John Cron, a Soo brakeman, whose home was in Harvey, was fatally injured Friday forenoon, while at work in the Minot yards near the water tank. He slipped and fell under the cars, and the wheels passed over a leg and an arm. The man was taken to the Northwestern hospital, where surgeons worked over him for several hours, but the shock was too great, and the following day he died.

Notice of Cancellation of Contract.
To Mrs. Clara Chambers and W. L. Chambers, her husband.

You are hereby notified that default has occurred in the conditions of that certain contract for the purchase of real estate, made and entered into on the fifth day of May, A. D. 1908, by and between Joseph Roach, vendor, party of the first part, and Mrs. Clara Chambers and W. L. Chambers, her husband, vendees, parties of the second part, by the terms of which the said, Joseph Roach, party of the first part, agreed, upon performance of the conditions and payments to be made by the parties of the second part, and mentioned in said contract, to convey and transfer to the said Mrs. Clara Chambers and W. L. Chambers, her husband, parties of the second part, the following described real estate to-wit: Lots one (1) two (2), three (3), four (4) and five (5) block three (3), Roach's Second Addition to Minot, Ward county, North Dakota. That Frank J. Lyman is the assignee and successor in interest of Joseph Roach, party of the first part.

You are further notified that such default consists in the failure of you, Mrs. Clara Chambers and W. L. Chambers, parties of the second part, before mentioned, to make the payments of the principal and interest due on said contract according to the terms thereof, and in your failure to do and perform the conditions of said contract; that there is now due on the said contract the sum of $325.00, due and payable on the first day of November, A. D. 1908, and interest thereon from the fifth day of May, A. D. 1908, at the rate of 8 per cent per annum; and the further sum of $325.00, due and payable on the first day of November, A. D. 1908, and interest thereon from the fifth day of May, A. D. 1908, at the rate of 8 per cent per annum; and you are hereby notified that said contract will be terminated and cancelled unless the deferred payments due on said contract, together with the interest, according to the terms thereof and all conditions of said contract are fulfilled according to the terms thereof, and such default cured on or before the 7th day of May, A. D. 1910, and in case of your failure to make said payments and cure said default on your part within said time this notice shall work a forfeiture and cancellation of said contract.

Dated this 14th day of March, A. D. 1910.

FRANK J. LYMAN,
Assignee and successor in interest of Joseph Roach, party of the first part.
GEORGE A. MCGEE,
Attorney for Frank J. Lyman
