trials that God appoints. Such seeming graces as have never been tried, or will not bear trial, ought not to pass for genuine. They will neither comfort men now, nor fit them for heaven at last.

1. All is not gold that glitters. Great numbers of persons in the professing world are deceived and destroyed by trusting to mere apparent grace; they cannot determine that they have true holiness unless some trial be made of it, and if a trial be made which they cannot endure, the conclusion must be against them; hence they grope in uncertainty, and finally stumble where neither deliverance nor mitigation can reach them. Such was the miserable condition, and such, probably, was the fate of the Laodiceans mentioned in the text;* they imagined themselves rich, but were, in truth, poor and wretched; their funcied gold had never been tried in the fire. Reader, pass not over this topic without some serious reflection in regard to your own spiritual state.

2. The promises of salvation are made to such holiness, such religion, as will endure trial: "Blessed is the man that endureth temptation; for when he is tried he shall receive the crown of life which God hath promised to them that love him."

Not to him who sets out in the morning with resolution and gallantry, but to him who holds out till the evening of life, does have sustained slight troubles shall afterwards faint and fail under severe trials, all their labors and their hopes will prove vain.

3. Every man's character must be scrutinized at the final judgment; and if those trials to which they are now exposed, how can they bear the investigation to which their families, but for the work of the Lord. they will then be subjected ! Surely, if we the ordeal of the last day. If we cannot tion. bear these lighter trials; if a little prosperity, but yield ourselves servants to sin; if we Christ's name. can neither keep our hearts with God in We may expect to see volunteers in this duties, nor mourn for our wanderings from war, as we find them in worldly causes .his hand, and who will thoroughly purge his of Jesus Christ." floor," and who will "try every man's work," We may expect men of talent and wealth as by fire, " of what sort it is?"

We may expect to see our monthly con-Saints wish to know the truth respecting certs for prayer thronged with warm-hearthemselves, whatever it may be, while those ted worshippers, panting for tidings from who prefer that their supposed grace should the harvest of unconverted nations, praynot be tried, are secretly conscious of its ing for Christ's coming, and rejoici falseness and of their insincerity.

O professor, if thy heart be right, thou wilt wish to know the worst of thyself; and when thou hast made the deepest search, thou wilt still fear thou hast not been severe book of Christians; that it will be more enough; nothing will give thee more content than when thou feelest the word dividing thy soul and spirit, thy joints and marrow; nothing so much comforts thee under affliction as the discovery it makes of thy heart. Thou wilt seem to feel with what affection those words fell from the prophet's lips: "Thou, O Lord, knowest me, thou hast seen me, and tried my heart towards thee." O what refreshing sweetness will stream through thy soul, when thou canst make the like appeal to God, and with like sincerity! And surely, with no such willinguess to have your graces tried, you can have little evidence that they are genuine .-Flavel.

The subject of it was tate those which are common, and of which a fine boy, a few months old: men, while they are yet his own children, are not unfrequently the subjects. It is abundantly evident that there is false humility, as well as false comfort. Saul, though a very wicked man, of a haughty spirit, and a great king, when brought, by the conviction of sin, to condemn himself before David, one of his subjects, and one whom he had long hated and treated as an enemy, this boy will make the senate camber cries out, "Thou art more righteous than I; for thou hast rewarded me good, whereas chaplain, then." And yet Saul, at that time, seems to have had very "I hope you will be no earthly minister or little of the divine influences, this being after the Spirit of God had departed from him, and an evil spirit had troubled him. If, then, this proud monarch was brought to humble himself so low before a subject whom he hated, we may doubtless exhibit appearances of great conviction and humiliation before God, while we yet remain enemies to him. There is often, in men who are terrified through the fear of hell, a great appearance of being brought from a dependence on their own righteousness, when they are not in all respects brought from such dependence. They have only exchanged one way of trusting in their own righteousness for another, which is less obvious. Very often a great degree of discouragement, as to child at the judgement seat, which career some things upon which they were accustomed to depend, is taken for hurhiliation, and denominated submission to God; tho' it is no real submission, but arises from some secret compromise which is difficult to be discovered .- Edwards .-

WHAT WE MAY EXPECT BEFORE THE LAT-TER DAY GLORY.

We may expect believers to be so full of missionary zeal as to count no labors in this field any self denial.

We may expect devout mothers to train up their little ones with the perpetual reference to the conversion of the world .-They will lay their infants finger on Christ's great command, and pointing to the dark map of the earth say, My son, here is your

We may expect ministers of the gospel to urge upon all their hearers,, without exception their personal privilege of being (not simply contributors, but) co-workers with God, in this blessed undertaking.

We may expect to see Christ's ministers preparing themselves, not for this city or that city, this field or that field but for the whole world, and not daring to forestal the indications of Providence by any engagements or alliances, which would hinder if they desired to go to the Pacific Iles, or to Africa.

We may expect to see Christian communities more interested and excited by news from Christ's kingdom, than men of the world now are by wars and rumors

We may expect to see whole Churches roused by the mighty appeal of the word the promise apply, "He that endureth to the end shall be saved." Hence, if any who ing themselves joyfully to this work; those who are fit to be sent, to go, those who ought to remain, to yield their substance to the labor of love.

A MOTHER'S WISH

The following conversation was related If Satan can counterfeit those operations to me by an ear witness, as having occurred a short time since between a mother

The mother brought her infant into the room to show him to some of her friends who were visiting her. She calls him her little missionary.

The grandmother, who is particularly attached to the child, began playing with kim, and says, "Before a great whilethough grandmama won't live to see itto the court of St. James." The mother took up the word-"A minister, I hope to a higher court." The old lady continued; preacher." "No," says the mother, "a very heavenly minded one, I hope." The grandmother, still playing with the infant, says;-"Soon these little hands will be extended in making speeches for your country."-"Yes," rejoined the mother, "and the first I bope, will be from Romans viii.

Time only can show whether the confident anticipations of the grandmother, or the fond hopes of the mother will come true; or whether both will be entombed with the child in an early grave. I have one question to ask mothers, after reading the above. When you stand with your would you covet him not only as safest, but as most honorable and dignified, the one drawn by the grandmother, or that wished for by the pious mother? - A.

To meet the calls that are made at our depositories every year for a handsome Annual, suitable in all respects for a Christian present, we shall publish early in the ensuing season a beautiful volume, that will be adapted especially as a gift to the young, but which will be fitted also for the 7th of July proxima. instruction of Sunday-school teachers, and all classes who take pleasure in religious reading. It will be published in the usual style of such, works, and sold at a reasonable price .- S. S. Journal .-

THE BLUE TICKET .- At the June Sab. bath-school concert in Philadelphia, a distingushed clergyman of Massachusetts, addressing unconverted teachers, stated that when he first undertook the duties of a teacher in his youth, he was not pious; but on one occasion, as he was about to give a blue ticket to one of his pupils, he read this verse on it, "He that being often reproved, hardeneth his neck shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy." He felt that this was n description of his own character, and that he had reason to fear that such would be his punishment. He kept the ticket for his own use; he carried it with him to college; the words never left his memmory, and he believes that they were one of the principal means of leading him to the Saviour .- Ibid .-

The Deaf and Dumb .- The Asylum for the deaf and dumb at Hartford, is in a highly prosperous condition. The total number of pupils, who have enjoyed its benefits during the year ending on the 14th ultimo, was 139; of whom 18 were supported by their friends, 15 wholly or in part by the Legislature of Maine, 17 by that of New Hampshire, 18 by that of Vermont, 40 by that of Massachusetts, 14 by that of Connecticut, 5 by that of South Carolina and 9 by that of Georgia, while 3 were exclusively indebted to the funds of the Asylum for the means of subsistence and the facilities of education. The present annual charge for each pupil is only $100, though the actual expense every year exceeds 130 dollars. The balance is contributed by the

Since the incorporation of the Hartford Institution, the number of those who have enjoyed its benefits, is 515-289 males and 226 females. The New Hampshire Patriot, states that the above were members of 457 families, of which 95 contained more than one deaf and dumb person-viz: 57 have contained 2 each, 19 have contained 3 each, 10 have contained 4 each, 6 have contained 5 each, 2 have contained 6 each, and one 7 persons of this class-although in three instances only was one of the parents in these families deaf and dumb. Of the 515 educated, 215 were born deaf, 239 owed their calamity to sickness or accident, and in regard to 60 the cause is not educated by the bounty of their respective States, and 139 by the assistance of their own relatives. Their ages on admission were as follows-under 15, 213; between 15 and 25, 260; and 42 upwards of 25. Nearly 400 pupils have ceased to be connected with the Asylum, a large part of whom sustained unblemished characters in society-36 are married, 33 are communicants in different churches, several are employed as teachers, while many are successfully employed in various other occupations and pursuits.

DA PETERS VEGITABLE ANTI BILLIOUS PILLS These Pills need but a trial to recommend

They are purely vegetable and well calculated or the removal of all Billious complaints.

They act specially upon the Liver, when in a torpid condition, carrying off a large quantity of bile, through the influence of the excernent function, which, if suffered to remain in the system. would produce either Jaundice, Liver Complaint, Billious Fever, Fever and Ague, or some other grievous bodily affliction. In all cases of torpor of the bowels, they act like a charm. In recent cases of Dyspepsia, they are a certain cure. Ma. ny persons who were subject to violent attacks of sick head ache, have been much benefitted, and several perfectly cured in a few weeks by their use. They are highly recommended as a preventive and cure of Billious complaints. Persons who are subject to that distressing complaint, sea sickness, by taking a portion or two of them a few days previous to embarking on board the vessel, will be almost certain to escape it. Females can use them at any period, without incurring any risk. Persons going to sea, or to a southern climate, should by all means take some of these Pills with them .- Their virtues will remain unimpaired for years in any climate. No family should be without these Pills ; a portion of them, taken occasionally would be the means of preventing much suffering from sickness. It is from neglect of keeping up a regular perisialtic action of the stomach and bowels, thus suffering to be absorbed and mingled with the blood; unas similated fluids, that most diseases are produced Dr. P. feels confident that no person who gives these Pills a fair trial, will ever after feel willing ingredient that does not act in harmony with health and oppose disease. Dr. P. wishes it distinctly understood, that these Pl'ls possess beneficial qualities indepen-dent of their purgative effects; they are both tonic and deobstruent, acting upon the secreting and exhalent functions; thus strengthening the pa-tient, while they remove obstructions - Medicines which possess no other, excepting cathertic qualities, debilitate the patient, and their re-peated use lays the foundation of a long catacacy, might be added, but the very high reputation Dr. P. has acquired as the inventor of the "Patent Vegetable Medicina Stomochica et Heputice," for the cure of Dyspepsia and Liver complaints, is thought a sufficient guarantee to those wishing to make a trial of their virtues.

They contain not a particle of Mercury, or any ogue of Chronic Diseases. Dr. P. having been educated under the most eminent American and European Medical professors, and practised his profession many years in the South, where diseases of the most obstinate character prevail, considers himself well qualified to judge on the nature of diceases incident to warm climates. Prepared by Joseph PRIESTLY PETERS, M. D. P. D. C. P. M. at his Institution for the cure of obstinate diseases, by means of vegetable remedies, No 129 Liberty street, New York, inventor and soloproprietor. Each box contains forty Pills. Price

HEAL ESTATE IN MISSISSIPPI. known by the name of Summerfield, situr ted in Hinds County, Mississippi, on Baker's Creek, being desirous of turning his attention to other pursuits, offers forsale that desirable property. The Tract of Land contains eight hundred acres—the quality of the soil is very superiorthe whole tract having been entered at an early period. Almost the entire tract of land is susceptible of cultivation without any inconvenienco. Only about fifty acres is thin soil, and that is the mast valuable part of the tract—it being delightfully situated for a building spot and settlement. Baker's Creek runs through this tract, and consequently a large portion of it is rich Cane Bottom land, and the remainder Cane Hill land. From the Hills flow forth many fina springs. The RailRoad from Vicksburg to Clinton runs within half a mile of this place. It is distant from the former town 25, from the latter I5 miles, and is in the immediate vicinity of Amsterdam. The settlement in which this land is situated is considered remarkably healthy. Within one mile of the place is a Baptist church, within 8 miles are two Methodist churches and within 3 miles are two Presbyterian churches. At all of these churches the Black population is favored with the preaching of the gospel. Three Temperance Societies exist in the vicinity. There is no grog shop within several miles, none sufficiently convenient to contaminate the morals, and injure the negroes. The improvements of the place consist of two hundred and fifty acres open Land, a Gin, &c. With this land would be sold, (to a gentleman who would treat his slaves humanely) from 10 to 25 working hands. Also all the stock session given at any time. Any reasonable credit will be given, but prompt payments would cause the price to be much reduced. A liberal bargain will be given. Address the subscriber at
