Widow Is Murdered. Chicago, Ill., April 6.—Mrs. Agnes Middleton, a widow, was found beaten and hanged to a beam in her bedroom Wednesday. A bloodstained razor was found, but nothing was found that would explain blows on the front and back of the head that fractured the skull in each instance. Geo. Middleton, the husband of the woman, was shot to death two years ago. The police pronounced it a case of suicide, but now are inclined to the opinion that Middleton was murdered.

IN BOYLAND

OKLANDS report a victory over the Mount Franklin Juniors, 19 to 6, on Wednesday afternoon. Acquire pitched a great game for the winners and he was well backed up by catcher Hamilton. White was the star for the losing team, putting up a great game behind the bat.

Oklands also report a victory over the Golden Hill Tigers by a score of 15 to 18. Bonita and Elmore composed the battery for the Oklands. Scotten stretched what seemed an ordinary double into a home run by some sensational work on the path.

The Golden Hill Tigers are scheduled to play the Oklands again on Monday afternoon and the Oklands would also like to hook up with the Mount Franklin Juniors in another contest for Saturday afternoon. Games can be arranged by calling 4074 and asking for Bob Elmore, captain of the team.

MAKING PROGRESS FOR BIG Y. M. C. A. CIRCUS

Practice for the Y. M. C. A. circus continues under a full head of steam. The boys are becoming more enthusiastic as they make progress in their drills and stunts. The "Peewees" are doing remarkably well in their tumbling and also are the juniors in their high and broad diving.

The regulars are making rapid improvement in the heavy apparatus work and the circus will be the means of developing or producing some stars to take the places of the experts. Schutz, Thomas and Nichols, who are expected to arrive this week to help coach on the high bar work.

Paul Krupp is working up a fine squad of artists on the long horse which will be a new piece of apparatus that will be sprung on the public in this circus. Grady Weeks and his clown committee are burning midnight oil working on new clown stunts and this outfit with the addition of Claudius Smith, who has recently been signed by the management assures a successful clown troupe.
