VIRGINIA DEMOCRATS.

The State Convention Is Being Held at Roanoke With Many Present.

TWO NOMINATIONS MADE.

J. Hoge Tyler Nominated Governor by Acclamation and Edward Echols Geta the Lieutenant Governorship—Platform Submitted.

Roanoke, Va., August 12.—George D. Letcher, of Lexington, Ky., the temporary chairman of the convention, was introduced by General Hurdley, as the representative of the "young Democracy" of Virginia. Every reference by the temporary chairman to Bryan and the Chicago platform was heartily cheered. He reminded the convention that the fight or free silver is not yet over "but will have to be fought from year to year, until a victory is won."

The speaker made a vigorous and earnest defense of the Chicago platform, especially the plank favoring a federal income tax, and denying government by injunction. His denunciation of the "Deep damnation of the Dingley tariff law" was received with cheers.

With reference to the plank of the Chicago platform, touching the interference of federal government with local affairs, the temporary chairman said this was intended for President Cleveland when he sent troops to Chicago without the request of the Illinois governor, and simply used the interference with the mails as an excuse.

"But it is my opinion," said Mr. Fletcher, "that Cleveland was the tool of plutocracy in this as in other things," and that the movement of the mails was simply an excuse for the use of the troops at Chicago.

At 1 o'clock the convention took a recess until 3 o'clock. At the afternoon session E. W. Sanders was made permanent chairman without opposition. His denunciation of the gold standard elicited applause from the convention. The first considerable outburst of cheering was evoked by the declaration that William J. Bryan will be president in 1900.

A communication was presented from the committee appointed by the Populists' state convention which nominated Edmund E. Cooke for governor. This communication, which is signed by General James G. Field and the three other members of the committee, simply advised the Democratic body of the Populists' action. Action on the subject was deferred.

This incident was the first one in which there had been any reference made to the Populists or the action taken by that party at the recent state convention. The convention at 5 o'clock took a recess until 8 o'clock, to-night.

Mr. Carter Glass, of the Lynchburg News, placed before the convention the name of J. Hoge Tyler, of Pulaski, for the gubernatorial nomination. The mention of Mr. Tyler's name called forth great applause. Mr. Glass' reference to Mr. Tyler being a Democrat and if nominated he would be elected and "stay a Democrat," was thoroughly understood by the convention and was received with a storm of applause.

At the conclusion of the nominating speech for Mr. Tyler, J. Taylor Elyson, who was his opponent, moved to make the nomination of his competitor unanimous. When Mr. Elyson took his seat, on motion, the convention, by a rising vote, unanimously rejected that gentleman chairman of the state committee. At this point Senator Daniel, who was the chairman of the committee on platform, made his appearance before the convention for the first time. His presence was the signal for tremendous cheering.

Mr. Elyson's proposition was carried with a wild hurrah, and J. Hoge Tyler, of Pulaski, was declared the nominee of the convention for governor.

The platform makes the following declarations: We reaffirm the platform of the national Democracy adopted at Chicago in July, 1896, and upon which William J. Bryan was nominated for the presidency of the United States, and we extend our congratulations to our noble champion upon the able and brilliant manner in which he discharged the trust reposed in him. The fact that he received more votes than any candidate for the presidency and more than any candidate of any party, saving alone his successful opponent, is evidence that Democratic principles are still dear to a vast mass of the American people, and that Democracy is still living in the hope of an early and complete triumph.

We especially endorse the doctrine of the national Democratic party upon the four great issues which are before the people of this country, viz, the tariff, the income tax, the regulating of trusts and the currency. Tariff duties should be levied for revenue purposes and only for so much revenue as may be needed for an economic administration of the government, the great surplus in the treasury in its nature being a useless absorption of the public wealth and a constant temptation to extravagance. We denounce the tariff bill recently passed by the Republican congress as dictated by the trusts and monopolies, and in the interest of the classes that live upon the favoritism of the government and not upon the fair and just earnings of industry. We favor an income tax for the support of the federal government, that industry may be the less burdened and that wealth may bear its proper share of the general public burden, and, if necessary, we favor a constitutional amendment that such taxes may be levied. The power of taxation to a federal congress, to employ a means of restraining the great trusts that break up small industries and aggrandize themselves by illicit combinations, and we favor the exercise of such powers to their full extent, to the end that these monopolies may be curbed.

Upon the subject of the currency we declare ourselves unalterably opposed to the British system of monetary policy, which has aggrandized that empire at the expense of the nations producing food supplies and raw materials, and its adoption has only aggravated our financial servitude to London. It is not only un-American, but anti-American, and it can only be fastened on the United States by the stifling of that spirit and love of liberty which proclaimed independence in 1776 and caused the war of the revolution. We demand the free and unlimited coinage of both gold and silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 without waiting for the aid or consent of any nation. We demand the repeal of the 10 per cent taxes on the issue of state banks, which pays not a dollar into the treasury of the United States, and which remains upon the statute books as a monument of arbitrary and perverse legislation, inspired by monopoly and conceived in distrust of the people.

The platform also declares for primary elections to indicate the popular choice for United States senator, and commits legislative candidates to accept the result of the primaries. After two ballots Edward Echols of Stanton was nominated for Lieutenant Governor.

The platform given was reported from the committee on resolutions, but final action on it was deferred until today, when the provision for primary election will be vigorously opposed.

At 2 a. m. the convention adjourned until 10 a. m.

Populist Ticket in Ohio.

Columbus, O., Aug. 12.—The following ticket was nominated yesterday by the Populists: For governor—Jacob Coxey. For Lieutenant governor—Morris Whitcomb.

Supreme Judge—D. C. Pomeroy.

Attorney general—C. A. Reider.

State treasurer—F. M. Morris.

The convention remained in session until after 8 o'clock awaiting the report of the investigating committee, but it was not forthcoming and the convention adjourned sine die with the understanding that the committee would report to the state central committee.

Democrats Win in Indiana.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 12.—The majority of Griffith (Dem.) over Lee (Rep.) in the special election for congress in the fourth Indiana district held Tuesday is 1152.

Holman's majority last November was 925. The Populists had no candidate against Holman, but M. W. Broder was the candidate this year. He received about 600 votes.

Against the Salvation Army.

Texarkana, Tex., Aug. 12.—The case of the Salvation Army management vs. Frank Whitley, superintendent of the street car lines of the city came off in the justice court and resulted in a verdict for Whitley. The litigation sprang from the late encampment proceedings at this place, when the army entered into an agreement with the officers of the street car line. The encampment was held at the park, in return for certain concessions, and remuneration, which were refused. It is said, at the close of the encampment, the Salvation Army filed suit for $50 damages against the park and street car management for forfeiture of contract and after a hot contest their case was brought in a close with the result above stated.

Died a Charitable Patient.

New York, Aug. 12.—William Randall Roberts, who died at the Bellevue hospital on Monday, a charity patient, was a former merchant prince of New York, also a politician of international repute. He was United States minister to Chile in Cleveland's first administration. On May 18, 1883, Roberts was stricken with paralysis in Santiago, and in the following year he was brought back to New York by C. M. Sieberts, former secretary of the legation and lived with him, although he had a wife and son here, ever since until the second of this month. On that date he was sent by Sieberts to Bellevue. Mr. Roberts was born in Cork county, Ireland, in 1830.

Bob Brackett Was Lynched.

Asheville, N. C., Aug. 12.—Governor Russell called out the troops yesterday to protect the negro rapist, Bob Brackett, and to disperse the mob, but his action was too slow and the negro was hanged by a mob. At the lynching was Miss Henderson, the young lady whom the negro assaulted, and she shouted with joy when they strung him up.

When he was brought before her for identification she made a desperate attempt to shoot the negro, but was prevented.

The Carlin's Organizing.

Paris, Aug. 12.—The Matin publishes a statement which purports to come from a Carlist source to the effect that 60,000 volunteers have been organized and are being rapidly armed in various provinces of Spain ready to rise at the signal of Don Carlos.

The pretense, however, according to this story, "is restrained by patriotism and will await the issue of the Cuban difficulty before making a bid for the throne."

AS BAD AS COULD BE.

Blockade at Dyra and Skagway Will Cause Much Suffering.

NO WAY OUT OF THE MUDDLE

Two Thousand People Camped Along the Rocky Shore With No Prospect of Getting Further—Some Already Turning Back.

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 12.—The blockade of Klondike at Dyra and Skagway will lead to much suffering this winter. Captain Amer, who was the pilot of the steamer Islander, which has just returned from the north, says that things are in very bad shape. Affairs could not be much worse. Two thousand people are camped along the rocky shore with but few horses or pack animals at hand, and they have practically no chance of getting over the pass. One of the United States commissioners, by using his official influence and paying $100 in coin, managed to get the Indians to pack his outfit over the Chilkoot pass to the lakes. Of the others who went from Puget Sound without horses, not one in 50 will get across the mountains this winter. Seven Seattle men who went up in the Islander, returned on her to Victoria, utterly disgusted with the prospect and will remain at home till spring, when they expect to make another start. Those who have horses and boats stand a fairly good chance of getting there this winter, but the start must be made before cold weather.

A NEW GOLD FIELD.

One Found in Nicaragua That Seemingly Promises Much.

New Orleans, Aug. 12.—A new gold field has been discovered, but this one is in the tropics. Reports have come to this city lately that big finds of gold have been made in Nicaragua and the steamers from that section have been bringing to gold dust in proof of it.

S. E. Spence, a well known citizen of Houston, Texas, arrived here yesterday on the steamer Fulton, plying between New Orleans and Nicaraguan ports and confirms the stories about the discovery in Nicaragua. He says he has been all over the gold fields district and that gold is there in large quantities. He has acquired valuable claims and will return as soon as he can make arrangements to work them.

He says the whole gold section down there is very rich and the climate splendid. He says unemployed miners of the United States will do much better there than in attempting to go to Alaska. Food in Nicaragua is cheap and other costs are reasonable.

HANNA AND SHERMAN.

Westminster Gazette Has an Article About What the Latter Could Do.

London, Aug. 12.—The Westminster Gazette publishes a long leading article, in the course of which the opinion is expressed that if Secretary Sherman should be forced to retire from the cabinet he will "make Ohio too hot for Senator Hanna," adding, "it is awful to contemplate the results of Mr. Hanna, being done out of his price for making McKinley president."

"Some innocents make the assertion that if Sherman is too sensible to hold office he must be too sensible for the senate, but as a matter of fact no one has yet estimated how incompetent a man must be before the senate is closed to him. In this he shares the advantage of the house of lords."

In conclusion the Gazette remarks: "We are rather sorry if Secretary Sherman is to be superseded, as in his own rough way, he expresses a phase of American feeling, which it is important for us to know."

THE COMANCHE ASHORE.

Senator Hanna's Party is Ahead and Serious Danger Is Believed Ahead.

Port Arthur, Ont., Aug. 12.—The steam yacht Comanche, with Senator M. A. Hanna's party on board, is ashore somewhere in the Nipigon straits on the north shore of Lake Superior. The boat seems to be in serious danger, as a telegram was received here asking that two wrecking tugs and a lighter be sent at once. The telegram was sent from a Nipigon station, on the Canadian Pacific road.

The Comanche left here Tuesday morning for a cruise along the north shore. Senator Hanna's party up to that time had had a delightful trip and had met with no mishaps. The place where the yacht came to disaster is a rocky formation, the channels being dotted with many small islands. It is considered dangerous for any except experienced pilots.

Packages Must Be Returned.

Washington, Aug. 12.—Third Assistant Postmaster General Merritt, calls attention to the growing practice of certain business concerns, which in extending their trade, send registered parcels containing their goods to smaller postoffices, addressed to fictitious or otherwise unknown persons. The concerns then make some plausible excuse to the postmaster and ask him to examine and dispose of them at a reduced price rather than return the parcel. The opening of packages other than by the addressee or on his written order is forbidden by postal regulations, as has been frequently pointed out by the department, and postmasters are again warned to return them to the sending office.

Whisky Sense

You Want the Best

Any Whisky is Whisky. True; so any tea is tea. So any flour is flour, but grades differ. You want the best. If you understood Whisky as well as you do tea and flour, it would be easy to determine. But you don't. How should you? When you are going to buy a commodity whose value you do not know, you pick out an old established house to trade with and trust their experience and reputation. Do so when buying whisky.
