The Bascom-French five, of Las Cruces, put it over the Globe Mills five Tuesday night in the long distance telephone bowling match, winning by margin of 29 points.

This is the first of a series of tele-phone matches between these two sins, and although the first match went against them the local boys are worried, as they carried off the individual honors, Armstrong taking high game with a total of 240 pins, and Nagle winning high total with 537 pins, an average of 179 to the game. Following is the score of the match

LERNER'S Our Emory Mill Remnant Sale

Has scored a triumph, it has carried the town by storm. The selling has surpassed all records, it is wonderful, it is inspiring. You feel the enthusiasm in the air the minute you enter the store. Green tickets are everywhere, and not one but points to a bargain out of the ordinary. Wherever Mr. W. T. Emory, the authorized agent of the eastern mills and the owner of the "Mill Remnant Sales," opens his Semi-Annual Sale of left-over pieces and lengths from the mills, he confidently expects to monopolize all the business in that particular city, nothing less will satisfy him. Every day this week this great sale goes on. Each day brings in to prominence new lots of Mill Remnants to fill the places of sold out lots. Mr. Emory has arranged prices and goods at mill cost for ten days. New goods on sale each day at the
