Boston Wool.

Boston Mass., Sept. 13.—Trade in wool market as a general thing continues extremely quiet. No manufacturer is disposed to engage large supplies of raw material at this time, owing to the unsatisfactory state of goods on the market. Orders for goods are increasing, however, and the mills are expected to book a moderately satisfactory amount of new business for the late fall.

SOUTHWESTERN DEAL NOT REPORTED HERE

Simmons Does Not Think It Is a Move for a Transcontinental Line. No word of confirmation of the deal reported Monday whereby the Phelps-ige company, owners of the South-tern, came into possession of the Per son block of Rock Island stock, has been received at the general offices of the Southwestern, according to general manager H. J. Simmons, who does not agree that the purchase of Rock Island stock by the owners of Southwestern is significent, but which he calls "merely an investment." is a belief, however, among railroad lishing a transcontinental line, which i said to have been the dream of Dr. F. S. Pearson before the recent disturbance affecting Pearson noldings.
