FIRST BALLOT DRESS OF GUESSING

Kept Delegates Speculating
During Day as to What Would Be Outcome.

JAMES LOOKING FOR QUICK WORK

Baltimore, Md., June 28.—The ballot of the early morning was taken today as the starting point for all speculation about the Democratic convention as to who would be its candidate for president. All eyes were centered on New York, Illinois and Indiana.

The feeling was general that the nominee of the convention is assured of a practically solid south next November and all energies were being bent to add to this conceded southern strength the additional strength of the pivotal northern states, notably, Illinois and Indiana, which would combine enough electoral votes from the north and south to secure a victory.

Messrs. Murphy, Sullivan and Taggart, the three leaders of the northern states, have been in constant consultation and have been working in harmony as the lines have been formed. They went over the situation today before the balloting resumed this afternoon.

The New York delegation has an element of about one-third of its strength favorable to Wilson. But the predominant element, of course, is for anyone who has reasonable assurance of carrying New York.

This morning the New York delegation had reached this stage: At the caucus yesterday the delegates agreed on a complimentary vote for Harmon. They might follow this with a complimentary vote for Gaylor, it was said, and they probably would continue these complimentary votes until they could see more definitely their way to make the large vote of the Empire state most effective.

A Tammany caucus was held at 3 o'clock today, and the Harmon leaders went into conference about the same time.

Chairman Ollie James, this morning reiterated that the convention would meet at 4 o'clock and that the standard bearer would be chosen without another all-night session.

HUERTA WAITING NEAR BACHIMBA

Probably Trying to Get the Rebels to Try to Head
South.

At the Rebel Front, Bachimba, Mexico, June 28.—Rebel chiefs this morning were mystified at the disappearance of the federals from the railroad directly in front of Bachimba. Almost as far south as the big Ortiz bridge, 15 miles away, scouts reported no federals in sight. Later they reported locating the federal army at Ortiz, but the rebels still mystified that Gen. Huerta has not pressed forward to attack.

It has become reported here that the federals are prepared for the rebels if they hold out long enough and try to move south; that there are enough men along the railroad south of Huerta, under Blanquet and Aubert to take care of the rebel army.

ELEANOR WILSON

JESSIE WILSON

DEMURGATION FOR THE THE AMERICAN POLICY

Zach Cobb and Congressman Smith Both Introduce Resolutions Condemning His Action—Cobb Calls the Clark Demonstration a Hearst Fake and Says Wilson is the Man—Cobb Meets Ryan.

BY ZACK LAMAR COBB

Baltimore, Md., June 28.—I have introduced two resolutions of very great importance to our people. It will be extremely difficult to obtain action upon them, and those who are sufficiently interested to do so, should telegraph to senators Culberson, O'Gorman and Newlands and Mr. Bryan, care of the resolutions committee, urging them to support the measures.

The first resolution is mine. I think it of vast importance. The second was written by congressman W. R. Smith. I introduced it at his request. Of course, I endorse it.

Resolution offered by Zach Lamar Cobb, a delegate from El Paso, Texas: "Resolved, That the constitutional rights of American citizens should go with and protect them throughout the world, and that every American citizen residing or having property in any foreign country, so long as he observes and respects the laws of such country, is entitled to and must be given the full protection of the United States government, both for himself and his property. We contrast the weak policy of the Taft administration in its treatment of Americans in Mexico with the strong stand of Grover Cleveland in upholding the Monroe doctrine."

NO NOMINATION IS MADE ON THE SECOND BALLOT

CLARK STILL LEADS IN THE VOTING, BUT HE NEEDS MANY MORE VOTES.

Convention Goes Immediately Into Balloting and Agrees to Remain at Work Until a Nomination Is Made.
Delegates Rest But a Short Few Hours After Their All-Night Session.

The Convention in Detail

Convention called to order at 4 o'clock to resume voting upon Democratic nominees.

Delegates remained in session all night, listening most of the time to nominating speeches, and adjourned at 7 o'clock Friday morning for sleep. Full account of night meeting on pages 4 and 5.

W. J. Bryan creates a sensation at night meeting by introducing resolution to unseat delegates representing "the interests," including Ryan and Belmont. Full account on page 4.

First ballot, taken before morning adjournment Friday, results in no nomination, but shows Clark leading and Wilson second.

Bryan and senator O'Gorman finish drafting platform, which sub-committee accepts. Platform now in hands of full committee on resolution. Zack Cobb, of El Paso, and congressman W. R. Smith, offer section condemning the action of president Taft in failing to protect Americans in Mexico and on Mexican border.

New York decides to vote for Harmon on second ballot and Clark on third.

Convention Hall, Baltimore, Md., June 28.—There was no nomination on the second ballot in the Democratic convention, but Clark still led the other candidates.

The two leading candidates in the second ballot were: Clark 446 1-2; Wilson 339 1-4; as against 440 1-2 for Clark and 324 for Wilson on the first ballot.

The convention did not adjourn until 7 o'clock this morning, after listening all night to nominating speeches. It met again this afternoon at 4:12 and proceeded immediately to taking the second ballot, the first one this morning having resulted in no nomination, though Champ Clark led. It was agreed that the convention would remain in continuous session until a nomination should be made.

The platform is completed and ready to submit to the nominee, after which it will be placed before the convention for adoption.

Most of the state delegations had taken their places in the convention hall at 3:45. The gallery crowds already extended back to the last tier and promised to exceed in magnitude any of the former gatherings. The prevailing talk from the floor indicated a prolonged session with little material change in the early ballots.

New York for Clark. The New York delegation decided in caucus just before the convention met to back Judson Harmon on the second ballot and to vote for Clark on the third ballot unless unusual developments arise. As to Underwood, Kern and others, future caucuses were to determine. "We can caucus any time without leaving our chairs," said Aiton B. Parker, the leader.

Charles F. Murphy announced after the New York caucus that it was not definite that New York's 30 votes should go to Clark on the third ballot.

"We will vote for Harmon until the delegation is polled," said Murphy. "That may come on the third ballot." "I am not sure."

Will Stick for a Vote. Leaders representing all candidates for the presidential nominations deflected the attention of the delegates called to order that all had agreed to remain in session until a nomination is made.

Second Ballot Ordered. The convention was called to order at 4:12 p. m., and the second ballot was ordered at 4:29 p. m. Roll call showed the following vote:

Alabama, Underwood, 24; Arizona, Clark, 5; Arkansas, Clark, 18; California, Clark, 26; Colorado, Clark, 22; Connecticut, Underwood, 14; Delaware, Wilson, 6; Florida, Underwood, 12;

PLATFORM COMPLETED; READY FOR SUBMISSION

Lays the Burden of Most All Wrongs Upon the Republicans—Condemns the Aldrich Plan and Pronounces for a Tariff for Revenue Only—Is a Lengthy Affair, Though Bryan Boiled It Down.

Baltimore, Md., June 28.—The committee on resolutions completed its work this afternoon and adjourned to meet after the nomination of the candidate for the presidency.

The platform will be first inspected and approved by the presidential candidate and will not be made public until presented to the convention.

At 3:15 o'clock Mr. Bryan came from the committee on resolutions and announced that the committee had practically completed its work.

"Best Ever Made." "We will have the document ready for the convention," he said, "and you will find one of the best ever made."

Mr. Bryan offered, but subsequently withdrew, a plank providing for the settlement of acute disputes with other nations by negotiations. It directed a thorough investigation of such controversies with a view of arbitration before declaring war. Senators Clark, of Arkansas, and Culberson, of Texas, opposed it on the ground that the question was fully covered by treaties with other nations.

The financial plank requires the distribution of the national treasury funds among banks, but requires them to pay interest on such deposits.

It became known that an effort had been made to frame the platform so as to appeal to the Republican "progressives."

Platform Very Long. The situation has led to the making of an unusually long platform, but its length will be found to be due to the variety of subjects. There has been a consistent effort to blue pencil unnecessary words. When, for instance, Samuel Gompers appeared before the committee in the interest of labor he was asked by Mr. Bryan, who is the dominating factor in the committee, whether the Denver labor plank was not satisfactory.

"It was," replied Mr. Gompers, "re-affirm it and we will be satisfied."

"Rewrite that plank," declared Mr. Bryan, "but put it in half the words and make each word bristle."

Republicans Despair Trusts. Giving special prominence to the tariff, an effort has been made to demonstrate that the Republican policy of protection has been responsible in large degree for the high cost of living and for the development of trusts and monopolies. There will be a positive declaration for revision downward to the basis of a tariff for revenue only, with special stress on the word "only."
