Anniversary Of Birth Of La Fayette And First Marne Battle Jointly Celebrated

Messages of Felicitation and Congratulation Upon Victory of Allied Arms Read, Amid Impressive Service at New York, From President of France, Gens. Pershing and Wood, Secretary of State Lansing, Others.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—Ambassador Jusserand, of France, was the principal speaker at Franco-American exercises held here today in New York's historic city hall in commemoration of the 125th anniversary of the birth of La Fayette and the fifth anniversary of the first battle of the Marne. Amid the impressive services, messages of felicitation and congratulation upon the victory of allied arms, which had been brought to pass since the last celebration of the La Fayette day national committee, were read from president Poincaré, of France, Gen. Pershing, Maj. Gen. Wood, and secretary of state Lansing.

How could our two nations not seize this year of international peace the occasion to celebrate together the same anniversaries? La Fayette was born in the year of independence. It has never been obscured since. It has found its true meaning in the great fight we have just fought shoulder to shoulder for the liberty of our two nations.

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSIONERS ARE 'OUSTED' FROM BOARD

Chas. M. Galloway Makes Statement as He Retires From Board.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 6.—Upon his retirement today from the civil service commission, Charles M. Galloway issued a statement declaring that he and Herman W. Graves, the Republican member of the commission, were "ousted" because they were not willing that the commission should be a mere adjunct to the postoffice department and subordinated to it, especially with reference to nominations for presidential postmasters.
