

HUB TO RIM

It is an undisputed fact that Shortridge and Burke were elected governors because of the dissatisfaction in the Republican ranks, and the Republicans swung back into line after naming Shortridge one term and there are some strong indications that history will be repeated this year.

Hoodlums destroyed a garden belonging to an aged couple in Minot and all the garden truck was stolen and destroyed.

The Kenmare News had a hot roast for the fellow who tied a tin can to the tail of a dog in that town.

The Ambrose News man objects to some of the stories that have been sent to out of that burg.

The newspaper scrap at Plaza got so it reminded one of personal abuse before it ended.

Burke is working hard in Ward county and his friends, some of them, think that the northern part of Ward is sore at Johnson, but they are not and the Democratic candidate cannot control any Republican votes in this locality.

The editor of the Bowbells Bulletin shot a jack rabbit the other day in mistake for a prairie chicken. In falling the rabbit struck the ground so hard that the editor could not tell whether the rabbit died from fright or whether the charge really struck him.

Correspondent Granum who was in trouble in this city recently has pulled for St. Paul.

James Knudson living near Denbigh lost his separator by fire recently and it is expected that the fire was set for the special purpose of injuring him.

The Minot High School foot ball team is planning on making a trip thru the state to play with other high school teams.

There are a couple of fellows up at Bowbells who have a habit of beating their horses and the Tribune man thinks that the horses know a lot more than the men do.

The Kenmare opera house has been closed and it begins to look as if the last place of amusement in that town was closed.

The Flugal Herald thinks that both M. N. Johnson and C. A. Johnson are growing a whole lot in popular favor.

The government has recently placed 30,000 black bass in the Des Lacs lake and Thompson lake near Kenmare.

Fred Lane's home ten miles south-east of Sherwood was burned to the ground one day last week and most of his household effects were destroyed but none of the family were injured.

Last Tuesday the high wind scattered fire from a straw pile that had been set the evening before on the J. W. Harris farm north of Sherwood and before it was gotten control of it sprad over about nine square miles of country and destroyed about 2000 bushels of oats which were in the shock, for W. W. Woodward and the most of a 100 acres of wheat in the shocks which belonged to Ed. Burke who lives in that vicinity. Help was finally obtained and the fire extinguished after hard fighting.

A runaway soldier and deserter was landed near Carpio one day last week and taken to Fort Harrison, Mont., and was overtaken by Marshall John Aherns who had a description of him, his name was Walter Schuckhart.

A young lady on her way to Williston to prove up on her land, left her pocket book containing ver $200 on the desk in the Tioga post office. The next morning it was found by an honest business man and returned to her.

Ben Whitehead swears that the circulation of the Williston State is 1450 copies weekly. Ben has made a wonderful change for the better in his paper.

Last Sunday was a day long to be remembered by the congregation of St. Mary's Catholic church of Foxholm. The children of the church, about sixty in number received the first Holy Communion. They were assembled in the morning at the beautiful new home of the priest, the popular and eloquent Father Henry Berg, and dressed in pure white marched in procession from the residence to the church for the communion. After the communion services, which were very impressive, the Father preached an unusually fine sermon which effected the congregation in such a manner that

HOW DO YOU PAY YOUR BILLS?

"I will pay you in the fall" is what you have been promising all the people you owe. Fall is here, your crop has been good, and prices are not bad. Mr. Farmer, when you sell your grain bring your checks to and deposit every one of them. Take a check book, and pay all your bills by check.

You are helping yourself because every bill you pay by check is its own receipt, and you will not be called on to pay any bill twice. You are helping the whole country by keeping the money in circulation when you put it in the bank instead of carrying it around in your pocket. Do your business in the American way by means of a bank account.

We will cash all grain checks free of charge, as well as furnish you with a check book and bank book. We want your business, and will welcome you.
