DEATH OF NORWICH YOUNG WOMAN.

NORA BESKIN, DAUGHTER OF ORVILLE BESKIN, DIED FROM BERSICULOSIS.

The sun rose on a new day in the town of Norwich this week, but to Dr. S. J. Clark, the young woman whose life was so suddenly gone, it was the end of a golden era. She was the only daughter of Orville Beskin, one of the pioneers of the town.

SUSAN REED, who was at Norwich this morning, said she had not heard of the death of Nora Beskin. She was the only child of the family.

NO VOTE ON TARIFF BILL UNTIL OCTOBER.

SENATOR McNAMARA, WHO WAS ON THE MONTANA DELEGATION, SAID OF OPINION THAT TARIFF BILL WILL NOT BE ACTED UPON IN EARLY OCTOBER.

That no vote on the tariff bill will be taken before October was the opinion of Senator T. J. McNamara, a member of the Montana delegation.

Many members of the delegation, he stated, have written to him expressing the opinion that no vote will be taken until October, and many of them favor the adoption of the bill.

The senator also stated that he believed the bill would be adopted by the Senate, but that it was not likely to be adopted by the House.

The Senate, he said, has a majority of Republicans and the House has a majority of Democrats, and the Republicans are opposed to the bill.
