EL PASO GIVES ITSELF OVER TO FESTIVITIES
AS IT SAYS GOOD BYE TO THE OLD YEAR AND
BIDS WELCOME TO NEW, THEN RESOLUTIONS

NEW YEAR'S EVE—The last week of the year finds a great many El Pasoans polishing their conversational coat tails for the enterprising social events being given. The Rex, the Nevada and the West End were among those who gave their annual New Year's Eve parties-festive, colorful and enjoyable in every way.

Like the Rex and the Nevada, the West End gave their annual New Year's Eve parties. The Rex was crowded with well-dressed couples, while the Nevada and the West End were packed with merry makers.

A Happy New Year!

When the New Year's Eve parties are over, the New Year will begin. May it bring peace, health and happiness to all who choose to celebrate it with us.

Many Dinner Parties at Country Club; No New Year Dance Tonight

Capt. John H. Langdon and wife, Mrs. John H. Langdon, gave their annual New Year's Eve party at their residence, 3070 Royce Place. The party was attended by a large number of friends.

Out of Town Visitors

A large number of out of town relatives and friends were present at the various New Year's Eve parties in El Paso.

New Year Chimes

The New Year's Eve parties were well attended, and the chimes were rung for the New Year at midnight.

El Pasoans Returning.

Many El Pasoans who had been away for the holidays returned home for the New Year's Eve parties.

Musical

The New Year's Eve parties were marked by a variety of musical performances.
