The agent of Humphrey's Homopathic Specifics has received a very important addition to his list of Humphrey's Specific Homopathic Remedies in the shape of Specific No. 34, which cures diphtheria and ulcerated sore throat. These specific have obtained a wide celebrity among the medical practitioners and are very largely used by them, being prompt, efficient, reliable and convenient. An extended advertisement in another column gives a list of the different species, the diseases which they remedy, and the prices. The cases for family use are especially worthy of attention, and also the new department of veterinary specifics. The headquarters of Humphrey's Specific Homopathic Medicine Co., is at 562 Broadway, New York.

DR. MOTT'S VEGETABLE LIVER PILLS are constantly becoming more and more popular. They are acknowledged to have no rival in the cure of such diseases as Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Fever of all kinds, Jaundice, Constipation, Pain in the Stomach, Head, Back, and Bowels, Bilious Complaints, Loss of Appetite, Sick Headache, Scrofula, Scald Head, Rheumatism, Colic, Flatulency, Pimples and Sores on the Skin, Plurisy of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Pain or Weakness of the Breast, Diseases of Spine and Kidneys, Sore Eyes, Diarrhea or Dysentery, Cold, etc.

Most of the above-named diseases may be prevented by taking Dr. Mott's Vegetable Liver Pills in season, or when the liver becomes first deranged, which carry off, through the bowels and the secretions of the skin and kidneys, those poisonous humors that clog the stomach, bowels, and skin, and become accumulated in the blood. There has been a great progress in science, and especially in that of medicine, within the past few years, as there has in the arts. To such perfection have they brought this science, that the medicinal properties are condensed and concentrated in the resins or salts of the plant, which they extract from it, and leave the inert, or woody matter. The old mode of extracting these medicinal properties—by boiling for a long time in water—is found, in most cases, to render the medicinal qualities wholly inert, or even decomposing them.

DR. MOTT'S VEGETABLE LIVER PILLS are composed of chemical vegetable extracts, mostly from plants growing in our own country; some of these plants have a direct action on the liver, others upon the skin, others on the kidneys, and others upon the bowels and lungs. It is by a peculiar chemical combination of all these extracts that these Pills are made, possessing the most extraordinary efficacy for curing the above-named diseases.

Those who have suffered from Scrofula, Eruptions, or any other impurity of the Blood, will find SCOVILLE'S BLOOD AND LIVER PURIFIER invaluable, as it will cleanse the Blood and permanently eradicate from the system the cause of the disease, thereby restoring health, and vivacity to the system.

No lady should be without DR. TOWNSEND'S INDIAN TOOTHACHE ANODYNE in her family. If she has children that have the toothache it will cure them. If any of the family have a severe toothache it will cure it. If some of the cousins have diseased gums, rendering their mouth very unpleasant, it will cure the disease, and render the gums red and of a beautiful color.

Take Bickre's and defy Erysipelas and Ague. This glorious vegetable life fortifies the system against intermittents, cures dyspepsia, puts the nerves in order, clears the brain, sustains the constitution, and restores the lost vigor of any and every organ. THE DAILY EMPIRE.

Dayton, Ohio,
Monday, ---- January 8, 1866.

Local Matters.

Thomas & Beck on canal, below Third street, are offering superior inducements to persons wishing a No. 1 article of wood and coal. Jan4-1wd.

LUXURIES AT THE VERY LOWEST PRICES.—At A. L. Dunlevy's, Oregon Fruit, News and Oyster depot. Give him a call. He is a very obliging young man. (Dec. 19d.)

We learn that Dr. Dodds, whose success in healing the sick for the past month in our city, is to visit Springfield about the 5th of January, where he will remain a few days. Notice of his arrival will be given through the Empire and Journal of this city, and the Springfield News and Republic Jan2-6td.

It will be understood that Schwarz No. 108 Main street has a large stock of Overcoats, which he is compelled to sell immediately, to close out his present stock. The fluctuations in the price of clothing forces him to sell them at figures actually below cost. Examine his stock before going elsewhere.

LOST.—On Thursday evening last, a child's dress, made of Jaconet, tucked skirt, bottom deeply embroidered, plain waist, and lace on the sleeves, supposed to have been lost on Third or Main streets. The finder will please leave it at Mr. P. P. Lowe's, on Main street.

PATENT ALARM.—We have been shown a very ingenious invention, which has just been patented by Mr. E. Hill of this city. It is a small apparatus which can be carried in the pocket, and when attached to a door or window, the simple opening of either will sound an alarm to the inmate of the room sufficiently loud to awake him if asleep. It would at the same time be very apt to frighten away any intruder with burglarious intent. Mr. H. is also engaged in bell-hanging, repairing locks, keys, &c. His card will be found in our advertising columns.

FRANKLIN'S BIRTHDAY.—An adjourned meeting of the Printers of Dayton was held on Saturday evening last. The object of the meeting was to take into consideration measures by which to commemorate the coming Anniversary of Franklin's Birthday.

The Committee of Arrangements reported progress. They had made arrangements to have a banquet at the Goodwin House, and have every prospect of getting up something creditable to the occasion. Several sub-committees were appointed, and the meeting adjourned to meet in the Telescope Building, on Saturday evening next. The several committees are to report progress to the Committee of Arrangements by Wednesday evening next.

DR. DODDS has arrived at our neighboring city of Springfield, and taken rooms at the Willis House, where he will remain until the 20th of January. All who are afflicted with chronic difficulties should not fail to visit him. His success is unparalleled. During his recent visit to Dayton, he performed some of the most wonderful cures on record, as we have reason to know from personal observation. Our editorial friends in Springfield need have no hesitation in saying that the Doctor will perform all his promises. 8-1wd.

THE OPERA-HOUSE.—Saturday night closed the first week of dramatic entertainments at our new Opera-House. To say that the career of this magnificent Temple of Art, since the opening on New Year's night, has been a grand success, is only to record a passable and acknowledged fact in the history of our city. While in point of architectural design, artistic embellishment and adaptation to the purposes for which it was erected, our Opera-House is without a rival in any other city in the country, the character of the entertainments and the talent and ability of the distinguished artists who have appeared upon its boards, were such as to enlist the highest admiration of the audiences which have nightly attended. The event has constituted a new era in the history of Dayton, and one in which our people feel a just and honest pride.

We have now a place of rational, intellectual recreation, characterized by all the appliances which are calculated to make it attractive and worthy of the patronage of all. Men and women, old and young, may go there with the fullest assurance that nothing will transpire to offend the most fastidious taste. Our community has long felt the need of some thing of the kind, and the liberal manner in which the refined and intelligent portion of our citizens have thus far patronized the "legitimate drama" in our midst, is the best evidence that they appreciate and will sustain it.

When the enterprising proprietors of the Opera-House decided upon its erection, they may have felt that they had embarked in a some what hazardous undertaking—others may have felt so. But we think the events of the past week are sufficient to dispel all such forebodings, and to convince every one that the rearing of this splendid Dramatic Temple is regarded as a necessity, and that it will be patronized in a spirit of generous liberality so long as it is devoted to the uses for which it has been set apart.

We congratulate the proprietors and the management on the complete success which has thus far attended their efforts, and tender them our best wishes for the future.

Reminiscences of Mr. Forrest's Early Dramatic Career.

We have been furnished by a friend in Hamilton, with some reminiscences of Mr. Forrest's early career as an actor, which can not fail to prove interesting at this time.

Our informant states that the ground upon which the present German Roman Catholic Church is now situated in the city of Hamilton, was in the years 1822-3-4 occupied by a large frame barn. A Theatrical Society was organized, and the second story of the barn was fitted up in a tasteful style, with all the scenery, paintings, paraphernalia and trappings of a regular theater. The Theatrical corps had prepared two or three pieces, which went off to the satisfaction of the audience and the credit of the society. The Old Barn and the Hamilton Theatrical Society became conspicuous in the annals of the stage, as it was here in 1822-3 that Mr. Forrest made his debut, or rather commenced his career as an actor, in company with the Misses Biddle, who were distinguished afterwards for theatrical talent.

"The writer says: 'I wish here to digress, to do justice to SAMUEL M. LEE, who was a composer and co-temporary with Mr. Forrest—then a poet, a portrait and landscape painter, and fine vocalist. Many of his pictures are to be seen in and about Hamilton. He has been dead a number of years. When the great and good Lafayette visited Cincinnati in May 1825, Mr. LEE sang to the air of the Marseilles, a martial ode, of which the last words of each stanza were enthusiastically repeated by the spectators. JOSEPH S. BENHAM, Esq., then delivered an eloquent address of welcome to Lafayette. The writer of this article was present and an observer on the occasion. Mr. LEE painted all the scenery of the Hamilton Theatrical Society. He also painted the views of the Western Souvenir for 1829, edited by Judge JAMES HALL, and published by him and G. GURDNER at Cincinnati. The views in the Souvenir were 'The Peasant Girl,' views of Cincinnati, Pittsburg and Frankfort, the 'Shawnee Warrior,' the 'Deserted Children' and an 'Island of the Ohio.' When Mr. FORREST was in Hamilton in 1822-3, performing in our 'Barn Theater,' at the opening, C. R. SMITH recited the following address, written for the occasion by the late Dr. JOHN C. DUNLEVY:—

Good even kind folks—to all a kindly greeting!
What a stable! a strange place this, I deem it.
No matter—'twill do our best to please you,
Perchance the heart-aches for an hour to ease you.
Now, if you're sad, endeavor to be cheery;
For pleasure here consists in being merry.
Since to diffuse a most delightful sadness,
To raise your passions almost to a madness;
To cause men to weep when a hero dies,
Or ladies whimper at feigned miseries,
With all the provocation of the tragic stage,
We'll not attempt, perhaps for half an age.
Mean time, as suite beginners in the art,
With unfeigned wings, we try an humble part.
In comic scenes we'll cause your mirth to rise,
And portray nature to your laughing eyes;
To comic scenes, display the human heart
Arrayed in virtue and devoid of art;
Or else invested with a robe of vice,
Despised and hated by the good and wise.
It is the province of the comic stage
To teach the follies of the living age;
To picture vice, in all its odious hue,
And virtue fair and lovely to the view;
To correct the manners and improve the taste,
Inform the mind and fill a void—a waste—
In life's dull round, to regeneration due.
How e'er he spend his time, what e'er his pursuit,
Man needs some hours to amusement given,
Whether his thoughts be fixed on earth or heaven—
Such is the object of the comic scene.
And such the object that you seek, I ween.
The actor and the audience both may find
A pleasure each, but different in its kind.
Yours is varied, as the scenery you view,
But ours consists alone in pleasing you.
Then judge not harshly of our first attempt,
Repay not kindness with your cold contempt.
And you, ye fair, grant one approving smile,
One kind assurance of your right good will;
We care not what the rougher part may do,
We're sure of pleasing all, in pleasing you!

THE EIGHTH OF JANUARY.—To-day is the anniversary of the battle of New Orleans, and commemorates the greatest military achievement in the history of our country—an event which broke the power of the British Government on American soil, and made the name of Andrew Jackson, the Hero of New Orleans, immortal. The Democratic party—connecting this event with the name and fame of Jackson, their great leader—have uniformly observed the day with appropriate ceremonies, while the enemies of Jackson and the Democracy have opposed and divided it; and for the obvious reason that the victory of New Orleans was an American victory.

We are glad to announce that the good old custom will be revived by the Democracy of Ohio, at Columbus, this evening. A grand Banquet will be given at Naughton Hall in that city—speeches will be made by a number of distinguished gentlemen from different parts of the State—sentiments will be interchanged on the present position and hopeful prospects of the Democracy every where—and a pleasant and cheerful reunion of old political friends is anticipated. We shall refer to the proceedings of the evening when they come to hand.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—An accident occurred on the Dayton and Western Railroad, on Saturday evening, due to the freight and passenger train due in this city at 8:20. It appears that when about one mile this side of Dodds, an axle broke, throwing six freight cars off the track, and piling them up, with their contents, in a promiscuous heap of ruins. The passenger car, which was in the rear of the train, was not injured. The passengers got on board a box car, and were thus brought to Dayton. We are pleased to learn that no person was injured. We have not ascertained the amount of the loss of property.

Coal for steam purposes at Thomas & Beck's on canal, below Third street, very low. Jan4-1wd.

THEATRICAL.—The beautiful play of "The Wife" was put upon the stage in excellent taste on Saturday night, and the performance throughout was highly applauded by the large audience present. Mr. McCullough's St. Pierre was admirably rendered, and Madame Posini performed the delightful part of "Marina" to perfection. Indeed every character in the piece was well sustained.

To-night, Mr. Forrest will appear in his great character of "Hamlet." He will be sustained in the leading parts by Madame Posini, Miss Lillie, Mr. McCullough and Mr. Cole. The play is splendidly cast, and its performance will be a rare intellectual treat to those who are so fortunate as to witness it.

Mr. Forrest has consented to appear again on Wednesday night, as "Richard III." This will be a welcome announcement to his many friends and admirers in this city.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.—A Temperance meeting was held at the Second Street Presbyterian Church on Saturday evening. A society was organized, a constitution adopted, and the following officers appointed:

President—Robert W. Steele.
Vice President—Rev. T. E. Thomas, D. D.
Secretary—J. B. King.
Managers—Rev. L. A. Gotwald, Rev. J. E. Twitcheil, Rev. W. L. Hynes, E. Thresher, G. M. Young, C. Parker, Eugene Parrott.

The following resolutions were adopted: Resolved, That the Board of Managers be requested to secure, if possible, the services of John B. Gough, Esq., for one or more lectures in this city.

Resolved, That we the citizens of Dayton, do hereby earnestly protest against the proposed repeal of the excellent laws now in force for the suppression of the liquor traffic in Ohio.

Resolved, That we recommend to the Board of Managers of this Society, the preparation of memorials to the Legislature to prevent the passage of such a bill.

FIRE AT GALLION.—On Thursday night last, the Round House at Gallion, belonging to the Bellefontaine and Indianapolis Railroad, was burned up and eight locomotives destroyed.

On Friday night, a locomotive belonging to the same road was destroyed by fire at Muncietown, Ind.

Gas pipes have been laid in Dayton-View, and on Saturday evening the residence of Mr. Samuel Kneisly was lighted up brilliantly. Several other citizens of this pleasant locality are preparing to introduce gas light into their dwellings.

HOUSE WANTED.—With two or three comfortable rooms, for a small family, within a short distance of the Postoffice. Rent paid invariably in advance. Apply at the News Room of the Empire.

PAWN BROKER'S SALE.—To-morrow morning at half past eight o'clock, C. P. Huber & Son will commence the sale of goods at the Pawn Broker's office on the North side of Market street.

AUCTION THIS EVENING.—AL FAUVER & Archer's new building, corner of Fifth and Jackson streets, Oregon, a splendid stock of new dry goods and blankets, white and brown, will be sold, without reserve. George Troup, Auctioneer.

From New York.

New York, January 7.

An extensive fraud upon the Internal Revenue Department by the issue of large quantities of counterfeit cigar-box stamps has just been brought to light by the authorities of this city. Three persons, named John Fuch, Charles Metzgerling and a printer named Blumke, have been arrested. The latter admitted he had printed about two hundred and fifty of the stamps and destroyed the plate, but it was afterward found and its engraver apprehended.

Blumke and Metzgerling have been committed to the County Jail by United States Commissioner Osborne, and Fuch has been admitted to bail. It is supposed that no less than twenty of the plates have been manufactured and millions of the stamps printed, and that the fraud will amount to $100,000. The counterfeit stamp is about one-eighth of an inch wider than the genuine, and the paper on which it is printed is half an inch longer.

The Herald's Washington special says that the delay in providing for the trial of Jeff. Davis is becoming the general topic of conversation. The feeling is becoming general that he should be tried or liberated.

This is their reply to owners of several large plantations where freedmen were comfortably located, and it was thought were entirely contented; they were respectful and peaceful; they allege as a reason that they expect a new proclamation that will materially benefit their condition. The river continues to rise.
