great many outrages in other parts of state, he replied that when in Washington he could hear a great many stories of that kind that were greatly magnified for political effect; that there was less violence in Georgia than in the New England states, New-York, or any where else.

A PUT UP JOB.

The following private dispatch from Yorkville, South Carolina, dated July 24, has been received in Washington: "The sub-committee on southern outrages have arrived here. Yesterday evening at the supper table at the hotel, Hon. J. E. Stevenson, of the committee, and Hon. A. J. Wallace, representative of this district, were assaulted as they took their seats, by Maj. James Barry, a prominent citizen, and a number of militia, who were armed with revolvers. Wallace drew a revolver, but Maj. Barry was surrounded by friends and left the hotel.

At 9 o'clock the committee was serenaded by a negro band and a crowd collected.

As the band was retiring an affray took place in which one negro was shot, receiving three wounds. No arrests have been made."

Supervisor Barker reports to the internal revenue office that in the

FIRST WISCONSIN DISTRICT every tax assessed upon the annual list for 1871, amounting to $72,000 has been collected.

THE WHORTON POISONING CASE.

One of our citizens has received a letter from Mrs. J. G. Whorton, sister-in-law of Mrs. E. T. Whorton, now in jail in Baltimore on a charge of poisoning Gen. Kellogg, and the attempted poisoning of E. Vannors, in which she says: "My dear husband died. I did not know the reason of his death; but after my child's funeral, only a week after, I was taken suddenly ill. At one time I was thought to be dying. I told the doctor I was poisoned the day I was taken sick, and that I suspected she had poisoned my husband and child. I told my brother and all of my husband's family when it occurred, nearly four years ago. I was taken from her house. I never had but one opinion and that was that she poisoned them. I barely escaped with my life. Mrs. H. Whorton owed my husband $2,500, which we, with difficulty, got after his death."

THE COLORED BAPTIST CONVENTION.

Have decided that they have no right to try the Rev. White, colored lutheran preacher. The matter will probably be pushed up.

It has rained nearly all day.

A line of eight miles in the river is reported.

THE WAR IN ARKANSAS.

Serious troubles are reported in Chicot county again, growing out of disputed judgeship. Mason, colored, claims to be regularly elected county Judge. Ragland, white, was appointed to supersede him, but the former refuses to surrender the office. It is reported that on the 17th, Mason marched 400 negroes into town and enforced his orders.

ETC., ETC., ETC.

NEW-YORK, July 24.—A Washington dispatch to the Times says: It is exceedingly probable the change so long looked for in the internal revenue office will be accomplished within a few days, by the removal of Gen. Pleasanton. There is no indication at present as to who will succeed the present commissioner, and it is thought the position may be held open for some time with Deputy Commissioner Douglass as acting commissioner.

One of the unfortunate results of the situation of affairs between the internal revenue office and treasury, has been the resignation of Casely, chief of the revenue law division.

At a meeting of the French section of the INTERNATIONAL WORKMEN'S ASSOCIATION, of this city, was held yesterday, the subject of the recent riot being discussed. Citizens Quillate and Labruyere argued in favor of permitting all sects and parties to parade in the streets; while other citizens made speeches in opposition. Finally resolutions were passed recommending the suppression of all processions, except those which commemorate purely American national events, and censuring the authorities for their course previous to the riot.

A meeting of the Irish confederation was held yesterday and voted to have a lecture at Cooper's institute, by Thomas Clarke Luby, instead of a mass meeting as had been proposed. One of speakers, in the course of his remarks, said: "In this country the Irish were constantly craving for excitement, and unless you called meetings continually and make inflammatory speeches, you could not control them. Two persons wounded in remain at St. Vincent hospital.

The following is a translation of a letter forwarded by

THE COREANS

to Rear Admiral John Rogers, commanding the Asiatic Squadron.

Our country is the furthest east, yours in the furthest west. For what purpose do you come so many thousand miles across the sea?

Is it to inquire about the vessel destroyed?

The General Sherman came here and her men committed piracy and murder, and they were punished with death.

Do you want our land? That cannot be.

Do you want intercourse with us? That cannot be.

"THE GENERAL SHERMAN CLUB"

of the Irish confederation yesterday adopted a series of resolutions characterizing the firing of the militia on the mob on the 12th, as the foulest blot on the civilization of the nineteenth century.

The total loss by the

BURNING OF NELLIE,

off the battery, last night, is one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars. The cause of the fire was the lack of proper ventilation.

The service of commemoration over the engineers, George H. Hill and Frank Kerne, killed in the recent accident on the New-York and New-Jersey railroad was attended by two hundred and fifty engineers at Newark yesterday.

BANK RAIL MATTERS.

The game of base ball at La Crosse, Saturday afternoon, between Knickerbockers and Manhattan clubs for the championship of the United States, was won by the Knickerbockers.

The Mutual base ball club of this city started on a tour last night to be absent until August 5th.

CAVED IN.

A portion of the new tunnel over Seventy and Seventy-first streets caved in yesterday evening, burying the track and seriously injuring two children of 8 and 9 years of age.

The track was obstructed for some time but is now clear.

ROBBERY.

A messenger of the bank of New-York was knocked down on the corner of Broadway and Warren street, Saturday afternoon, and robbed of $1,000 in government bonds. The thieves escaped.

SECRETARY ROBERTSON

visited the Brooklyn navy yard to-day and inspected the steamer Congress. He subsequently returned to Long Branch.

MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS.

PARIS, July 24.—The municipal elections in the city yesterday resulted in the choice of six for the conservatives and forty-nine for the moderate republicans. The vote cast was very small.

The journals are discouraged at the apathy shown by the citizens of Paris. Their absence from voting has reached unprecedented figures. The Louvre National warns the people that a nation which takes no interest in its own affairs is condemned to ruin.

FAVRE'S RESIGNATION.

VERSAILLES, July 24.—It is reported that Favre persists in his resignation because a petition of the Bishop, urging the government to support the temporal power of the pope has been referred to the ministry of Foreign affairs.

ENGLAND.

THE CIVIL LIST.

LONDON, July 24.—In the house of commons, Geo. Dixon, member for Birmingham, wished to know if any reduction in the civil list was possible. Mr. Gladstone replied that he considered that the question arose from a misapprehension of the character of the list, which he said was a solemn compact made between the sovereign and the people.
