

WAR MAKES BELGIANS MORE POLITICAL; CHURCHES ARE REEFICE FOR MANY

Great Cathedrals Wrecked, but Smaller Houses of Worship Escape; Merger of Two Rich New York Churches Proves a Failure; American Churches to Fight Militarism.

Dr. HENRI ANET, for many years Christian leader in Belgium, has just returned to America by way of London...

In the vast majority of cases, according to Dr. Anet, clergy have gone to the front. Without them the people are holding parish prayer meetings...

CHURCH MERGER IS FAILURE WITH NEW YORK BAPTISTS

Fifth Avenue and Calvary Baptist churches, New York, two of the largest and best known congregations among American Baptists, have just decided to end a temporary merger...

It is understood that reasons leading to the ending of the experiment, and the going back to old conditions were three. One was pressure from Baptists of the country, who plainly told New York Baptists they have no right to jeopardize national influence...

BIBLES SCATTERED OVER WORLD THROUGH BIG CANALS

The great inter-oceanic canal projects prove extremely valuable as centers for world bible distribution. The British and Foreign Bible society, of London, maintains at Port Said a distributing agency whose influence extends to every country...

CHARITY DEMANDS GREATER THAN EVER KNOWN IN ENGLAND

Reports from all parts of England, from Canada and Australia show that never were charities of British people more pressed for funds and more active in Christian work in London organizations of all kinds are far more numerous in proportion than in New York or Paris, Berlin or Rome...

CHARGES FILED AGAINST NEW MEXICO COUNTY CLERK

Albuquerque, N. M., Jan. 8.—Abelino L. Lucero, county clerk of Sandoval county, charged in a formal accusation filed here Friday by the district attorney, with having purchased evidence of county indebtedness at a depreciated value, which is believed to be ground, if proved, for his removal from office...

Men of the First Presbyterian church will give a reception for E. A. Shelton, whose appointment as postmaster at El Paso was recommended to the senate by president Wilson Friday.

The unpardonable sin is the constant, continual and final rejection of the Holy spirit's conviction of Jesus Christ as a personal savior. Many are in danger of committing this sin. The Holy spirit may be resisted for the last time...

THEOLOGICALS OF THE MIDDLE AGES USED TO ARGUE WHETHER JESUS COULD OR COULD NOT HAVE SINNED WHEN HE WAS TEMPTED; BUT ETHODOX THINKERS TODAY ARE AGREED ON THE VITAL POINT, AND THAT IS, CHRIST HAD TO BE SINNED.

The Christian religion had its origin in Christ and it is well therefore for us to go back again and again to the primitive sources for our definitions and data.—Rev. Perry J. Rice, of First Christian church.

DIFFICULTIES OVERCOME BECOME STEPPING STONES TO HIGHER THINGS. THEN FACE YOUR TRIALS BRAVELY, AND OVERCOME THEM.—REV. W. C. BABER, OF ALTURA PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Bring loyal to one's convictions of right is the best way possible to come to know the truth. If no one else will volunteer to guide such an one, Divine Providence will undertake the work.—Rev. J. H. Allen, of Austin Park Christian church.

THROUGH THE SWIFTLY PASSING YEARS OF OUR REMAINING BUT FADING STRENGTH, LET US SO LIVE AND LABOR THAT OUR HOME SONG MAY GROW SWEETER AND SWEETER TOWARD THE EVENING HOUR, UNTIL AT LAST IT BECOMES A CELESTIAL SONG UPON THE WINGS OF WHICH OUR SPIRITS MAY SOAR AWAY TO OUR NEW—OUR HEAVENLY HOME.—REV. JOHN E. ABBOTT, OF WESTMINSTER PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

"That you may be blameless and harmless, sons of God, without rebuke," is Paul's exhortation to the Philippians, and how important it is that those who call themselves Christians should order their lives in such a pure and blameless way as to disarm the criticism of unbelievers.—Rev. Charles L. Overstreet, of the First Presbyterian church.

JESUS LAID CLAIM, AND JUSTLY, TO ALL AUTHORITY IN HEAVEN AND UPON EARTH. THE DEVILS ACKNOWLEDGED THAT CLAIM; ONLY MEN CALL IT IN QUESTION. THE NOTED AUTHORITY IN THE HOME IS NOT DOMINANT AS IT WAS IN THE OLDEST TIME, NOR IN SOCIETY, NOR IN THE NATION.

Jesus laid claim, and justly, to all authority in heaven and upon earth. The devils acknowledged that claim; only men call it in question. The noted authority in the home is not dominant as it was in the oldest time, nor in society, nor in the nation.

Sentence Sermons by El Paso Ministers

THE church's grand task is to help men and women in their thinking, and thus to help men to be politicians. She has to help by inspiration, and then leave the inspiration to be worked out as the individual deems best.—Rev. Miles Hanson, of the First Congregational church.

Have we need of Jesus? Yes, for without such an example, such an ideal, no man can reach his best. We need and must have an ideal outside and beyond self to inspire and lift us up, and a conscious experience of comradeship with Jesus is the inspiration and lifting power.—Rev. C. Wesley Webb, of Trinity Methodist church.

The unpardonable sin is the constant, continual and final rejection of the Holy spirit's conviction of Jesus Christ as a personal savior. Many are in danger of committing this sin. The Holy spirit may be resisted for the last time.—Rev. Charles Mendell, "The Boy Evangelist," East El Paso Presbyterian church.

It is said of two blind men that they took advantage of the fact that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by, and in response to their earnest appeal they received his healing touch. "Jesus of Nazareth passeth by" many that are spiritually blind and should know that he is ready to open their eyes, too, if they will only "cry unto him in faith."—Rev. Kenneth Brown, of East El Paso Presbyterian church.

History, both sacred and secular, emphasizes the fact that great movements never begin with a multitude, but with a few; often with a single man or woman who has caught a vision of better things and with a blazing heart has gone forth to make the vision a reality.—Rev. W. R. Evans, of Highland Park Methodist church.

The theologians of the middle ages used to argue whether Jesus could or could not have sinned when he was tempted; but ethodox thinkers today are agreed on the vital point, and that is, Christ had to be sinned.—Rev. W. H. Duncan, of Alta Vista Methodist church.

The Christian religion had its origin in Christ and it is well therefore for us to go back again and again to the primitive sources for our definitions and data.—Rev. Perry J. Rice, of First Christian church.

Difficulties overcome become stepping stones to higher things. Then face your trials bravely, and overcome them.—Rev. W. C. Baber, of Altura Presbyterian church.

Bring loyal to one's convictions of right is the best way possible to come to know the truth. If no one else will volunteer to guide such an one, Divine Providence will undertake the work.—Rev. J. H. Allen, of Austin Park Christian church.

Through the swiftly passing years of our remaining but fading strength, let us so live and labor that our home song may grow sweeter and sweeter toward the evening hour, until at last it becomes a celestial song upon the wings of which our spirits may soar away to our new—our heavenly home.—Rev. John E. Abbott, of Westminster Presbyterian church.

The movement is spreading all over the islands rapidly, overcoming the inertia which it generally met at first.

A description of the condition of women in the war districts of Belgium and France and an explanation of how their sufferings might have been mitigated by proper preparation and organization, is usually sufficient to convert every "doubting Thomas."

Branches are especially active in centers where there is a large population of working girls. Of course, there is a large portion of the militant suffragists in this direction.

The suffragists believe they can, by their conduct, in case of an invasion of Britain, present an unanswerable argument for the ballot.
