

War Saving Stamps are the answer of a great democracy to the demand for a democratic form of government security. They have behind them the entire resources of the government and people of the United States. The War Savings Stamp plan is simple, straightforward and certain. The holder of the certificate cannot lose unless your country loses, and if it loses your money is worthless and your liberty in the hands of Prussians.

Traitor dollars—the dollars spent for the Kaiser—are those spent for any item that deprives the government of any element of war supply. Patriotic dollars—those spent for Uncle Sam—can be made to do double duty. Buy War Savings Stamps.

STORM CLAIMS MANY VICTIMS

Nine Killed and Scores Injured in Northwestern Ohio.

PROPERTY DAMAGE HEAVY

Many Residences and Hundreds of Barns and Outbuildings Demolished by the Tornado, Which Strikes a Dozen Towns With Great Force. Farmers Motor to Stricken Communities and Offer Assistance.

Toledo, March 11.—Nine persons were killed, scores injured and scores of homes, hundreds of barns and outbuildings demolished by the tornado that struck northwestern Ohio Saturday night. Property damage is estimated at from $1,000,000 to $2,000,000.

No serious damage was done in any of the larger towns, most of the destruction having been reported from country districts. The tornado began its mad career in Van Wert county, on the Ohio-Indiana state line, and then traveled in a northeasterly direction, lessening in its intensity until it died out east of Tiffin. Towns suffering the most severely were Van Wert, Middlepoint, Convoy, Lima, Deshler, Hamler, Continental, Ottawa, Napoleon, Holgate, Miller City and Tiffin.

The known dead: Rexford Lye, 12, Middlepoint, killed when barn was demolished while he was feeding cattle; Harry Perry, 8, three miles west of Van Wert; Mrs. Charles Greer, Middlepoint; Mrs. William Geyer, 72, Van Wert county; Pearl Bott, 26, farmer of near Cloverdale, south of Continental.

The tornado first struck at Middlepoint, traveling northeast across Harrison, Pleasant and Union townships. The twister would swoop down, wreck a farmhouse, or possibly two or three, and then jump over four or five miles before doing more damage.

Reports received here say that Continental and Holgate were not wiped out, but that much property damage was done there by the tornado.

Hundreds of farmers from northwestern Ohio and eastern Indiana motored to Van Wert county to give aid to farmers who suffered loss. The organized searching parties rounded up live stock which had become loose and wandered off.

Big boulders weighing a ton were found in the roads at several points, having been lifted from fields or creeks and carried many yards. In Union township a farmhouse was lifted from its foundation and was carried into an adjoining field. A heavy stove in this house was carried half a mile by the twister.

The storm played queer pranks. Hundreds of chickens were entirely denuded and left without a feather. One chicken, with only a few feathers left, was blown high in the air and landed on a telephone post, from which it was rescued.

Damage estimated at $200,000 was done in Findlay and Hancock county. Small buildings were wrecked, roofs of many business blocks were shattered, trees blown down and all business in general was suspended for several hours.

At Bascom, several miles west of Tiffin, the car barns of the Tiffin, Fostoria and Eastern Interurban company were demolished, six big cars in the barns being damaged. Poles along the traction line were blown down.

Later reports state that four of the injured have died.

WILSON SENDS MESSAGE

Expresses Sympathy With the People of Russia.

Washington, March 12.—On the eve of the gathering at Moscow of the Russian congress of Soviets, which is to pass judgment on the German-made peace accepted by the Bolsheviks at Brest-Litovsk, President Wilson sent a message of sympathy to the Russian people through the congress, with the pledge that the United States will avail itself of every opportunity to aid them in driving out autocracy and restoring Russia to her place in the world with complete sovereignty and independence.

The United States now recognizes no government in Russia, but the president cabled his message to the American consul at Moscow for delivery today to the congress, which is made up of soldiers and workmen's representatives.

Rockefeller's Income Tax. New York, March 13.—John D. Rockefeller will pay the government approximately $38,400,000 income tax this year, according to estimate of a financial authority. This is within $3,000,000 of the amount collected in personal income taxes from the entire country in 1915.

MR. BAKER IN FRANCE

Secretary Baker is in France; but he didn't go there to escape from the gentlemen who think they know how to conduct the war department better than he has conducted it. Mr. Baker is in France for the purpose of inspecting conditions on the war front and to confer with General Pershing. It is probable, too, that he will get as much information as possible from the French and British war offices and that he will come home with a knowledge, gained through personal observation, which will be of immense value to the army and to the nation.

Thus far Secretary Baker's work has been satisfactory. We may expect that he will continue to exhibit splendid efficiency in disposing of the task which has fallen to his department, but his trip to France will not be liked by the critics who are determined to be pessimistic with regard to the manner in which our army is being prepared for action. They will see in it a deliberate purpose on the part of the secretary to add to his ability to confound and belittle them.—Ohio State Journal.

NO CONCERTS THIS SUMMER

Council at its regular session last Tuesday night decided to cut out the band concerts, after the finance committee reported no funds for that purpose. A little improvement music is much needed now and council did the right thing in passing up concert this time.

The finance committee, which also has the Forest Heights plea for annexation on its mind, asked for and received more time in which to go over the situation. It is expected to report at the next meeting. Celina is already scattered over considerable territory and the problem of furnishing water and light is a tremendous one, to say nothing of the streets little used, but still in need of improvement.

Fire truck companies are beginning to be heard from; the Red people presenting argument for their machine Tuesday night. Council will receive bids for motorized apparatus on Tuesday the 19th.

TO CALL 800,000 MEN FOR SERVICE

Second Army Draft Will Begin on March 29.

WITHDRAWAL TO BE GRADUAL

Ninety-five Thousand Men Wanted at Once to Fill Up Divisions to Be Sent to the Front—Harvesting Not to Be Interfered With, According to the Provost Marshal General. Ohio's Quota.

Washington, March 13.—Eight hundred thousand men are to be called to the colors gradually during the present army year, under the second army draft, which begins March 29.

An announcement by Provost Marshal General Crowder of the number to be called was followed closely by an order for the mobilization of 95,000 men during the five-day period beginning March 29, some 15,000 of them to be assembled under the second draft. Eighty thousand will be men of the first draft of 687,000 not yet summoned into service. Ohio's apportionment is 6,955 men.

Details of how the second draft is to be applied will be made public later, after congress has acted upon proposed legislation providing for registration of youths attaining the age of 18 years and for basing state and district quotas on the number of registrants in Class 1. In his first official statement on the subject, however, General Crowder assures the country that no sweeping withdrawal of large numbers of men at one time is contemplated and that care will be taken to avoid interference with harvesting.

The 95,000 men now called, it is understood, are needed at once to fill up divisions and other units scheduled for early departure or to take the place of men transferred from other divisions to make up such deficiencies. Newly organized regular divisions are particularly short of men and heavy drafts on national army divisions to make these good have been necessary, seriously interfering with the training work of the national army divisions drawn upon. The call for new men makes it probable that no further transfers will be necessary.

The 800,000 men to be summoned this year represent the number necessary to fill up all existing divisions, to create all the army corps and field army troops to fill out the war machine for which the framework already exists, and to provide 250,000 replacement troops. When they have been mobilized, which will not be completed before the first of next year, there will be more than 40 full infantry divisions, 27,700 men each, and all the additional units necessary. No additional divisions of the national army or national guard will be created this year, although the program for the regular army, now composed of eight infantry and one cavalry divisions, may be enlarged.

The war department is prepared to supply clothing and other equipment immediately for all the men to be called out. Acting Quartermaster General Goethals is now pressing vigorously the deliveries of winter clothing to build up the reserves necessary for next winter.

The first purpose of the war department is to complete the first field army in France.

SIXTY AIRPLANES CARRY OUT ATTACK

Hundred Persons Lose Lives in Raid on Paris.

Paris, March 13.—A huge fleet of German aeroplanes, composed, it is estimated of about 60 machines, crossed the frontier in an effort to attack Paris. Some of them were driven off by French scouts and high angle fire before they could reach the city, but a few got through and dropped bombs on Paris proper and the suburbs. Some buildings were demolished and fires started. Four of the raiders were brought down in flames and the crew captured.

The raid and the fights in the air between French and German machines affected a thrilling scene for the American secretary of war, Newton D. Baker, who is here.

Thirty-four persons were killed and 79 injured by bombs in Paris and its suburbs and 66 other persons were suffocated in the Metropolitan railway tube, where they had fled to escape the missiles of the raiders. Berlin says the raid was made as a reprisal for the bombing of Stuttgart and other German towns.

Injuries Prove Fatal.

Van Wert, O., March 13.—Charles Klehl, 69, Harrison township farmer, died in the Van Wert county hospital, the fourth victim of Saturday's tornado in this county and the seventh known to have lost his life in the storm.

Dale Dutton of Dayton, has been spending a few days with his grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Dutton, at Neptune.

TELTS SHOW OUR SEED CORN VERY BAD

Over 4,500 germination tests of seed corn conducted in all parts of Ohio by the rural school pupils and teachers show that but 51 percent of the corn tested will grow. Of the 916 tests made in this county, but 65 percent of the corn will grow. Inasmuch as 85 percent is as low a percentage as the average farmer can even afford to consider, the seed corn situation is held to be exceedingly serious. Corn specialists are urging that every ear be tested.

BILLY COLGAN CROSSES DIVIDE

William J. Colgan, aged 63, former well known resident of this city, died at his home at 1619 Parsons avenue, Columbus, last Tuesday, following a three months' illness with a complication of diseases. He was born in Alstead, New York, and came to Celina when a lad. For the past twelve years he resided at Columbus, where he was an elevator operator at the State House.

He is survived by his wife, one son, John, at home, and one daughter, Mrs. May Higgins, of Providence, R. I.; one sister, Mrs. Andy Zenders, of this city, and two brothers, John Colgan, of Pine Bluff, Ark., and Barney Colgan, of Portland, Me.

The remains were brought here yesterday and taken to the home of his sister. Funeral services will be held from the Catholic church here to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

PARCELS POST LIMIT RAISED

Effective March 15, the limit of weight of parcel post matter will be increased to seventy pounds for parcels mailed within the first, second and third zones, and to fifty pounds for parcels mailed for delivery within any of the other zones. The limit at present is fifty pounds for delivery within the first and second zones, and any of the other zones.

The increased weight will be particularly advantageous in the marketing of products of the farm, as it will make it possible for producers and consumers to get into direct contact thereby facilitating the conservation of food, which is a most important factor in winning the war.

The increased weight limit does not apply to parcels sent to the Expeditionary Forces in Europe. Parcels mailed to those forces must not exceed seven pounds.

AUTOS CLASH ON STREET CORNER

Night officer John Heistan is in a precarious condition at his home, suffering with three broken ribs and possibly internal injuries as the result of an automobile accident Wednesday evening about 5:30 o'clock.

Heistan was driving a closed Ford down Main street which collided with a Ford, crossing Main street. Heistan's wife and daughter were also occupants of the car, but escaped with slight injuries.

Their machine was turned completely over. The other machine was driven by Al Bourlelle, of this city but he escaped injury. Both machines were badly damaged.

ANOTHER FALSE STATEMENT IS DISPOSED OF

Mrs. R. R. Wyckoff, chairman of the Civilian Relief Committee, sent a letter of inquiry relative to the death of Charles Adams at Camp Sherman and following is the report received by her this week:

Mrs. Wyckoff's letter to the Camp reads:

Celina, February 24, 1918. J. M. Tellico, Camp Sherman, O. My dear Sir:—

Charles Adams, a private from this county, died recently at the Base Hospital at Camp Sherman, and was brought to his home here for burial. Rumors are current here as to the treatment he received and it has caused much adverse criticism and consequently apprehension among the men who are soon to leave for camp.

It has been said that the young man, having suffered a fractured leg, had to have it broken and reset three different times, which would indicate incompetency; and that the parents had been refused admission to the hospital during his illness.

I feel that these reports must be exaggerated, or at least there is a misunderstanding.

Will you kindly investigate and send me a statement as to the facts in the case and oblige.

Very truly yours, BERTHA WYCKOFF, Chairman of Civilian Relief

Field Director Tellico immediately took up the matter and returned papers as follows:

Base Hospital Camp Sherman, March 1, 1918.

To Field Director, American Red Cross, Camp Sherman, Ohio:

1. Private Charles Adams was admitted to this hospital on December 18, 1917, on account of a spontaneous fracture of the right femur at the junction of the middle and upper thirds. The fracture was at once dressed in a plaster dressing and extension applied at once. At time of admission, these notes were made on Private Adams's clinical history:

"December 18—General condition of patient is poor. He is thin and under weight. Femur was fractured by muscular force when he slipped BUT DID NOT FALL, indicating some bony deficiency."

On January 1, the cast was removed and it was found that there had not been any attempt at union. A slight manipulation was done and a double inclined plane splint was applied. On January 14th the splint was again removed, but still no attempt at union was in evidence. Another plaster dressing was applied, but clinical notes from this time showed the gradual failure of the patient. Splints were changed and every effort made to get union (knitting) in the fracture.

Early in February a swelling near the hip joint appeared and a diagnosis of tuberculosis of the hip joint was made. A large amount of pus was evacuated from the hip joint and the reason for the fracture and the subsequent failure to obtain union was in evidence—namely tuberculosis.

2. Private Adams, while in the hospital, was attended by excellent surgeons. He was given special attention at all times because of special interest in the case. His case was at one time brought up at a clinical meeting of the 80 medical officers at this hospital for discussion as to what had been done for him, and as to what should be done in the future.

The reports circulated in his home town are absolutely false in every particular, and are, in my opinion, another method of spreading German propaganda. We will gladly show any doctor, or anyone else in Celina, all the records in the case, including X-ray pictures and our methods of caring for the sick. In my opinion he couldn't have been better cared for in any hospital in the country.

2. A report of the chief of the surgical service is enclosed herewith.

E. H. HUBER, Lt. Col. M. C. N. A., Commanding.

Lieutenant Curtis certified that no relatives or friends applied for admission to visit Charles Adams.

Nurses Bohan and Metzall and the receiving office testified that no one was refused admission to visit Charles Adams.

Captain Windmiller, senior surgeon, certifies that the parents were notified of his serious condition on February 20, and that they were admitted to the ward when they arrived at Camp Sherman February 22.

Major H. M. Hosmer, chief of the Surgical Service, also writes a detailed description of the case and the treatment, and said the patient complained of an acute pain in the right leg and that he had been losing flesh. Prompt examination was made and a plaster paris cast applied. An X-ray taken, showed fragments displaced, and January 26 a Thomas hip splint was applied with marked comfort to the patient. This had to be removed.

Major H. M. Hosmer writes in full covering the case from the time the patient first complained of pain in his right leg and that he was losing weight. X-ray examinations were made, a Thomas hip splint applied and plaster paris casts, until February 18. The X-ray showed no union. Malignancy was suspected until pus was found coming from the spine. Patient had never given any symptoms of Pott's disease until last two weeks he lived."

Bruce Baxter, acting secretary of Y. M. C. A. writes that he called upon Charles Adams almost every day the time he was at the Base Hospital and that he was given every care possible for a man to receive. He adds: "I do not recall a single complaint ever made of lack of attention of anyone in the hospital."

Y. M. C. A. WAR WORK FUNDS

Liberty township and two school districts of Blackcreek township have just gone "over the top" in great shape for the Y. M. C. A. War Work Fund, with a total amount of $1235.75. Thus far they have carried off the honors. Their success is due to the efficient organization headed by Rufus Bollenbacher as president, C. L. Vining, vice-president, John Eichler, secretary and Leona Baker, as treasurer. Following is the report by school districts with the committees who raised the funds:

Liberty Township

District No. 1. Amy Kable and Elmer Bollenbacher, $43.50.

District No. 2. Jake Brehm and Wm. Schaad, $190.00.

District No. 3. Chas. Bollenbacher and Lou Egger, $214.50.

District No. 4. Fred Betzel and Rufus Bollenbacher, $95.00.

District No. 5. John Bauer and John Fanchek, $100.00.

District No. 6. Andy Bauer and John P. Kable, $79.00.

District No. 7. Wm. Roettger and Frank Stoner, $76.50.

District No. 8. Vernon Chapman and Clel Jenkins, $46.75.

District No. 9. James Gibbons and Russel Donor, $39.00.

Blackcreek Township

District No. 9—Wildcat. Victor Stuekey, $202.25.

District No. 8—Grove. Andrew Harb and Ed Leininger, $74.50.

In addition to the above amounts raised by school districts the sum of $94.75 was raised by a sale in Blackcreek township and a supper at the Lutheran church at Chattanooga. This makes a total of $1235.75 raised by the above school districts in Blackcreek and Liberty townships.

SATURDAY'S STORM VICIOUS

The cyclone that visited northwestern Ohio last Saturday evening, doing its greatest damage in Van Wert county, where several people were killed, caused thousands of dollars damage in the north part of this county and gave Celina a taste of its destructive hand. Its course through the county blighted vividly to mind the cyclone back in the middle 80's which passed to the northwest of this city and the worst damage of Saturday evening's storm was in the territory visited on that memorable occasion, traversing from southwest to northeast. The county infirmary suffered considerably. Dozens of barns, and outhouses were unroofed or moved off their foundations in the district traversed, fences leveled and silos and windmills blown down. Narrow escapes from death were many, and several people on their way home from this city had their vehicles overturned.

The damage in this city was very small, but the high wind that prevailed most of the night caused much uneasiness in many homes.

HIGH GAS PRESSURE CAUSES FIRE ALARM

An overheated gas stove caused the fire department to make a run to the Dugan home on North Main street Monday evening. Wood had been put in the stove to dry. During the absence of the family a couple of hours the gas pressure came on to such an extent that the wood was charred and the house filled with smoke. The smoke damaged the furnishings considerably.
