

THE BOSTON FOR STYLE

Our great winter-end clearance sale

Means more to you than any sale in the history of this store. It means more to you because necessity has never compelled us to make such sacrifices as we are now offering. It means that the present stock must be cleaned up and turned into cash immediately in order that we may take care of the new lines of spring and early summer goods that are to arrive soon. It means that our entire stock, except wash dresses, will be sold at

25, 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ and 50 per cent off from the original price. Mr. Garrison will go east in a few days to purchase goods for spring and early summer—and it takes cash to buy goods this season. Owing not only to general business depression, but to local conditions as well, our recent invoice shows more stock on hand than we have ever had had at any previous season. These must be converted into money, hence these remarkable reductions:
