Sale positive and without reserve.

Go to Cunningham's for fancy goods and notions, fans, parasols.

An Evansville Desperado Arrested.

Sheriff Miller, of Evansville, was here yesterday, in pursuit of a notorious ruffian and bruiser, named Lon Watson. Last summer this Watson assaulted the marshal of Evansville with brass knucks and very nearly killed him. Under an indictment for this offense, the sheriff sought his body and calling into requisition Joe Arnold, he soon had his game in hand, having discovered it in one of the bagnios of the city. He left with his prisoner yesterday evening, on board the steamer Armada.

Gentlemen desiring first-class day-board can be accommodated at Walker & Sisson's, Egyptian Block, Ohio Levee, at $25 per month.

Abducts with $5,000.

Many of our citizens will recollect a Captain Quigley, stationed at Cairo, for a long while during the war, and a resident, for a short time since the close of the war. Well, this Captain Quigley secured a contract from the Mt. Carbon railroad company to build a switch road, about a mile and a quarter in length, to a new coal shaft. In the performance of this contract he employed about one hundred laborers, worked them about eight weeks, paying them the while only a very inconsiderable portion of their wages. Last Friday he drew an estimate from the Mt. Carbon coal company, of $3,500. During the same day he borrowed several hundred dollars from his friends, and repaying to Carbondale he sold his house and lot there, and then "vamosed the rancho." He took with him about $5,000 in cash, every dollar of which, in justice and equity, belonged to somebody else. No clue has been obtained as to his whereabouts and the conviction is general that he has "gone for good."

Go to Cunningham's for your white goods, linens, etc.

The Stay of the St. Charles.

The stay of the Illinois Press Association in this city culminated last night, in a grand ball in the St. Charles Hotel.

The large hall of the St. Charles was handsomely decorated, the words "WELCOME TO THE PRESS OF ILLINOIS" skillfully wrought in evergreen upon the walls, being among the most notable and appropriate of the adornments.

By ten o'clock the hall was thronged by the beauty, fashion and intelligence (so to speak) not only of our own city, but of other localities of the state. There were at least one hundred and twenty-five couple present participating, over three hundred taking supper. A gayer, happier or more festive scene was never beheld in Egypt, and will doubtless long live as a "green spot" in the memory of every one present.

Mine host of the St. Charles, Mr. Jewett Wilcox, was in his element, making everybody happy and meeting a half dozen demands at once and the same time with a facility that showed that his "forte" is the entertainment of large crowds. The supper was substantial, and ample for the occasion. It was spread in the ordinary where as many as fifty or sixty could be seated at time—an arrangement that permitted the dancing to proceed uninterruptedly.

About 3 o'clock this morning the ball broke up, our guests of the press, repairing on board the General Anderson immediately thereafter. On all sides there was the best of feeling—our guests being pleased, even delighted with their hospitable entertainment, and our citizens gratified at the success of their efforts to entertain.

JOHN SMITH.

The members of the Illinois Press Association and their ladies accepted, yesterday afternoon, the hospitalities of Mr. and Mrs. Jaa. Johnson, and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Thornton. As many as one hundred and fifty guests were entertained at either house, in the most agreeable and satisfactory manner. The ladies were feasted upon choice confections, while the gentlemen, in the purest sparkling wines or in the best old o'tar or rye drank the health of their hosts in many a cordial "bumper." The guests expressed themselves as highly pleased with the marked courtesies and civilities thus extended to them, and will remember them, undoubtedly, as among the chief enjoyments of the visit.

Money Saved!

Committees on ball and banquet will meet at the office of J. S. Rearden, Egyptian Block, to-morrow (Saturday) morning at 10 o'clock, for the purpose of auditing claims on account of the entertainment of the Illinois Press Association. Circular letter to the heads of the various articles, calling their attention to any opinion, and saying that while the pleasure department has not the right to compel mechanics and laborers to work more than eight hours, yet it has the right to employ them to labor extra hours, and pay them pro rata for such extra work.

One Hamilton—"I called, Mr. Attorney General, to enquire whether it is true that you intend to appoint Mr. — for Mr. Phe Texas?"

his per Attorney General—"Yes, sir; I have already made out his nomination."

children Hamilton—"Then I think it is my duty to say that he is a bad man, and not fit to hold the office."

Attorney General—"I had heard that that you were opposed to him, and was not surprised, as I also hear that you are going over to the 'copperheads.'"

Hamilton—"G-d-d-n-yon, or any man, who impugns my political motives. Where were you when the war was raging? What were you doing that justified your blatant Unionism to-day? Dismiss the only law you know—Massachusetts law—while I was risking my day and life in behalf of the Union. As you do boro, at know what is decent or well bred in jeans and intercourse with gentlemen, I will trade. It trouble you further, but I will go to market."

Call on So saying, Jack struck off, leaving the noble, respectable Massachusetts petitfogger in a bewilderment of rage and astonishment; and proceeded to the white might use, laid the case before Grant and applied the appointment annulled. It is said Jack is pretty certain to be elected Governor of Texas, and this interview will not set him back much.

Don Platt, Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati 'Commercial,' (republican) says:

The vilest copperhead I ever encountered is an honest man by the side of office, on Butler. The ugliest rough of the whole democracy is a gentleman by the side of a splinter. And the stupidest ass that paws "nigger" at the cross-roads is a statesman by the side of Kelley.

WONDERFUL ACCOMPLISHMENT.

An Infant Lives one Hundred and Twenty-eight Days by Breathing Through a Silver Tube and Recovering.

[From the Cairo Times.]

It will be remembered that a notice appeared in the papers sometime since of a surgical operation being performed on an infant of Mr. Geo. E. Lounsbury of Mound City, Ill., for relief in a case of that most dreaded and fatal disease, membranous croup.

The operation was performed on the night of the 15th of December, 1898, being the sixth day of the disease, by Dr. Horace Wardner of this city, when the child was at the point of death from suffocation. A silver tube was placed in the wind-pipe below the seat of the disease, though an opening made by the surgeon, just under the projection commonly called "Adam's Apple." This tube has been removed at different times, but threatening suffocation called for its immediate reinsertion, until within the last three weeks, when it was found that the products of the disease had become so far removed that he could breathe without it for some minutes, the difficulty of breathing showing a decrease at each trial.

Yesterday a telegram was received announcing the final removal of the tube, and the good condition of the child, now only seventeen months old.

During his treatment since the operation which has proved so successful in saving his life, he has grown well, learned to walk, and cut seven teeth.

During this long period of care, doubt and anxiety the parents who are widely known, had the cordial sympathy of their many friends who now rejoice with them in their joy.

Go and examine Cunningham's beautiful assortment of dress goods, fresh from the Importers.

Police Business.

Police business was quite active before esquire Bross this morning, as many as six cases being disposed of before ten o'clock.

Jerry Anderson abused one Mary Stovall, but the case not being an aggravated one, Jerry was let off on payment of costs. Jerry cross-fired and had Mary Stovall arrested because she kept up zinc under her stove, which, being contrary to ordinance, Mary was fined $3.00 and costs.

James Smith got drunk and was fined therefor $2.00 and costs. Having no money he was consigned to the calaboose and street labor for the term of six days.

Charles Luggins was also victimized by the bowl and was brought to an account. He incurred the penalty fixed for Smith, and is now paying it.

John Manahan was arrested and proved guilty of vagrancy. Fined $15 and costs, which he couldn't pay, of course. He will put in 20 days at street labor and board and lodge in the calaboose.

Moses Fletcher was arrested for acting as a public porter, but producing license, he was acquitted.

We call attention to the radical change in the strawberry advertisement. More proof of the excellence of this remarkable fruit is introduced.

Prof. Owens, the prestidigitator, didn't make much of a haul in Cairo. The people didn't seem to care much for his "two hours of illusions."

Go and look at Cunningham's mammoth stock of spring and summer dry-goods.

Millinery Goods, at Mrs. J. Cunningham's.

The millinery store of Mrs. J. Cunningham, on Eighth street, between Washington and Commercial avenues, there is, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, a grand opening of a fine, durable and judiciously selected stock of hats, bonnets, hats of every make, straw goods, a large and very fine supply of artificial flowers, ribbons, ornaments, very fine and in great variety; infants' phaste and beautiful; untrimmed hats and hats and bonnet frames; and the countless other articles are legitimate in a first class millinery establishment.

Looked through Mrs. C's late purchase, and must commend her taste and selection. She has some of the richest and most attractive goods we ever saw in and offers them at extremely low prices. Remember Thursday, Friday and Saturday, and be sure to call on her.

Billiard Tables For Sale.

Second-sized billiard tables, Phenomons, for sale at a great sacrifice, the Sunflower saloon, on Pat rald.

It has been suggested, and we think the suggestion a good one, that the "notes," "impressions," "jottings by-the-way," etc., so far as they relate to Cairo, that are published by our late visitors, be collected and published in pamphlet form. It might be a speculation for one of our book dealers to take the matter in hand. Nearly every citizen of Cairo will be anxious to read what is said about Cairo, and by the adoption of the plan suggest they can gratify that want, but not otherwise.
