GREELEY MASS MEETING.

JEREMIAH S. BLACK.

NEW YORK, May 19.—A Port Jarvis special of the 18th, before the rains, says in Pike county, Pennsylvania, a fire covering a territory of seven miles in extent, ering a territory of seven miles in extent, is sweeping over some of the best land in the section. Twelve large steam saw mills have been destroyed, and many dwelling houses. The lumber camps of Messrs. Dodge & Meigs, containing several million feet lumber were burned, the inmates of the cabins narrowly escaping with their lives. At Wagontorst's, Callahan's and Dawling's settlements, nothing is left but charred and smoking ruins. Dozans of families have been compelled to flee for their lives. A quarter of a million of dollars will not pay the losses in this section. this section.

this section.

The lumber villages of Carter and Gould, Pa., have been almost totally destroyed, only three houses remaining in the two places. Sussex county, N. J., and Sullivan and Delaware counties, N. Y., and Monroe county, are still being swept over by the forest fires, and the lesses are estimated as forting up in miles. losses are estimated as footing up in mil-

PREPARATIONS FOR A MASS MEETING.

NEW YORK, May 19.—Mr. Greeley spent yesterday at Chappaqua, and as usual devoted his time to chopping wood and issuing orders to his foremen regarding his farm. All day yesterday the headquarters of the Liberal Republican club, room 15, Astor house, was crowded by delegates from different parts of the state, in answer to a call for the purpose of completing arrangements for a mass meeting to be held in this city on Tuesday evening, May 28, in behalf of the Cincinnati candidates. John Cochrane, A. M. Bliss and Waldo Hutchins remained in the room part of the day. On and after to-PREPARATIONS FOR A MASS MEETING. room part of the day. On and after to-morrow Mr. Greeley will spend most of his time at the Astor house and will answer all letters and dispatches received. A BROAD, FAIR PLATFORM.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—An interview with Judge Jeremiah S. Black is published here to-day, which concludes as follows:
"Well," said the Judge," I'll tell you what we are going to do. The platform put forth at Cincinnati is a broad, fair democratic platform. There is nothing passive in that. Now, if the convention that meets at Baltimore finds in its wisdom that Greeley fits the platform, we will make the best fight for him we can. I have no question but when the canvass narrows up and men take sides as men are wont to do, that the entire democratic party will be found striving for the right. Friends of Greeley and Brown have es-tablished headquarters at St. Marie hotel, and communications are to be addressed to D. Defrees.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Mr. VERNOR, ILL., April 11, 1872. Editor Cairo Bulletin :

DEAR SIR-Please to announce me as a candidate for Clerk of the Supreme Court, Southern Grand Divisi in of Illinois. The new constitution provides that the Clerks of the Supreme Court shall hereafter be elected at the November election, instead of the June election as herefore. The successor of the present incumbents are to be elected this coming fall, but will not qualify until the present terms expire in 1873.

Respectfully, R. A. D. WILBANKS.
