GENERAL ITEMS.

—Christmas time is just ahead of us, a fact not unknown to any child over two years of age.

—The ice in the chute in the Mississippi river near the island, is in fine condition for skating.

—The steamer Dexter is still hard aground at Dogwood bend.

—The Rough and Ready fire company are making arrangements for their annual New Year's ball.

—Our river reporter claims that the printer made him say in a late report that the Jim Fisk, Jr., on a recent trip, had ten thousand dollars instead of so many cents.

—A couple—a steamboat pilot, and a woman who lives on Washington avenue not a thousand miles from the custom house, were, we are told, made flesh of one flesh, etc.

—On the 29th inst. a ball will be given at John School's hall for the benefit of the German school.

—The ladies of the Presbyterian church will serve up for the public this evening an oyster supper, of which the following will be the bill of fare:

Oyster Soup, Crackers, Bread, Butter, Meats, Pickles, Cold Stew, Cateau, Celery, Coffee, Tea, Oysters, Fried, Oysters, Scalloped, Oysters, raw, Ice cream, Cake, Et cetera.

THE PARLOR CONCERT.

We need not say that the parlor concert last night at the residence of Wm. B. Gilbert, Esq., was a very pleasant affair.

—The Mound City Journal says: Charley Feuchter & Co., of the Cairo City Brewery, are manufacturing beer that is equal to any St. Louis beer, if not superior.

TRE CUSTOM-HOUSE.

The gentlemanly superintendent of the custom house was kind enough to show us through the new custom house a few days ago and let us look into all the mysterious arrangements of the building.

THE FIRST.

PARLOR ENTERTAINMENT TO-NIGHT—THE PROGRAMME. The first parlor entertainment of the Christmas series of entertainments of this kind, to be given for the benefit of the Episcopal church of this city will be given at the residence of Wm. B. Gilbert, Esq., this evening.

PART FIRST. 1. Ye Pretty Birds That Sweetly Sing. 2. Wandering Jew. 3. I Love and Love Thee. 4. Cornet and Piano. 5. Solo.

READING. 1. Shades of Evening. 2. Oh, No, Not Sad. 3. Grassy, Search and Find. 4. Beyond the Clouds.

CHARADE. Admission—Twenty-five Cents. Entertainment to commence precisely at 8 o'clock.

MILLINERY GOODS. Mrs. M. Swander, having sold her property, informs the ladies of this city that great bargains in millinery and notions may now be found at her store.
