Billy Carroll, of Minot, the independent candidate for the legislature from this district, says he's got the animals stirred up in Ward county, and don't propose to let them have any more rest for two weeks. He is doing good work for Ned Palmer, but is bucking hard against one of the other two, but which, he doesn't care a darn. He says he will give them a good run for their money, and thinks it'll be funny if he doesn't win out. Billy is a whirlwind when he gets started, and is quite a political sprinter.

Mr. Chase's two sons, and his father have taken up three quarter sections of land as homesteads, all in a body—seven miles west of Williston—the prosperous county seat of Williams county. These lands were selected early and it is said are among the choicest of that rich military reservation, but recently opened for settlement.

W. H. Denny owns all horses north of the Missouri river that are branded with the combination 7HU on left shoulder without the vent on the thigh, and will pay $5 per head for all that can be found and delivered to him.

Forty Years Torture.

To be relieved from a torturing disease after 40 years' torture might well cause the gratitude of anyone. That is what DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve did for C. Hanev, Geneva, O. He says: "DeWitt's Witch Hazel salve cured me of piles after I had suffered 40 years." Cures cuts, burns, wounds, skin diseases. Beware of counterfeits. Brownell & McPhee.

The Worst Form.

Multitudes are singing the praises of Kodol, the new discovery which is making so many sick people well and weak people strong by digesting what they eat, by cleansing and sweetening the stomach and by transforming their food into the kind of pure, rich, red blood that makes you feel good all over. Mrs. Cranfill, of Troy, I. T., writes: For a number of years I was troubled with indigestion and dyspepsia which grew into the worst form. Finally I was induced to use Kodol and after using four bottles I am entirely cured. I heartily recommend Kodol to all sufferers from indigestion and dyspepsia. Take a dose after meals. It digests what you eat. Brownell & McPhee.

"UNDER TWO FLAGS."

This is acknowledged to be the most beautiful and successful comedy drama of its class. The name of Chas. Frohman, the manager who spent a fortune in launching this play, is as firmly attached to its success as that of Miss Blanche Bates, who created the part of "Cigarette". A man of Royal blood leaving his own English regiment to save family honor, joins the French in Algiers. Here the scene changes after an elapse of twelve years, to new characters and faces, introducing especially that little non-descript and girl soldier, "Cigarette."

Miss Annie Evans plays the part and is admirably qualified for the work. An attachment gathers in her wild nature toward the Englishman, Cecil. As a corporal he cannot resent the bitter insults of his enemy, the Colonel, until one day the royal blood tells and a fight ensues; this is mutiny and means death. But the child, Cigarette, rides many miles through the hot sands, implores the Grand Marshall for a pardon, receives it and is captured by Arabs, escapes them to battle a sandstorm, and overcomes all to reach her corporal and saves his life by herself receiving the bullet intended for him. At the Opera House, Monday, October 27th, 1902.

Death of Alice Markell.

One of the saddest deaths that has occurred in Williston in a long time occurred early Monday morning, when Alice Viola Markell, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Markell, passed to the other shore after a short illness. Alice was a general favorite with all of her acquaintances, and one of whom it might be truthfully said that "to know her was to love her." She was born at Rolla, N. D., where she lived until coming to Williston in January, 1898, where she has resided ever since. During the past summer she had been visiting with friends and relatives at Rolla, and returned home only a week ago last Friday. All that medical skill could do was done for her, but the seeds of disease were too deeply rooted, and the efforts of friends and physicians were of no avail. The funeral took place at the Congregational church yesterday afternoon, six girl classmates of the deceased being the honorary pallbearers. A loving father and mother, three brothers and two sisters are left to mourn her loss.

W. E. Sommerville, of Cando, who fled on a homestead near Williston last spring, was in the city last week to arrange for the building of his house. He made the Graphic office a pleasant call, and said he would soon be with us permanently.

The dance given at the Opera Hall last Friday evening was not very largely attended. Those who did attend enjoyed the music and dancing until past midnight. The proceeds went toward the payment for the piano at the High School.

There will be a meeting of the A. O. U. W. on Tuesday evening, Oct. 28th. All members are requested to be present as there will be an election of officers and other important business to be transacted.

M. G. COLEMAN, M. W.

Robert Stroud is in Chicago this week with about a dozen car loads of cattle which he will sell there. Bob says that he is going to bring a woman home with him this time sure. The happy couple will have the Graphic's best wishes and the bride-to-be may rest assured that she will not make any mistake when she accepts "Bob".

The Evans Company will open a week's engagement at the Williston Opera House in the French military drama of "Under Two Flags". They will present some of the most popular comedies and dramas during their stay in Williston. The Evans Company is said to be one of the best companies on the road and all lovers of the theatres should attend.

If you want a mower, rake or binder call on John Heffernan. Prices reasonable.

J. L. Kingston, from Martineville, Clark county, Ill., accompanied by his five grown-up sons, J. L., J. W., R. H., C. E. and E. E. Kingston, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Kingston and his sons all made homestead filings in the vicinity of Springbrook, before U. S. Commissioner Calderwood of this place. Mr. Kingston and his boys are a sturdy lot of men, and just the kind to make first-class citizens.

Call and see us if you want to buy salt. We have just received a carload, and will sell it to you at reasonable prices. SROUD BROS.

E. C. Palmer, candidate for representative from this district, left last evening for St. Paul on business. Before he returns to Williston he will make a thorough canvass of Ward county in behalf of his own candidacy as well as for those who in the race with him. We can see no reason why Ned Palmer should not receive every vote cast in Williams county, as he is practically as much the choice of the democrats as of the republicans. While his energies will be devoted to the welfare of the 29th district, and the state, there is no danger that any interests here will be neglected, as he is a Williams county man first, last and all the time.

FOR SALE—250 tons of good hay for sale on my ranch on the Muddy. The purchaser can have the privilege of feeding the same on the ranch, where there is plenty of good water and shelter. Address or call on LANGFORD BROS.

Natural Anxiety.

Mothers regard approaching winter with uneasiness, children take cold so easily. No disease costs more little lives than croup. It's attack is so sudden that the sufferer is often beyond human aid before the doctor arrives. Such cases yield readily to One Minute Cough Cure. Liquefies the mucus, allays inflammation, removes danger. Absolutely safe. Acts immediately. Cures coughs, colds, grip, bronchitis, all throat and lung trouble. F. S. McMahon, Hampton, Ga.: "A bad cold rendered me voiceless just before an oratorical contest. I intended to withdraw but took One Minute Cough Cure. It restored my voice in time to win the medal."
