The "White House" of the Insurrectos
In a One-Room Adobe House History Is Being Made While Armies Wait Issue
(By L. H. DAVIS.)

STANDING SOLITARY. 300 feet south of monument No. 1 of the international line, between the United States of America and Mexico, on the west bank of the Rio Grande, the western Perote, on land owned by El Paso, though in Mexico, within sight of three great transcontinental railroads, within pistol shot of the soldiers of Uncle Sam, is a one roomed adobe house, with one door and two windows, and an unexpected dirt floor, in which are a few chairs, a bed and a table.

Center of Intense Interest.

That house is today the center of intense interest, not only of the peoples of the two great republics of the North American continent, but of the civilized world, for it is the white house of the insurrection, presided over by the incarnation of Mexican democracy, Francisco I. Madero, provisional president of Mexico and "first lady of the land," Señora Madero, mistress of the insurrection executive mansion.

Here Councils of State Assemble.

In this single roomed house are held the meetings of the cabinet, the war board, secret sessions with envoys and ambassadors extraordinary, and in it on Sunday was signed the agreement of an armistice for five days, during which the soldiers of Diaz and the browned warriors of Madero will rest on their arms, pending the peace negotiations, which will terminate in permanent peace or a renewal of "inter-venne, fratricidal war of indefinite duration."

The members of the cabinet and the military staff, composed of such redoubtable chieftains as Pascual Orozco, Giuseppe Garibaldi, Jose de la Luz Blanco and Pascho Villa, girdled with double belts of cartridges and carrying rifles in hand, hold continuous meetings, presided over by the "little redeemer" of his country, who, like Washington in winter quarters in Valley Forge, endures the messer rations and hardships of his soldiers. Here is democratic simplicity, and every day in reception day, when a constant stream of the plain people shake the provincial presidential hand.

Frontier White House Unique.

Truly this frontier white house is Rub the joints with BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT to relieve rheumatism. It penetrates the flesh to the bone conveying its soothing and restorative influence to the spot where the pain exists. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Scott White & Co., 204 Mills St., and Depot Pharmacy.

Some Inside Information

may not be amiss if you sincerely wish to keep pace with the modern trend. Fine feathers are almost universally held to make fine birds and the coat is widely esteemed as a fairly dependable index of the man. Ask any man who is successful in business and he will invariably admonish you to wear good clothes. We have inside information in the shape of attractive suitings, and our "hipsters" in the bench room know how to get results. Our clothes cost no more than the ordinary kind and yet they fix your standing.

REBELS GET MACHINE GUNS, THE REPORT
Bring Them Into Casas Grandes—Insurrecto Arrested for a Crime.

Colonia Dublan, Mex., April 17.—(By Mail.)—Yesterday a party of 27 revolutionists, 10 of whom were Americans, came in with 60 rifles, several thousand rounds of ammunition and five rapid fire guns, all which, it is said, are to be used in the fight against Ciudad Juarez.

The third trainload of rebels left here last evening for Ciudad Juarez, making about 2000 rebels from these parts. There are not now a great many revolutionists in this part of the country.

A courier came in from the El Valle district today, saying they had engaged the federalists in that country, and that the rebels had taken 150 guns, which meant the loss to the federalists of 150 soldiers.

The appointment of senior Ponca as jefe politico has been sustained, and he will hereafter occupy that position under the rebels. A new judge and other officers have also been appointed, and they are now exercising jurisdiction in this part of the country without interference from the federalists.

Last Thursday night an assault was made upon the person of a little 12-year-old blind girl of Edmund Richardson, of Colonia Juarez, by a Mexican rebel. Friday morning a number of men went to Pearson to locate the criminal and to have him arrested, and all the rebel officers had left there. They telephoned to Col. Garibaldi, who stated that he would send men to apprehend the criminal, which he did, and the officers succeeded in lodging him in the Casas Grandes jail. The new jefe politico said today that the man would meet justice.

The report was circulated that the revolutionists intended to disarm the Dublan and Juarez colonists. A delegation from these two colonies today waited upon the jefe, but he denied the rumor. He said if the rebels became hard pressed they would buy the guns and ammunition of the colonists, but he was informed that this would be impossible. The colonists have no guns or ammunition to sell.

It is said that upwards of 1000 head of horses belonging to the rebel army

STOLEN INSURANCE POLICIES TRACED
Man Arrested at San Antonio; Alleged to Have Operated Here.

San Antonio, Texas, April 24.—Three charges of forgery lie against J. F. Wall, alias Carrier, who is alleged to have come to San Antonio several weeks ago with 50 insurance policies, in blank, alleged to have been stolen at El Paso in February, and to have written policies for varying amounts, forging the names thereof. Wall was arrested by sheriff Tobin while he was in the act, the sheriff says, of attempting to collect a premium on one of the bogus policies. Deputy sheriff Alfonso Newton filed the charges in the justice court.

Search by sheriff Tobin, assisted by Emil Hausen and R. N. Cooper, representing two of the companies whose policies were stolen at El Paso, revealed, they say, that three of the blanks have already been discovered as having been used, 23 were found in the room occupied by Wall at the Lo-soya hotel, and 19 are still missing. Of these 19, if any, have been written, the "stolen" person stands to lose everything, as the policies are void. The three written up policies were for Mexicans, and were for $700, $1500 and $750 respectively.

Sixty policies were stolen from the office of Loomis Brothers of El Paso and were in the Prussian National Insurance company of Germany, the North River Insurance company of New York, and the Northwestern National Insurance company of Milwaukee.

TO RUN TELEPHONE TO MADERO'S CAMP

A telephone is to be installed in the adobe house which is serving as a capital building for Francisco Madero, opposite the smelter. He will then be able to conduct much of his business by telephone, although he will be permitted to pass through the federal lines at any time he wishes, according to the armistice agreement.

ARGUMENTS START IN DR. HYDE CASE

Kansas City, Mo., April 24.—Arguments on the application of Dr. B. Clark Hyde for a writ of habeas corpus were begun today before Judge Stover. Hyde is under life sentence for conviction of the murder of Col. Thomas H. Swope, but recently was granted a new trial. The proceedings are an effort to secure his release on bond pending a new trial.

IOWA TOWN IS UNDER MARTIAL LAW

Muscatine, Ia., April 24.—This city, practically went under martial law today as a result of the strike of pearl button workers. No public meetings will be permitted after dark and curfew restrictions will apply to everybody.

Despite the presence of soldiers only a few additional workers returned to the factories today.

STEAMSHIP ON ROCKS. PASSENGERS RESCUED.

Tokio, Japan, April 24.—The Pacific Mail steamship Asia, from Hong Kong for San Francisco, ran onto Pinger Rock, 200 miles south of Shanghai, Sunday morning during a thick fog and sank. Her wireless calls of distress were answered by the Chinese vessel Shang Siu, and it is believed all 20 passengers and the mails were saved.

WANT AN ELECTRIC POWER PLANT AT DEMING

Washington, D. C., April 24.—Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania, today introduced a bill to appropriate $300,000 for an electrical power plant at Deming. Delegate Andrew Harrison introduced the same bill in the house.

Las Cruces, N. M., April 24.—Ruth Scofield and Carmen Heilrath, two El Paso girls who have been in Las Cruces for the past two months, were arrested on charges of violating the "White Slave" law, on information sworn out in El Paso, and were given a hearing before United States commissioner Chaffee, who sent them to El Paso to be tried before the commissioner of that district. The three El Paso girls, whom it is claimed they brought to this city in opposition to the interstate commerce law, were also sent down to the Paso City to be held as witnesses.

Dominic Feirra, who recently came here from Magdalena and bought a ranch, was also arrested on the charge of having furnished the money to bring the three El Paso girls here. He was placed under bonds of $1000 to appear before the next grand jury. Mr. Feirra claims that he brought the girls here to act as waitresses in a beer garden which he contemplated establishing.

The only deputy voting against the adoption of the bill as a whole was Aurelio Melgarejo.

Following the adjournment of the chamber, a few of the deputies who had won the approbation of the spectators were carried through the streets on the shoulders of their admirers.

BRINGS SOUVENIRS FROM BATTLEFIELD

Roy Martin Makes a Visit to Agua Prieta, Across From Douglas.

Roy L. Martin, assistant city ticket agent of the G. H., has returned from Agua Prieta with his head full of war stories and his pockets filled with war curios. He has the bloodstained pocket with a bullet hole through it, cut from a dead insurrecto's trousers, and a rifle ball which passed through an insurrecto's body, a woman's arm and then stuck in an adobe wall.

Through the courtesy of Gen. Diaz, federal commander at Agua Prieta, I was shown about by his chief of staff, Lieut. Col. Medina Barron, he says, "He told us that the federals captured a lot of junk, including 500 saddles, 75 horses and 107 guns, among which were a shotgun and a 22 rifle. The horses are only good for the bull ring, although there are no fights at present. The federal soldiers are now stationed in the bull ring, about 200 of them. There are 64 naked Indians—all men, of course—with the federals.

Avalanche at Bull Ring.

"The bull ring was an awful sight, all shot to pieces. In it the rebels made their last stand, and the federal machine guns ripped through the two towers and the walls. Every house in town has been perforated by rifle balls, and the American custom house is also perforated. The whole town is shot up. The federals have buried their dead, 15 they say, along the side of the bull ring wall. There are three bodies in each grave, with a little wooden cross over each grave. There is one large grave, 10 by 12 feet, where the bodies of the insurrectos were dumped. There is no mark over the place.

Had Plenty of Beer.

"The town is covered with empty bottles, showing that either the federals or the rebels had a fine booze-fest. One liquor dealer had two carloads of beer, and all of it disappeared. It is not true that the rebels destroyed all liquor in the town. The postoffice was looted, and yesterday I found some of the office outfit in a little house. The money had been stolen, but there were few stamps left. Gen. Diaz informed me that Antonio Rojas, a rebel leader, is down near Nacozari with about 500 men. He is drilling them with a view of going something like the federals. That Rojas is a determined fellow, and a brave fighter. At Agua Prieta the federals have mounted a machine gun on a mesa east of the bull ring. It commands much of the territory, including the approach to the town.

Insurrectos in Douglas.

"Red Lopez has disappeared from Douglas and nobody seems to know where he is. Col. Medina, the El Paso insurrecto, is on parole at Douglas. Gen. Lemell, of the insurrecto army, is in Douglas. At the Douglas ball park they have 50 or 60 federal and insurrecto prisoners, who came over with arms and ammunition. Many of the federals stripped off their uniforms, and it is impossible to tell which is which. Among them is Col. Vargas, an insurrecto. Some of the rebels are going to work. Seven came to Mastedon last night, enlisted by an employment agent for railroad work on the E. P. & S. W."

INSURRECTOS CAMP IN OJO MOUNTAINS

Federal Garrisons at Naco and Capanea Heavily Reinforced.

Cananea, Son., Mex., April 24.—Confidence is rather quiet in the war line in Sonora at present. From present indications there will be no battles fought in the state for a little while anyway, as the insurrectos seem to be recovering slowly from their Agua Prieta and Ures campaigns.

Reports in Cananea are to the effect that most of the insurrectos participating in the recent Agua Prieta affair are now located in the Ojo mountains, northeast of Cananea and southwest of Douglas. The number is not known exactly, but it is estimated that there are at least 600 encamped in the various canyons in that range.

At Naco there is at present a federal garrison of about 350 men. These men will probably be stationed at these points of entry until the trouble ends.

The Naco garrison received a large consignment of ammunition on Friday last. 25,000 rounds of ammunition being sent there from Hermosillo on that day. Besides ammunition there was one machine gun. Twenty men and a captain, Manuel Bala, went to Naco from Hermosillo, joining the garrison there.

On Saturday afternoon 20 volunteers left Cananea for Hermosillo in charge of five guards.

It is understood here that a large number of federals are at present coming up the Sonora river from the south country. Just the correct number in the party is unknown, but it is believed that they number between 400 and 500. Their destination is stated to be Cananea.

Cananea at present is defended by 500 men, half of which are volunteers, the other half being federals.

THE SECRET OF SUCCESS

Genuine Merit Required to Win the People's Confidence

Have you ever stopped to reason why it is that so many products that are extensively advertised, all at once drop out of sight and are soon forgotten? The reason is plain—the article did not fulfil the promises of the manufacturer. This applies more particularly to a medicine. A medicinal preparation that has real curative value almost sells itself, as like an endless chain system the remedy is recommended by those who have been cured, to those who are in need of it.

In an interview on the subject a prominent local druggist says: "Take for example Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a preparation I have sold for many years and never hesitate to recommend, for in almost every case it shows immediate results, as many of my customers testify. No other kidney remedy that I know of has so large a sale."

The success of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is due to the fact that it fulfills every wish in overcoming kidney, liver and bladder diseases, corrects urinary troubles and neutralizes the uric acid which causes rheumatism.

A free trial bottle will be sent by mail, absolutely free. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and mention this paper. Regular size bottles sold at all druggists—50c and $1.00.

JUAREZ MERCHANTS ARE SMILING AGAIN

Smile, smile, keep on smiling is the tune the Juarez merchants are singing, whistling and playing on their photographs. The war is over as far as they are concerned, the adobe barricades have been removed from the show windows and the sale of post cards has begun again with renewed vigor.

The town remains in the same comatose state that has existed across the river since the Madero army appeared in the hills opposite the smelter. But the business men of the Mexican town see a bright rainbow in the east and they are preparing for a renewal of business as soon as the railroads are again open to Casas Grandes and Chihuahua.
