WILLING SERVICE

It is the aim of the Union National Bank to serve its depositors in other ways than the care of their funds

Above all, it's officers wish to become acquainted with the individual needs of depositors in order to be in position to render willing service

While its capital and resources are ample to meet the demands of its pat; ons. the Union National will never become too large to render that individual service which means so much to the depositors' welfare.

You are invited to call in and talk it over with our officers

DES LACS MAN NOT GUILTY.

John Hoyum of Des Lacs, who was arrested some time ago upon complaint of Fred Becker, the Des Lacs merchant, on the charge of selling montgaged property, was found not guilty in county court Wednesday. Hoyum was represented by Attorney R. A. Nestos.

It was shown that Mr. Becker had had a mortgage on one of Hoyum's cows, which the latter sold, but the mortgage had been renewed before the cow was sold, and the critter was not included in the new mortgage altho Becker kept the old note as collateral, unbeknown to Hoyur

Beef cattle are getting very scarce all over the country. With feed plentiful, it certainly pays the farmers to keep some stock on hand.
