the devil." If she speaks the truth, the fact is quite apparent that the "old boy" is "too many for her." The next time, he may break her neck.

The proceeds of a donation party gotten up in Mound City, the other day, for the benefit of the Rev. Mr. Van Treas, amounted to upwards of $200. Mr. V. T. is well known in Cairo, as a kind-hearted amiable gentleman, and as deserving of all the favors our Mound City neighbors may feel disposed to bestow upon.

The ever-bearing strawberry, the plants of which sold for $3.00 per dozen last year, are pronounced a failure in Southern Illinois, when compared with the Wilson and Agriculturalist. They are inferior alike in size, appearance and flavor. It is alleged, however, that the size can be regulated in a great measure by cultivation.

The "country press" are unanimously of the opinion that "Dan Rice's Greatest Show on Earth," now traveling in the West, is the most consummate humbug extant. The members of the troupe are denounced as a strolling band of loafers and dead-beats. It is a well-known fact that Dan Rice never did proprietor any other than a "one horse circus."

An old colored woman who claims that she is the "seventh daughter of the seventh son" and was born under the influence of the seventh moon—informs us that on the 1st day of June a drought will commence that will not end until the middle of August. She therefore admonishes her friends to husband their cistern water, and hurry up the crops, as fast as possible.

To-morrow evening is the time fixed upon by the ladies of the Episcopal church, for their strawberry supper and festival. Thornton's large new building, which presents a hall 25 by 100 feet, is the place. The entertainment will prove a delightful one; the strawberries, cream, etc., delicious, and the welcome of the lady managers broad enough and cordial enough for everybody. Therefore, go.

The examination of Prof. Wirsching's (the German) school will commence this morning, and not this afternoon, as stated yesterday. The pupils will undergo a thorough examination in the branches they have been studying, and those who know the Professor can testify that he practices no delusions. The actual proficiency of every pupil will be put to the test. Parents of the children and friends of the school are invited to attend.

Madam Ferris, the "medium" gravely informed her audience here, that money had nothing to do with her coming to Cairo. She visited this city simply to please the people of Memphis. It was observed, however, that the madam never failed to exact a dollar from each male member of her audience. We are fully persuaded that a little light on her dark scene, would divest them of much of their mystery, and, most likely, rob the madam of her occupation.

If we could foretell the base ball accidents that the usual devotion to the game in Cairo, will insure, quite a number of our now enthusiastic base ballists would "beg to be excused." Already an arm and a finger have been broken; a knee-cap crushed; several eyes have been blackened, and, yesterday, a little shaver narrowly escaped scalping. The bat slipped from the hand of a young man who was batting for practice, and striking the little lad on the back of the head, knocked him, for the time, senseless. Nevertheless it's "a noble game."

"A man of sin" is amazed at the diversity of opinions and creeds prevailing among christians, who claim to found their faith on the Bible. This wretched man remarked to the editor of a neighboring journal, recently: "I attended two church festivals last night. At one, the crowd was singing hymns and praying; at the other they were fiddling and dancing. I can't understand it—hang me if I can; for you see in both cases—" But the newspaper man would hear no more. He turned sorrowfully away, marveling that the sinful man did not know that "where reason ends, God begins!"

Mr. Davis, who came down from the mouth of Cach, yesterday, informed us that about four miles above town he heard the whining of a dog, but for sometime was unable to determine from whence the sounds proceeded. Continuing his search a few minutes, he discovered that some heartless wretch had chucked up a dog in the hollow of a log lying near the river bank, and left him there to starve. The poor creature had evidently been imprisoned a week or ten days, as he was so weak from starvation, as to be scarcely able to walk. The less than man, and worse than beast, guilty of such cruelty, should now be lognaized for the starved dog to fatten on.

THE TRICKS OF TRADE.

The effort on the part of some of our hucksters to secure the "first pick" from the vegetable wagons coming into our city, often gives rise to very spirited contention. About three o'clock yesterday morning an enterprising member of that class of traders posted himself on the sidewalk about a half mile above the court house, with a view of "way-laying" a load of green peas that were expected to arrive in town about daybreak. He felt quite sure of his prize, and felicitated himself on the advantage it would give him in the trade of the early morning. While waiting on the sidewalk and congratulating himself on his promised success, a rival huckster was stealing by him, underneath the sidewalk, determined to gobble the same batch of peas. The "dodge" was a good one, but not quite successful. No. 2 finally stole beyond the eye and ear-shot of his rival, and emerged from his cover. Thinking it possible that a third huckster was still beyond him, he made up his mind, as Bots once did, "to head 'em or die," and actually visited the garden from whence the supply was expected. Finding a couple of bushels of the coveted vegetable already gathered, he dumped them into a wheel barrow which he found at hand, and actually wheeled the load, a distance of two miles, to his place of business, in the city. This he thought "sharp," though somewhat laborious "practice," and it was; but the result scarcely justified the effort, since, on his return, he found his competitor "up to his eyes" in peas, and measuring them out by pecks and half bushels to a perfect crowd of customers, and manifestly ignorant of the effort that had been put forth to "head him."

While No. 2 was under the sidewalk the market wagon passed him, and with its entire contents, fell into the hands of his enterprising competitor.

THAT CALICO BALL.—Arrangements are maturing for a "calico hop" in the St. Charles hotel, on Monday evening, next, that will eclipse all re-unions of that kind ever held in Southern Illinois. Gentlemen have the affair in hand who are au fait managers, and are putting forth their best exertions to bring about the result we have predicted. Cairo is somewhat noted for the uniform success and brilliancy of her social re-unions, but, to borrow a phrase from an eloquent divine of the city, we shall expect the hop of Monday to "clap the climate of all former successors in that line of intrusting amusements." The members of the Committee of Arrangements will be distinguished by badges of blue ribbon; Reception Committee by red ribbon; Supper Committee by purple ribbon; Floor Managers by white ribbons. Gentlemen from Mound City and Charleston, as well as from Cairo, have been selected as committeemen, and will doubtless be present to assist in the management.

THE CUSTOM HOUSE GROUNDS.—Seven thousand cubic yards of earth are yet to be placed on the grounds of the new custom house. The job will be let to the lowest and best bidder, and since we have the men and teams in Cairo that need the work, we hope the best and lowest bidder will be a Cairoite. The work must be performed under the direction of the custom-house superintendent and be completed on or before the 1st day of November, 1871.

We publish a notice in another column over the signature of G. H. Sease, inviting sealed proposals, and furnishing all needed information. Read it.

MRS. FERRIS.—We have been informed that Mrs. Ferris' masculine mediumistic assistant proposes to utterly "wipe out" any individual who shall dare to throw light upon or into her dark scenes. The madam's mortal fear of light is evidence, almost conclusive, that her "manifestations" are simply trickery that is liable to be exposed at any time by the flash of a dark lantern. The little wonder she excited by her first seance here, has been turned into disgust by the subsequent ones.

Since madame Ferris exacts pay for an entertainment that is neither literary, charitable nor religious, why is it she is not compelled to take out license? We again ask the attention of the police to the matter.

A CARD.—We, the undersigned, passengers on Capt. Dexter's boat, the Quickstep, from Cairo to Mound City, on Friday, May 12, take pleasure in hereby expressing our sincere gratitude to Capt. D. and his officers for their kindness to us during our short trip, and take great pleasure in recommending the Quickstep to the traveling public as the boat for comfort and safety.

DEPARTURES. Illinois, Columbus. Jas. Fisk, Jr., Paducah. Talisman, Nashville. R. C. Gray, Arkansas river. Wild Duck, St. Louis. Painter. Glencoe, Louisville. Peytona and bgs, Louisville. Liberty 4, St. Louis. City Alton, St. Louis. Simpson Horner, New Orleans. Gen. Anderson, St. Louis. Little Condor, Memphis. City Chester. Mary Alice, St. Louis. Mary Houston, Louisville.

The Talisman didn't get off as soon as she expected, though her prolonged stay did not add much to her freight.

The weather was exceedingly hot yesterday, with just air and clouds enough to make it bearable. There will certainly be a storm soon.

During the year 1870 there were 4,455 arrivals in steamboats alone, being an average of about twelve boats per day. Can any other river city beat that?

The Mississippi is falling again at St. Louis. The Illinois is declining rapidly and will soon be in a bad condition. The Ohio is falling all the way up, with a feet 10 inches in the channel at Pittsburg, and 13 feet in the chute at Louisville.

The river came to a stand yesterday, and will be on the decline to-day. Large quantities of drift wood have been floating close to the wharf for three days past, much to the annoyance of boats moored at the landing. It is now floating farther out in the stream.

The City of Alton brought 11 hhd sugar, 20 sks salt, 10 sks coffee for Nashville; 180 hhd sugar, 10 bales mott, 100 slabs steel, 200 bbls rosin for Chicago and following for Cairo: R. Smyth, 30 bxs, 1 cask wine; Stockwell, 1 cask wine; Jno. Leemmer, 2 crates cabbage, 10 bbls potatoes.

We have heard it said that the Robt. E. Lee, Katie and Natchez propose to leave New Orleans on the 1st of July all bound to St. Louis, and as the story has been often repeated we almost begin to consider it a fact.

The rumor further states that the stage planks once drawn in at N. O. are to be launched only at St. Louis.

One year from the date of the old race would be a first rate time for such a trial of speed.
